HIGH FACULTY FROM MERRILL JOINS MALIN

Will Make Joint Trip Today to See Historic Spots Along Tule Lake Shore

The high school faculties from Merrill and Malin accompanied by many students and friends will spend today viewing and studying the historic places along the shores of old Tule lake.

Capt. O. C. Applegate will accompany the party and explain in an informal matter the happenings which 50 years and more ago made that section the center of attention throughout the country.

From Klamath Falls the start will be made about six in the morning. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Thomas and children and Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Rice going in addition to Capt. Applegate.

The party will leave Merrill at 7:00 and Malin about 7:30. The noon luncheon will be at the old stronghold on the southern shore of the lake, those going taking their own lunches.

MINISTER AT BONANZA FROM CANYONVILLE

BONANZA, Oct. 17. — Rev. Bowman, Methodist minister, who has been chosen to take charge of the church in Bonanza arrived here Saturday, Oct. 11. He was accompanied by his brother Al. Bowman from Canyonville, where Rev. Bowman has been stationed. Rev. Bowman held services Sunday evening in the church. Early Monday morning he and his brother left for Canyonville. Rev. and Mrs. Bowman will return to Bonanza in about two weeks.

Bonanza needs a minister, this charge needs a pastor. Last year this pulpit was not filled with a resident minister. Bonanza welcomes Rev. and Mrs. Bowman.
