Johnny Dundee Is Primed for Fight With Sid Tonight

NEW YORK, May 4.—The echoes of Madison Square Garden will fill back the bowl of the fight crowd just once more, when Johnny Dundee, who fought the star bout against Joe Welling in the re-opening of the fight game in New York, meets Sid Terris Tuesday night. The fight will pit an old man of the ring against a kid, for Dundee has had 100 scraps in his 15 years under the cauliflower banner, and Terris, only four years in the trade, has crawled through the ropes only 50 times.
