In the grounds of the Big Joy Zone there will be some 15 or 20 different shows, which will claim the attention of the crowds. First in the show comes Snapp Brothers' featured attraction, "Reuben Rave One Ring Circus," where you will be entertained in real circus style. It is a thoroughly clean, colorful, most consisting of novel acrobatic stunts by a happy family of superior gymnasts, dogs and ponies, with the inevitable clowns and mule appearing in the act, roaming the arena in such a funny manner, giving the audience many a laugh and thrills. Last, but not least, comes the most dangerous act ever presented to an audience. A young lady ventures into a cage containing a lion and a puma. This young lady teases and fights these wild beasts at the risk of her life, to show the public her

Wonderful ability in their training. Among the more thrilling attractions are the dare-devil motorcycle riders, who ride their speeding bikes around the saucer track, having a maximum diameter of 10 feet. Cannon Ball Bell holds to his credit the title of the man who defies death, riding his specially constructed motorcycle at the speed of 90 miles an hour, gradually ascending the walls of the track until he is whirling around a perpendicular wall at the top of the saucer at break-neck speed, defying all laws of gravitation. Mr. Bell also attempts many daring and hair-raising tricks and fancy riding stunts around the bowl at furious rates of speed. Cannon Ball Bell and Derrall will run a match race around the saucer with their motorcycles developing a terrific rate of speed, being followed by Milla Marie in her specially constructed automobile, showing how an automobile can be driven in a precariously tipped position, provided a certain rate of speed is maintained.

ATHLETICS GO INTO TRIPLE TIE WITH SENATORS AND INDIANS GIANTS TIGHTEN HOLD IN NAT'L

Blind Miller who was celebrated for a brief time a few seasons ago as Babe Ruth's mightiest rival took another slam at the Yanks today, clouting a triple in the ninth inning and defeating the Ruthless New York team in the final spasm for the second time in two days. Sunday Miller beat the Yanks with a ninth inning homer and Monday scored Jimmie Dykes ahead with the run that gave the Athletics the long end of a 3 to 2 score. This was the Yank's fifth straight defeat and the demoralization of the team has now become a panic. The batters made 11 blows but Hoyt, Jones and Francis of the Yanks were troubled for 16 including a homer, Miller's triple and three doubles. The Yanks are now tied with the Red Sox for sixth place and are only 1 1/2 games ahead of the Tigbetween the White Sox and Indians in Cleveland. There were but two games in the National as well as the Giants trouncing the Phillies in Philadelphia 12 to 3 and the Red Sox beating out the Dodgers in Brooklyn last inning, 6 to 5.
