NEWS CONTEST HAS GO-GETTERS

you can call in the office and make a payment to the credit of your favorite contestant. It is necessary for you to pay your subscription sometime, why not pay it now and help your contestant with one of the big prizes? Contestants, don't forget that the first "period" of the contest closes Monday night, 9 p. m. on June 1st. For every $20 in subscription payments turned in up to that time, 200,000 extra votes will be issued. You can't afford to let this first period of the contest pass by without putting forth all the energy possible to get both old and new subscription payments to The News. Some of the contestants are working real hard for these bonus votes. If you are not, why not? This contest closes on Monday night, 9 p. m. June 15th. At that time the judges will count the votes and the prizes will be awarded to the highest contestants. Will you be one of the lucky ones?

SHRINERS COMING HERE

W. C. Van Emon, president of the Crater Lake Shrine club, announces that Klamath will have over 200 visiting Shriners as visitors on Saturday, the day being the occasion for the celebration of the spring ceremonials of Hittah temple of the Mysia Shrine located at Ashland.

Visitors are expected here from all the southern Oregon cities, from as far north as Eugene and as far south as Redding in California. A banquet for Shriners and their wives with covers laid for 350 will be one of the features of Saturday evening at the White Pelican hotel.

Deputy Sheriff C. J. Taylor and his wife were Klamath Falls visitors yesterday.
