

LOCALS

From Malin—Among the many out of town visitors in the city this week from the neighboring city of Malin is Miss Eva Myers, a resident of that vicinity, who arrived in Klamath Falls last night to spend several days.

To Visit Mother—Miss Lulu Foster, teacher of Riverside school will leave Klamath Falls shortly after the completion of the school year and spend her summer vacation visiting with her mother in Junction City. Miss Foster will return to Klamath Falls in September to resume her duties as teacher.

From Rocky Point—D. J. Puckett, prominent logging contractor, of Rocky Point, arrived in Klamath Falls the early part of the week to spend some time here transacting business. Roads to Rocky Point are in good condition, stated Puckett, in spite of the heavy rains of the past few days.

Olene Visitor—Among the many out of town visitors to be seen on the streets of Klamath Falls was Miss Ruth Hall, of Olene, who is visiting with friends in the city for a few days this week.

From Hilt—Mr. and Mrs. George H. Taylor, prominent residents of Hilt, Calif., are in the city for a brief shopping tour. They are stopping at the White Pelican hotel.

Lakeview Visitors—Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Davis, residents of the neighboring city of Lakeview are among the visitors in Klamath Falls for several days this week. Davis is a business man of Lakeview where he has considerable interests.

From Topsy—I. E. Perkins, of the Topsy Lumber company arrived in Klamath Falls last night where he will spend some time visiting with friends and calling on others interested in the lumber game.

Portland Visitors—Among the visitors in Klamath Falls from Portland, the City of Roses, are J. E. Buchanan, H. C. Decker, L. E. Kneer, W. M. Dockery, Eric Rutquist, J. C. Elliott King and sister Miss Constance King, C. A. Hart, J. C. McVay and N. Audrey.

Railroad Man Here—A. F. Sneden, well known railroad man in Union Pacific circles arrived in Klamath Falls last night to spend some time visiting with railroad officials and inspecting the work done here.

From Stone Lagoon—Few visitors from Stone Lagoon wend their way to Klamath Falls. However, two of the residents were guests in the city last night. They were: Mr. and Mrs. William J. Graham who spent the day shopping and transacting business from their farm.

Chautauqua Men—Ernest F. Grundemeier and John A. Grimm, both interested in the Ellison-White Chautauqua company, are in the city, arriving last night to erect the large seven day tent which the company is sending to Klamath Falls this year.

From Dunsmuir—Charles A. Kalk, of Dunsmuir, interested in the control of infested trees in the Long-Bell Lumber company tracts in the Yamsey mountains, is in Klamath Falls for several days from his home in northern California. Several months ago, crews were put to work clearing the tract of these trees and the work is expected to be completed within a very short time.

Chiloquin Visitor—J. H. Hamilton, resident of Chiloquin arrived in the city last night to spend several days from his home on the Indian reservation. Hamilton is stopping at the Arcade hotel while in the city.

To Visit in North—"For Pleasure only" was the way J. H. Carnahan described his week or ten days' visit in Portland. In company with Mrs. Carnahan, Mr. Carnahan left late Tuesday afternoon, spending the night in Roseburg. They plan to be gone the major portion of a fortnight visiting with friends and enjoying the annual Rose Festival in Portland.

Motor South—Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Wood, of Algoma, accompanied by their daughters, Mrs. Vera Schultz and Mr. Shultz and Mrs. John Yaden and two children, Melvin and Ardelle, motored to Dunsmuir on Saturday where their son, Attorney C. Stanley Wood and family, of Oakland, met them for a two days camping trip.

Correction—Information received concerning the purchase of the Boston Beauty shop is incorrect, according to an announcement made by the owners of the shop last night.

From California—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kenny, of Eureka, are among the tourists to stop in Klamath Falls over night and to spend some time here. The Kenny family drove north from their home and plan to remain for a few days.

Sheepman Here—Chester Haskins, of Merrill, was among the out of town visitors to spend yesterday in the city. Haskins is a prominent sheepman of the Merrill country he also operates a successful farm.

Graduates To Picnic—If Old Sol permits, the 34 members of the eighth grade of Central school will enjoy a farewell picnic at Spencer Creek this afternoon. They will be accompanied by their instructress, Mrs. Ruby Wisecarver and a number of mothers who will furnish cars for transporting the children to the picnic grounds.

