MUSIC

MUSIC WEEK TO BE OBSERVED

In observance of National Music Week, May 1 to May 10, the last musical program of the year of the music department of the library club will be given on Monday, May 4 at three o'clock in the Presbyterian church. There will be no paper at this time, the entire afternoon devoted to the rendering of musical numbers from modern composers. Those who will participate in the afternoon's program are among the best known voices and musicians in Klamath Falls, and the committee in charge are fortunate in obtaining their courtesy.

On Sunday evening, May 3, the choir of the Presbyterian church will give a sacred concert. All organizations devoted to music are scheduled to display some sort of work during the week and it is the desire of all interested to obtain a large following to attend the program given in Klamath Falls during that week.

CONCERT GIVEN UNDER AUSPICES OF CHORAL CLUB

George Maddux, noted tenor, assisted by W. Carlton Jones violinist and Charles Hazelrigg, accompanist, were presented in concert Friday evening by the M. E. Choral club. The Choral club is to be commended for bringing to Klamath Falls this trio of artists and those who heard them Friday evening showed their sincere appreciation by their attention and applause. Mr. Maddux possesses a voice of rare quality and coupled with a pleasing personality gave a performance seldom heard here. Mr. Jones' violin numbers were enthusiastically received.

The program as given Friday evening follows:
1. (a) Serenade Puccini
(b) Your Eyes Have Told Me Hardy
