

K. F. SCHOOL TEACHERS TO SPEND VACATIONS IN VARIED MANNER; NEARLY ALL TO RETURN IN FALL

Two of the faculty of Central school are planning trips to Canada, one will journey to Minnesota for the summer and a number are planning to enter school for the vacation period, according to those who signified their intentions yesterday.

This is the last week of schools in Klamath Falls and classes are completing their work. One hundred and fourteen students are being graduated from the eighth grade, the largest graduating class in the annals of Klamath county history.

Some Summer Courses

Every teacher in Central school has the work for the coming summer outlined, and all but three of the teachers are planning to return to Klamath Falls in September to continue their work. Mrs. Ruby Wiscarver has resigned to take up the more trying duties of house keeping. Miss June Dunlap has accepted a position in Washington and Miss Ethel Nelson will attend school in San Jose.

Within a week or ten days after the close of school Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wells will leave for California where Mrs. Wells will enter Miss Sweetpea's school for primary teachers in Santa Cruz. Mr. Wells will attend school in the University of California to brush up on his knowledge of being a superintendent.

Some Visit Parents

Miss Augusta Parker, principal of Central school will leave soon after school to spend the summer months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Parker, and sister Miss Gertrude Parker of Grants Pass.

Miss Hazel Noble of the fourth grade, will leave for Duluth, Minnesota, where she will spend the summer with her parents. Miss Noble also plans on visiting for a fortnight with Mrs. Richard Frederick in Oregon City, who was Miss Genevieve Eron, a teacher of Riverside school before her marriage last year.

Miss Sara Folsom, of the first grade room, will attend the commencement week at Modoc high state normal school before returning to Mosier, Oregon, where her parents reside.

Mrs. Mollie Belding will visit with friends in Bend, leaving immediately after school has closed. Mrs. Belding teaches the lower section of the first grade in Central school.

Miss Anna Mae Johnston of the second grade, will spend a portion of the summer visiting with friends and relatives in Portland and Seattle, according to her present plans.

Another to attend school will be Mrs. Violet McLaughlin, teacher of the sixth grade, who plans to enter the University of California in Berkeley for the summer session.

Few Will Not Return

Miss Ethel Nelson, one of the three teachers who will not return to Klamath Falls next fall, will visit in Portland for some time, as well as in Seaside before leaving for San Jose, where she will enter the California state normal school.

Mrs. D. Clemens will remain in the city the early part of the summer.

mer, planning a trip to western Canada, through British Columbia and northern Washington. Mrs. Clemens teaches the seventh grade.

According to Mrs. Ruby Wiscarver of the eighth grade, who has resigned her position from the Central school faculty, her vacation will not be enjoyed until later in the summer, when Dr. and Mrs. Wiscarver plan a trip to the home of Mrs. Wiscarver's parents, in Boise, Idaho.

Miss June Dunlap has accepted a position in Washington, where she will teach next year. She plans to spend her vacation away from the second grade room in Central Point, with her parents.

Miss Olive Wilson will visit with her mother, Mrs. Sarah Wilson of Roseburg. Miss Wilson is the domestic art teacher in the Klamath schools.

Russell Kidder, of the manual training department has not made up his mind if his vacation, later in the summer will be enjoyed in Canada or Mexico.

Girl Throws Scare Into Boys' Marble Contest By Skill

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—June 1.—The only girl who dared and had the skill to knock down among 63 boy entrants in the national marble tournament, was eliminated this afternoon, after winning her first four games in masterly fashion in the morning.

Marie Lawley, the 13-year-old "tom boy" from Harrisburg, Pa., had won from Cloyd Bookwalter, of Altoona, in three straight, 3-5, 5-5, 12-1. She also defeated Leon Miller, representing Lancaster, in their first game by a score of 5-5. Then Leon rallied and barely saved himself from the boyish disgrace of being beaten by a mere girl. He won the next two, 7-6, 7-6.