On Business—Clarence Woodhouse, of Merrill, who is associated with his father N. E. Woodhouse, in the bee industry, was among the Tuesday business visitors in the city. The elder Woodhouse, who is known as the "Klamath Beeman" has a large number of successful hives on his Merrill ranch.

From Coos Bay—Frank Pike, of North Bend, who is affiliated with his father in conducting the North Bend Mercantile company is in the city on business and visiting with friends. Pike made the trip from Coos Bay on the coast, over the mountains in a Ford.

Son Born—Mr. and Mrs. Carl Colvin, of 2222 White avenue are receiving the congratulations of their friends over the birth of a nine pound boy, born Tuesday afternoon, 2:00 o'clock. This is the second child and also the second boy. Colvin is employed with the California Oregon Power company.

Merrill Visitors—Mrs. Louis Burris, accompanied by her mother-in-law, Mrs. Burris, were among the Merrill visitors in Klamath Falls Tuesday. They returned to their homes on Tuesday evening, after spending the day visiting with friends and shopping.

Inspects Cattle—Mr. and Mrs. C. Meyers, of Klamath Falls, accompanied by Mrs. D. Hayes, also a resident of this city, spent the day on Tuesday, in Fort Klamath, where Mr. Meyers inspected his cattle in the Fort Klamath country. They returned late Tuesday night, reporting the Fort Klamath ranches in good condition.

From Chiloquin—Among the out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday was Mrs. J. H. Hessig, well known resident of Chiloquin. Mrs. Hessig spent the day shopping in the city and visiting with friends.

Rancher Here—S. P. Dehlinger, prominent rancher of the Merrill country was among the many out of town visitors in the city yesterday, visiting with friends and shopping in Klamath Falls stores.

From Midland—Edna L. Flowers, resident of Midland, spent Tuesday in Klamath Falls, visiting with friends and shopping. She is interested in the Midland store.

Merrill Visitors—Mr. and Mrs. John W. Taylor, of Merrill, were among the out of town shoppers in Klamath Falls on Tuesday, from their ranch in the Merrill country.

From The Fort—Mrs. E. M. Leever, resident of Fort Klamath was among the many Tuesday shoppers in the city. Mrs. Leever also visited with her many Klamath Falls friends while in the city.

Leaves For Portland—Dr. George E. Mallett, for several years a practicing chiropractor of Klamath Falls, left for Portland on Tuesday morning, where he will be interested in a new profession. He will be joined in Portland by Mrs. Mallett and daughter, Dorothy, who have been visiting with Mrs. Mallett's parents, residents of Salem.

Out-of-town Visitors—Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Harris are in the city for a short visit with friends from their home in Klamath county.

In From Bly—Marvin Cross and Jim Givans, members of the Bly Rodeo association were among the out of town visitors from their ranches in the Bly section. Both men are in Klamath Falls in the interest of the rodeo next month.

Forest Fire Man Here—According to an arrangement between L. P. Sablin, of the Klamath county chamber of commerce and W. G. Ide, manager of the Oregon state chamber, "Stop Forest Fires Week" for the Pacific coast will be held this year from June 29 to July 4, instead of June 22 to July 3, as formerly planned. Governor Pierce will be asked to issue an official proclamation to this effect immediately. It was felt that the shorter period would be more effective where every community concentrates their efforts to put the campaign across in the briefest time.

Golf Meeting Tonight—A. J. Voge will serve as temporary chairman for the meeting of the Klamath Golf and Country club to be held tonight at 7:30 p. m. in the chamber of commerce rooms. Officers will be elected and other business transactions including the discussion of the constitution and by-laws. Every member is urged to attend in person or by proxy by E. E. Wright, temporary secretary, as no business can be successfully transacted unless at least three-fourths of the membership are present.

New Ad Man—G. L. Baxter has taken charge of advertising at Moe's Woman's Store. Mr. Baxter is an advertising man of 15 years experience. He comes from Los Angeles where he has been associated with the Industrial News. His family will arrive about July 1, making Klamath Falls their permanent home.

Merchant Here—H. G. Enders, prominent merchant of Ashland, is among the out-of-town visitors in the city. Enders arrived in Klamath Falls last night to spend several days here in conference with city merchants.

From Malin—Among the many visitors from Malin in the city yesterday and last night was E. L. Lamplot, a resident of the neighboring town. While in Klamath Falls, Lamplot stopped at the Hall hotel.

