BUSINESS WOMEN HAVE DINNER AT PELICAN

The Business and Professional Women's club had a banquet last night at the White Pelican hotel which was attended by about fifty members and well wishers of the organization. The program was very good and several excellent speakers were present. The activity in the near future which is occupying a great deal of the time and energy of the club women is the gift sale and tea which will be held November 18. The place for this is not yet definitely decided on.

OVERALL AND APRON DANCE SUCCESS OF SEASON

The Elks annual Overall and Apron dance given for club members Tuesday night was one hit of the season. Fully 150 guests were present and the barnyardy atmosphere made by the overalls and gingham aprons was delicious. The Elks plan to add much to the social whirl of Klamath Falls this winter and the next event scheduled is to be a musical comedy, "The Novelty Revue" with a company of fourteen. This will be given at the Elks Temple and will be followed by a dance with a six piece orchestra recomposed of women furnishing the music. Elks and their friends are all welcome to this which will take place Nov. 18.

M. E. CHURCH SUPPER LAST NIGHT

The first of the winter series of church suppers was held last night at the Methodist church and was followed by a very enjoyable social hour. These suppers will be given every Wednesday night with a social evening following on the first Wednesday of the month and prayer meeting and study classes on the other Wednesdays.

INFORMAL EVENING AT MALLETT HOME ON NINTH

Dr. and Mrs. George Mallett entertained a few friends last night with an informal evening of music and cards. The house was very attractively decorated with yellow as the predominant color and delicious refreshments were served. Guests were the Messrs. and Mesdames: N. B. Drew, H. W. Bathiany, and William Sanders.

ELECTION RETURNS AT EPISCOPAL CHURCH

A large crowd enjoyed the hospitality of St. Paul's Episcopal church Tuesday evening where a delightful social time was had and all election returns received. A delicious buffet luncheon was served by members of the Churchwomen's Service League and the entire affair was a success.

DANCE FOR ODD FELLOWS ANTICIPATED

The Odd Fellows are eagerly awaiting the first dance of the season to be given for them by the entertainment committee Saturday night. These balls are always a great source of pleasure during the winter to all Odd Fellows and Rebekahs and any friends they may wish to ask. This dance is expected to start the season with a bang and many other good times seem to be in view.

CHARITY BALL EVENT OF WEEK

The Charity Ball which takes place Friday night at the White Pelican hotel seems to loom as the most important society function in the near future. A large attendance is expected and as Houston's orchestra is to play it will be an evening well spent. Invitations have been issued and tickets are being sold by a corps of girls under the supervision of Mrs. Garry Cozad.

A President's Daughters

Leonor (left) and Concha Orellano, daughters of the president of Guatemala, are visiting in the United States. They are guests of Arthur H. Geissler, American minister to their country.

A. N. W. CLUB HAS DELIGHTFUL TIME

Mrs. Rose Soule was hostess yesterday afternoon for the Art Needle Work club. A most enjoyable time was reported and the afternoon was spent in doing needlework and discussing the affairs of the day. Lovely refreshments were served by Mrs. Soule and members look forward to meeting with her again.

FT. KLAMATH

FT. KLAMATH, Nov. 6.—Mrs. E. D. Hriscoe was taken to Klamath Falls Friday to be taken to the Klamath Valley hospital. She was operated on Saturday morning at 9:00 o'clock.

Ida and Bess Hriscoe and Alice Ferguson returned from Ashland with Jack Hriscoe and Elva Moon, who went over Friday morning. Ida and Alice went back to school Sunday but Bess stayed here to do the house work at home while her mother was at Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Taylor and daughter Juanita and Elva Moon motored to Klamath Falls Sunday evening to attend the show that evening.

Ray Loooley and family have moved from Anna Creek Lumber plant to the creamery, where they will start the creamery next Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gray have moved in from the ranger station. They own a home in Iowa.

Registered at the Fort Klamath hotel are: F. H. Oard and John Mabon of Crater Lake; H. B. Rankin, C. Jones and S. P. Brown of Medford, Ore.; V. H. Carrault and S. T. Henderson of Roseburg, Ore.; J. C. Mitchell, Edison L. Foulke of Coquille, Calif.; J. T. Dixon of Ft. Klamath; Seth Dixon and his wife, formerly Miss Constance Mac, formerly Mrs. Constance Mac, returned here Saturday afternoon. They were chartered Sunday morning after the Saturday night dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Miller, residents of here, have moved to Roseburg for the winter. They will stay there until they think it is warm enough to move back to Ft. Klamath.

The Fort Klamath high school and seventh and eighth grades are having a contest. They are selling the "Country Gentleman." Half the funds they receive will go for play room equipment. The returns will be reported next Monday.

A paper where all the people have opportunity to express themselves if they desire, this is The Klamath News.
