to be one of the most interesting meetings of the year. The reports showed 166 raised the past month for the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis and more pledges to be paid later. Plans were made for a proper observance of May 3 in the Sunday school.
 A parliamentary drill was enjoyed at the close of the business. Later in the afternoon refreshments were served by the hostess. This being the anniversary month for the union. A beautiful birthday cake graced the table. Mrs. C. E. Patterson the oldest member present lighted the candles, the secretary Mrs. N. E. Woodhouse cut the afternoon. This proved cake. Another beautiful surprise for the union was the two kinds of fruit cake made last November. One came a long, long way named from Texas. Mrs. Westbrook's daughter having sent it.

 The members departed with a splendid fellowship feeling for one another and the interests of the work at heart.
 C. D. Corphening has been in Klamath Falls the past two days receiving medical aid.
 Mrs. J. H. Hobbs is back in the Merrill mercantile after a few weeks absence.
 Mrs. N. LaRaut of Salem is visiting her sister Mrs. J. H. Hobbs.

AGENCY

KLAMATH AGENCY, April 25.—The Klamath Agency Woman's club held its regular bi-monthly meeting Tuesday evening, April 21, in a class room of the Klamath boarding school. After the business session the evening's program followed. The subject in was the "World Court." Henry Weiss read a paper on "The World Court: How and Where Formed." Mrs. W. H. Zeh then gave a talk on the work of the World Court. A general discussion on why the United States did not sign the agreement for the World Court, ensued all the ladies present taking part.
 Conservation week, which is set apart from April 27 to May 3, or "American Forest Week" as it is called by some, will be observed by the Woman's club by a special program with subjects along this line on May 5. regular meeting night.

ASPGROVE

ASPGROVE, April 25.—Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lemmons left here Sunday morning for their home on Williams Creek. The Lemmons had the misfortune of having their house burnt down about a month ago and have been visiting here with Mrs. Lemmon's mother Mrs. J. E. Mansfield while their new home was under construction.
 William Morrison was a visitor here from Mount Heburn, Calif. last week and was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. Doney Wednesday.
 H. N. Radisch moved to Chiloquin Thursday where he intends to make his home for some time.
 Denny Driscoll was a business visitor in Klamath Falls Saturday.
 Pete Beck was down from his camp on Spring Creek Wednesday. While on his way down here Pete fell in the river, he reports the water very wet and extremely cold. Pete did not invite anyone to go in with him.
 Charlie Chastain, John Brophy and Mark Morgan went to Klamath Falls to see the boxing match last Tuesday evening.
 Mrs. Carl Williams was over from her ranch on the Fort Klamath road Thursday to visit with her mother Mrs. D. Anderson.

ST. PAUL, April 25.—Garry Herrmann's famous traveling delicatessen, noted for the richness of its blutwurst, the ripe flavor of its long fibre sauerkraut and life-like quality of its imitation beer, has been pinched by the federal authorities and Garry, himself owner of the Cincinnati Reds, has been served with a warrant charging him with chaperoning the brew to St. Louis.
 There are warrants for five other Cincinnati baseball routers. The prohibition agents would further like to interview two waiters, who were manning the foaming spigots of two kegs in the hotel headquarters of the Reds' cheering squad when raiders broke in on a close-harmonic rendition of "Hoch der buergermeister Garry."
