OREGON U. BEATS AGGIES ON TRACK

EUGENE, May 23.—Coming up from behind in the last two events, the University of Oregon won from the Oregon Aggies at track here this afternoon 69 1-2 to 61 1-2.

It was the first track victory of the season for the webfooters. With the low hurdles and mile relay remaining to be run off, the Aggies were leading by two points. Kelsey, Ore., star hurdler, who was ill all week, entered the low stick event and took first place, with Cleaver of Oregon tied with Baker of O. A. C. for second. This gave Oregon a three-point lead, which was increased by the mile relay team's win.

The Aggies opened the meet by making a clean sweep in the mile, and taking the first two places in the shot put and discus events.

Oregon came back and took all three places in the 100 yards and broad jump. Extra ran the century in ten flat.

SPORTS DONE BROWN

Some big league players labor for years without having their deeds rewarded. The other day Earl Smith, Pittsburgh catcher, missed a foul fly and a Boston fan crowned him with a chair.

The other day the Cincinnati Reds ambled out of Brooklyn with the good wishes of the Dodger fans. The Reds had put an awful crimp in the plans of Uncle Wilbert's team.

And the ringleader in the fray wasn't Pete Donohue, Adolph Loque, Benton, Carl Mays, Jackie May or Tom Sheehan. He was Mr. Eppa Jephtha Rixey, the college yell pitcher who is old enough to write his memoirs of the early days of colleges and baseball.

Eppa just up turned the Dodgers back at will.

Which only goes to show that you can't tell how good the pitchers will go in Brooklyn from the way they look in St. Louis or Philadelphia, regardless of the weather, price of ice cream or the fluctuations in steel.

The recent loss of Tris Speaker to the Indian lineup, due to an injured knee, is a body blow to the Indians, coming at a time when they figured on continuing their serious bid for the league leadership. Speaker has always been the barometer of the team. The Indians win when he's in and blow up with a loud and resounding bang when he warms the bench. The only hope of the team and fans at this time is that the club has impetus enough to keep ambling along until his return.

Speaker is troubled with a tender knee. He has had trouble with it for several campaigns. As he gets older it becomes more cranky. The knee holds up well under ordinary playing conditions, but a wrench in rounding the bases, hooking into them or in fielding throws it out. Stiffness and considerable pain follow, and he has to give the leg a complete rest until the knee becomes normal again.

Adolph Loque, Cuban hurler with the Cincinnati Reds, hurled his bat at a Brooklyn pitcher the other day when the hurler nicked him in the leg with a pitched ball. If the National league hurlers aren't careful Adolph will take his dolls and go home.

The score was 7 to 6. The Indians were put in the lead in the seventh by a homer from Tris Speaker's bat but lost a chance to score in the 8th.

DETROIT, May 23.—The Tigers went on an old-time batting rampage this afternoon and smothered the world champion Senators 15 to 3.

ST. LOUIS, May 23.—Pounding Rommel, Andrews and Graves viciously, the Browns defeated Connie Mack's Athletics here today. Slater and Robertson got home runs.
