ASK BOND ISSUE FOR LIBRARY

DIRECT TAX PLAN DROPPED BY COUNCIL

Whether or not the city of Klamath Falls will have public city library will be decided by vote of the people at the coming general election November 4, when a special election will be held to vote on a bond issue of $50,000, the money to be used for the purchase of a library site and for the erection of a building.

That was the way the matter was decided by the city council last night after an entire evening of discussion which included the council and interested citizens present.

When the council was called to order Mayor Wilson presented the matter for which this adjourned meeting of the council was held, viz. to consider the library problem and also, he suggested, to give consideration to the purchase of the north 4 1/2 acres of Modoc park and some adjacent lots for a recreation ground for high school students and other children.

Mayor Wilson also called attention to those present to the possibility of using the Episcopal church building, after its purchase by the school board, for a city library for several years without any rental charge. This the mayor suggested as an expedient until the Modoc park proposition is taken care of and money available for a library.

The matter was thrown open for general discussion and on suggestion of the mayor, F. R. Bennett of the high school spoke as did R. C. Groesbeck. Both speakers admitted the value of both the Modoc park and the library proposition. Groesbeck, being the spokesman for the women of the library club, a number of whom were present, insisted that the library matter be put on the ballot.

The petitions which were submitted to the city council carried 416 names and asked that a special direct tax to raise $50,000 over a period of four years be levied, an amendment to the charter being necessary. As City Attorney J. H. Carnahan stated that the legality of such proceeding was in doubt, it was decided that a bond issue was the only way to safely get the matter over.

On a motion to put this bond issue on the ballot November 4 Councilman West voted no, all others voting yes. West, who favored the use of the Episcopal church as a library while Modoc park was being taken care of, immediately moved for a bond issue of $35,000 to be placed on ballot for the park proposition. Councilman Smith seconded the motion but it failed to pass as West and Smith were the only ones voting in the affirmative.

The council adjourned to meet Thursday evening at 7:30 p. m. for some of the routine work relative to putting this library bond proposition on the ballot.

JAPS ADOPT RULE OR RUIN LEAGUE PLAN

GENEVA, Sept. 29.—(United News)—Delegates worked desperately today to save the league of nations protocol of arbitration and security which is imperilled by Japan's insistence upon bringing the question of such problems as the American Japanese exclusion act before the league. The protocol, hailed as greatest constructive step toward world peace in league's history, provides for a disarmament conference if three of the four nations represented on the council endorse it. Ambassador Adishi, a Japanese, virtually threatened opposition to the proposal unless the protocol's seventh article is revised so that disputes "arising from questions of purely domestic jurisdiction" may be brought to the council.

OSAKA, Japan, Sept. 29.—The Japanese cabinet today decided to maintain an adamant attitude towards insisting upon the reservation to the league of nations proposed arbitration.

TOM KAY HERE ON POLITICAL CAMPAIGN WORK

Candidate for State Treasurer on Republican Ticket Banqueted By His Many Friends

Tom Kay, republican candidate for state treasurer, spent Saturday in Klamath Falls in the interest of his political candidacy.

A banquet was tendered him by his political friends at the White Pelican hotel Saturday evening and all directly connected with the republican organization here received invitations and most of them attended.

The affair is reported as very successful and one at which Kay made a pleasing address, naturally in no manner sparing his political opponents.

During Saturday, previous to the banquet, Kay was a caller at The News office and spent considerable time explaining the injustice of certain charges made against him of having purchased something like 5,000 yards more woolen cloth for the institutions of the state than was actually needed, the greater part of this cloth having come from his own mills.

Kay stated that he had confidence in his winning the election over Jefferson Myers by a very substantial majority. He was accompanied on his rounds by Linn Nesmith, personal friend and party representative in this county.

AUTO RACES AT FAIR GROUNDS DEVELOP SPEED

The auto races Sunday attracted quite a crowd and the cars made good time considering the short curves and dusty track. The local car showed good speed. Clow driving car No. 5 drove one of the best races of the day, following Fronty No. 9 through the complete race. Clyde Deal also showed good speed leading the race until his motor froze. There is no doubt whatever that these cars will be in the money next Sunday.

The race drivers will do all in their power to prevent the dust on Sunday's race according to the Manager G. W. Lott. The track is extremely dry and hard to handle but is fairly under control now, packing very hard in the back stretch. The loose dust on the outside being the main difficulty.

A fence will be constructed the lower turn to prevent spectators from blocking the road.

Results on the races are as follows:

Event No. 1—Handicap, cars Nos. 9 and 5. Three miles Time: 5:01. Finish 9 and 5.

KLAMATH BOYS HOLD ASHLAND TO TIE SCORE

Hotely Contested Football Game Saturday Is Even Break But Local Boys are Pleased

Fighting up and down the field for every minute of the contest, our boys brought a score of 7 to 7 home with them from the Ashland football game. This is the first time for several years that the high school team hasn't been beaten on Ashland's field although they tied in the game played here last year.

Bus Christy, captain of the eleven, wore the lucky 13 on his sweatshirt and, contrary to the predictions of well wishing friends, his was really the luckiest play for Klamath.

Ashland made their touchdown early in the game and Klamath had fought for yardage but had no luck until well along in the third quarter when 13 got the ball and scored. Peltz made one of his famous kicks and put the pig skin between the goal posts giving Klamath a score of 7.

No points were made in the last quarter. With 5 minutes to play 13 was knocked out although he was the only Klamathan to suffer from the fight. Ashland's team sustained four knockouts which speaks well for the roughness of our home team.

Gus Carlson, coach, says that this year's team is much stronger on the defense than that of last year and that the backfield will hold its own better.

Grants Pass comes here next Saturday to play at the Fairgrounds.
