He's coming!
The greatest movie star of them all is coming to Klamath Falls, Saturday, Sept. 27, with the Al G. Barnes wild animal circus.

The movie star, whose name has been on the lips of all motion picture fans throughout the country, and who has appeared in some of the most spectacular films released in the past year, has signed up with the Al G. Barnes circus.

Barnes secured him from the Universal Motion Picture corporation, at Universal City, at a cost of $25,000, after the famous star had evinced the desire to try his hand at circus life.

The movie star is none other than Joe Martin, himself.

In addition, you will see Lotus, largest and only performing blood-sweating hippopotamus in the world, who eats a bale of hay and a bushel of carrots at every sitting.

But the greatest sensation on the big program is the gigantic extravaganza, "Pocahontas at the Court of Queen Anne," the colossal feature that opens the entertainment. Don't miss it.

HIGH TEACHERS ARE GUESTS AT CHAMBER LUNCH

Legion Commander Explains Plan for Memorial Gym To Be Built Here

Teachers of the Klamath county high school were guests at the forum luncheon of the chamber of commerce yesterday and the main address by H. E. Getz, commander of the American Legion post, was on the Memorial Gymnasium soon to be built, thus making the luncheon a high school affair.

The teachers were introduced to those present by Principal F. R. Bennett who designated the group as "his family."

Miss Eloise McPherson, music teacher, accompanied by Miss Betty Ramsby, gave a pleasing vocal selection which called for an encore.

Another entertainment number which greatly pleased those present was a violin solo by Miss Catherine Walton accompanied on the piano by Miss Beatrice Walton, a second selection being demanded by the listeners.

Getz explained the Memorial gymnasium plans in considerable detail and was roundly applauded as he finished, the idea seeming to be very popular with those present.

CAN FADE AWAY BY TAKING ONE OF HIS POWDERS

Juan de Dios Gary of Peru Has The Dope and It Sold Well Until Law Stepped In SACRAMENTO, Calif., Sept. 24.—(United News)—Juan de Dios Gary, now safely installed behind the nice hard bars of the federal prison at McNeil's Island, should be able to slip out of his confinement unnoticed. According to his own statements he is the inventor of a powder that renders the user invisible.

Gary believed so implicitly in his powders for the lovelorn, his powders for success in business and his powders of invisibility and other things that for five years he sold them to people all over the world.

He told customers in Peru that he was humanity's greatest benefactor and after he saturated the market in that country moved on to Guatamala, Brazil, Cuba, Mexico and other foreign countries. He did a land office business in the United States before he was finally caught.

Gary is termed as the "most notorious and clever swindler on the Pacific coast," by the state board of medical examiners, who analysed a number of his "powders" and found the basic ingredient to be fine steel filings.

"Ah, if I only had some of my invisibility powders now," the swindler is said to have murmured to the cops that caught him. But the cops had been warned and refused flat-footedly to do any purchasing.

The latest sporting news including the Coast and Major league ball games are published in The Klamath News.

Robt. Griffin, formerly of this city but for the last year of Chico, Calif., has returned here with his family to reside.
