

AUTUMN SALE SEASON OPENS

This week finds a great many Klamath merchants preparing for the annual fall sales when specials in practically all lines will be offered the local buying public.

Next Saturday the first Community Bargain Day will be inaugurated to be followed on the last Saturday of each month for six months with the possible exception of December when holiday buying will be the order for the entire month. The plan of the Community Bargain Day is for all lines of merchandise, groceries, hardware, furniture, drugs and drygoods to offer specials as a means of stimulating general interest in buying.

Today the Baldwin Hardware Co. is offering a commodity which interests practically every man in Klamath, shotgun shells reported to compare with the best on the market for the reduced price of $1.10.

H. J. Winters Jewelry Co. is boosting an auction sale of high quality stock, and at the opening yesterday crowds of Klamath people took advantage of the rare opportunity of buying at their own price.

The C. J. Breier Co. state that they foresee an election outcome which makes it advisable for a general price reduction.
