HONOR MISS MACK WITH DINNER PARTY

On Tuesday evening, at the home of Miss Lydia von Berthelsdorf, the girls of the Sanchacho campfire group entertained with a dinner party in honor of Miss Donna Mack who in the near future will leave for an extended visit in Boston, Mass. Miss Mack has been assistant guardian of the Sanchacho group for the past two years. The girls appreciate very much the time and energy she has given to them and are sorry to see her leave. The campfire colors, flame and brown were used for decorations and the centerpiece was a miniature campfire.

Following the dinner a very impressive ceremonial meeting was held. At this time 151 heads were given. National heads were awarded to Ethel Carlson, Margaret Cummings and Anna Setzer. The degree of Fire Maker was bestowed upon Anna Setzer, Lydia von Berthelsdorf and Ella Redkey. Margaret Cummings and Elvira Call were each presented with a candle holder and the Torch Bearers pins which signify that they had attained the highest degree in campfire. A pleasing musical and literary program concluded the evening's festivities.

The program included a piano solo by Elvira Call; Indian dance by Muriel Moore; reading, Anna Setzer; Violin solo by Lydia von Berthelsdorf; instructive talk by Mrs. A. L. Rice; songs, sung to the melody, Lorraine Mordoff; campfire song, "Mystic Fire," Anna Setzer; Lorraine Mordoff and Margaret Cummings; the Walking Song, the Sanchacho group.

The Democratic national committee's initial effort toward election of a Democratic house and senate in 1926, is the establishment of a weekly newspaper, The National Democrat. Fred W. Steckman, publicity director for the pre-convention campaign of Senator Oscar W. Underwood is editor.