Portland Visitors—T. D. Campbell of Portland is in the city making a short business trip here. Among other Klamath Falls visitors from Portland are Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stewart, who drove down over the Ashland-Klamath Falls highway last night.

Rocky Point—W. S. Fuller, resident of Rocky Point, is in Klamath Falls for several days visiting with friends and transacting business.

Bend Visitor—A. D. Hubler is in Klamath Falls for some time to transact business and call on friends in the city. Hubler drove down from his home in Bend, reporting the roads in good condition.

Standard Oil Man—A. E. Anderson of Yreka, with the Standard Oil company, is in the city in the interests of the company, making a business trip here.

From Yainax—A frequent visitor in the city from his home in Yainax on the Klamath Indian reservation, is F. A. Hutto, who arrived yesterday to spend several days on business.

Commissioner Here—M. L. Ryckman, well known among the sportsmen of Klamath county, a member of the fish and game commission, arrived in Klamath Falls yesterday to spend the remainder of the week in the interests of his work. Ryckman will leave this afternoon for Diamond Lake, where he will inspect the fish hatchery there. Ryckman's home is in Portland.

From Chiloquin—Miss May Gardner was a city visitor yesterday from Chiloquin.

Announcement

Dr. A. R. Lucas, Chiropractor

New Location Underwood Building.

Successor to Dr. Geo.
Mallett.

Phone 420.

McBroom Visits—Ed McBroom, stockman from Barnes valley was in town on business yesterday.

From Yonna Valley—Mr. and Mrs. Burdoff and family, of Yonna valley were here yesterday shopping with local merchants.

Business Trip—Silas Obenchain who operates his farm about seven miles southeast of this city was attending to business matters here yesterday.

Ashland Visitors—Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Reeder, of Ashland, passed through Klamath Falls yesterday on their way home, after several day's trip around through the county.

At Empire Hotel—Among those who are registered at the Empire hotel are: Alvin Clark, Marysville, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Milkey and baby, Dunsmuir, Calif.; and Ray Garrett, The Dallas, Ore.

Visit in City—Mrs. Bruce Parks and two children and Mrs. S. W. Egeline, of Modoc Point, visited Klamath Falls yesterday on business.

Baldwin Hardware Co. S Saturday, June 6

Genuine 1865 William Rogers Co. Tea

Set of 6 high grade guaranteed heavy plated tea spoons.

98c
Per Set

Finished in grey silver with attractive This is an unusual value in high silverware.

Sold Saturday Only.

Baldwin Hardware
"The Winchester Store."
418 Main St.

Mixing Bowls

Nest of Five Glass Bowls

SPECIAL
for this week only

89¢

A new line of Kitchen
Crockery in white and blue.

Claud H. Davis, Furniture
124 N. 7th

Come in and Drive a Car Home
We Have All Makes—All Types

Many people drive a Used Car—for every man can afford to buy one of the cars now being shown in our sensational Used Car Sale. There are closed models and open models—practically every well known make—each marked 'way below real worth.

1924—Studebaker Big 6, Gould Top, Guaranteed	$1550
1924—Hupmobile Touring	1100
1924—Buick Sedan, excellent condition	1250
1923—Special Six Studebaker	875
1922—Light Six Studebaker, Rex Top	625
1922—Buick Six Touring	650
1923—Buick Four Coupe	850
1918—Cadillac 8	750
1921—Oakland Six	300
1921—Oakland Roadster	300
1920—Dodge	350
1920—Nash	350
1920—Chandler Coupe	525
CHEVROLETS
1924—Sedan, Like New	850
1924—4 Pass. Coupe, Excellent Condition	750
1924—2 Pass. Coupe, Guaranteed	625
1924—Touring	400

1924—Touring
1924—Touring
1923—Touring
1923—Touring
1924—Roadster
1922—Touring
1920—Touring
FORDS
1924—Coupe, Excellent Condition
1923—Coupe, Excellent Condition
1923—Sedan, Excellent Condition
1925—Touring, Guaranteed
1923—Touring
1923—Touring
1922—Touring
STARS
1924—Light Delivery
1923—Touring
1923—Touring
1923—Touring

Oregon-California Used Car Exchange
L. G. Hoagland, Mgr.

Eighth and Pine