

LOCALS

To Shop—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dalton are expected in Klamath Falls from their ranch in the Malin district this afternoon to spend the week-end shopping and visiting with friends.

From the Agency—Mr. and Mrs. Orville Elliott of Klamath Agency were among the out of town visitors in the city yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott made the trip for the occasion of the graduation of their daughter, Miss Florence Elliott, who is a member of the senior class of Sacred Heart academy.

From Algona—Mrs. G. W. Helms was among the out of town visitors in the city yesterday, spending the day shopping and calling on friends. She returned to her home in Algona later in the day.

From Bend—Jack Atkinson of Bend is among the many out of town visitors to spend the week-end in the city. Atkinson arrived in the middle of the week to visit and transact business.

Dairy Man—L. G. Conley, prominent rancher of the Merrill district was a business visitor in the city yesterday. Conley conducts a successful dairy ranch in that section of Klamath county.

Visits Here—Mrs. J. H. Noble was a Klamath Falls visitor Friday from her home on the Merrill route. While in the city Mrs. Noble visited with her husband, who is receiving medical attention in one of Klamath Falls hospitals.

From Merrill—Among the ranchers to drive into the city Friday morning to transact business and shop was C. W. Morgan of the Merrill ranch. Morgan has a successful dairy farm in that district.

Sells Cattle—Mrs. Mary H. Williams, owner of a ranch on the Spring lake road, was among the business callers in the city yesterday. According to Mrs. Williams, her fine dairy herd has been sold, the deal consummated this week.

From Country—E. A. Schriener of Spring lake road, was a business visitor in the city yesterday, calling on local merchants.

Reeder In—U. E. Reeder, rancher of the Olene district, and president of the Federated Board of Community clubs in Klamath county, was among the ranchers to visit in the city this week. Reeder spent Friday in Klamath Falls.

To Chiloquin—Mrs. Waive Bell, a teacher in the Mills addition school, left the latter part of this week for Chiloquin, where she will spend the summer with her husband, Frank Bell.

Meyers Improving—O. V. Meyers, Mack truck man, who broke his right shoulder recently, is much improved and made a hurried trip into Klamath Falls yesterday. Meyers was interested in work in the Gazette camp, where he was making a short business trip when the injury to his shoulder and elbow occurred. Meyers' home is in Medford.

To Go East—Mrs. Agnes Lageson, who has been the principal of Mills addition school for the past year, plans to spend the major portion of her summer in Nebraska visiting with friends and relatives.

To Remain Here—Of the many teachers in the city who have completed their year's work, Miss Frieda Bryant and Mrs. Jack Hackett are planning to remain in Klamath Falls for the summer vacation. They plan trips later in the season.

Returns North—Miss Eunice Hafterson left for Portland yesterday afternoon on the one o'clock stage, after spending the fall and winter in Klamath Falls, teaching in the Pelican Bay school. Following a visit in Portland, Miss Hafterson will spend the remainder of her vacation in Lane, Idaho, where her parents reside.

Purchase Dogs—Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Stinson, on their recent visit to Red Bluff, Calif., at the home of Mrs. Stinson's parents, purchased a pair of black Cockerel Spaniel puppies, a month old. They have duly christened the pair Hans and Fritz and both dogs bid fair, through their mischievous activities, to rival the duo of funny paper fame.

Expected Home—Miss Alice Miller is expected back this week-end from a trip to San Francisco. Miss Miller made the trip south with the Carey Ramsby family and she plans to return soon to enter nurse's training in a southern hospital. Miss Miller is the daughter of J. J. Miller, of Klamath Falls.

Former Residents—Mr. and Mrs. Claude Taylor, former residents of Klamath Falls, are visiting in the city for the remainder of the week from their present home in Red Bluff, Calif. Taylor was interested in the grocery business while a resident here, but has now bent his interests with the Shell Oil company.

Rancher In—Louis Burris, well known rancher of the Merrill road district, was among the out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday.

Sutton In—Lee Sutton, rancher of the Merrill district was a business visitor in the city yesterday. Outside of the fact that Sutton raises a fine breed of cattle he is also among the first ranchers to sponsor the raising of sugar beets on his land. According to Sutton the recent rains have aided the beets materially and he expects his initial crop to bring him beginner's luck.

