Year just passed has been successful one in Klamath Falls. Major sports taken in school, three were for Klamath Falls. The soccer team went to Medford and once there, Klamath Falls were no marked in these games but work overcame all.

we suffered but two at Medford and once at Falls, the Klamath team lost by a close 17. The third game at City demonstrated of the Klamath boys and won for us for county championship. We failed to win, owing to the late start, due to basketball season. Track and field meet took place at Medford and won 67 points against competitor's 45. A silver trophy was the trophy of this making us two track, Klamath having field and track meet.

all our athletic activities have shown a splendor and sacrifice of for team work, which is small part for our are largely due to coaching of Mr. Hendon. He showed himself thorough of meeting every Klamath feels fortunate able to get his year.

the prospects for very bright for Merced, and if the same helpful spirit that they did this know they will, Merced as good or even past year.

community hall with its facilities will deal too, as the has somewhat handling met teams who floor to play on. are no deterrent to win as Merced by her victories.