To See Play—Many Klamath Falls residents are planning to attend the Jane Cowl play, "Romeo and Juliet" which will be given on Monday night in the Criterion theatre in Medford. Mrs. C. S. Currin, accompanied by her daughter Miss Dorothy Currin, plan to leave Monday afternoon at 4 p. m. They will remain over night in Medford. Another car will enjoy the play. Mrs. H. W. Poole, Mrs. Twyla Ferguson and Mrs. Steve Sabo Jr., are planning to make the trip.

To Attend Showing—T. P. Henderson is among those planning to attend the play in Medford in which Jane Cowl is to be presented on Monday night.

Surveyors—Among the additions to the Klamath Development company are Jack Czizek and Mr. Beckler, who have been employed with the company as surveyors. Mr. Czizek is a recent graduate of Stanford university and is head surveyor, being assisted in the work by Mr. Beckler.

To Visit—Mrs. R. L. Delzell, mother of Mrs. C. S. Currin, will leave Sunday morning for a short visit with her nephew, W. A. Delzell, secretary to Governor Walter M. Pierce. She will be accompanied to Salem by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller, of the Merrill route, who are leaving also to attend the graduation exercises of their daughter, Miss Leatha Miller, who is a member of the senior class of Salem high school. Miss Miller will return to Klamath county with her parents on their return here.

Return From Trip—Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Barnhouse have returned to Klamath Falls to spend the summer after a winter spent in Ashland. They have opened their home at 421 North Tenth street for the summer season.

From Portland—A. Johnson, deputy United States marshal is in the city from his home in Portland, in the interest of federal affairs.

From The Agency—Mr. and Mrs. William H. Zeh, of the Klamath Agency are among the visitors in the city for the week-end. Mr. Zeh is with the government work on the reservation.

Surveyors Here—Headed by J. P. Weeks, a party of Southern Pacific surveyors, are in the city for some time, interested in work for the company. The remainder of the party includes: H. Hezland, Henry P. Crowell, C. W. Renard, A. F. Green, R. Finneran and K. H. Horner. The party arrived from their homes in Dunsmuir last night.

From Medford—H. Thomas, with the Holt Tractor company is making one of his frequent visits to the city, stopping at the Hall hotel while in this section.

From Bly—Among the visitors from the out of town districts are: Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wallis, of Bly, who arrived in the city yesterday afternoon from their ranch in that section of the county.

Teachers Here—Miss Loretta Porter and her sister Miss Ferol Porter are visiting in the city for the week-end, calling on friends and shopping from their homes in Fort Klamath.

Contractor In—J. M. Baker made one of his frequent trips to Klamath Falls this week, to spend the week-end here. Baker is contractor of the irrigation dams in the Langell valley district.

Forbes Pure Drugs
Eighth at Main
Good Service—Good Drugs

Hospital Head—Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner, superintendent of the state hospital, is making a visit to Klamath Falls from his home in Salem.

From The Valley—Mrs. J. T. Billingsley is stopping in the city for the remainder of the week from her home in Langell valley, where the Billingsleys conduct a ranch.

From Oakland—H. S. Thorp, a frequent visitor in the city, representing the Best Tractor company, is stopping at the Hall hotel for several days from his home in Oakland.

To Be Married—Miss Dorris Ady, teacher of Mills Addition school has set the date of her marriage for the latter part of June. Miss Ady left Klamath Falls for Portland Friday morning where she will remain with her mother, Mrs. Leona Ady. Her marriage to Calvin Peyton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Peyton, of this city, will occur within the coming three weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Peyton will return immediately after for a summer on Sprague river where Mr. Peyton is interested in one of the camps on the river.

From Portland—Among the out of town visitors in the city are a number from Portland. Guests in the White Pelican hotel from the Rose city are: J. G. Taylor, A. E. MacKenzie, W. A. Shepard, George B. Dean and C. C. Carter.

Return From Lakeview—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Deal returned yesterday from Lakeview where they accompanied Mrs. Jack McAuliffe on Thursday, called by the illness of Mr. McAuliffe.

Frequent Visitor—Roy Entler, of Medford, a frequent visitor in Klamath Falls is making a short business trip to the city.

From Bend—Among the Bend visitors in the city this week is C. J. Dugan, who was also a visitor in Klamath Falls a short time ago.

Sister Here—Mrs. W. S. Slough is enjoying a visit from her sister, Mrs. J. C. Geach, of DeKalb, Illinois, who arrived this week to spend the remainder of the summer with her at her home at 131 Washington.

From Seattle—Among the out of town visitors in the city this week are: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carstens, of Seattle, who are stopping at the White Pelican hotel for some time.

Manager Here—John D. Ferris, manager of the United States Rubber company of Sacramento, accompanied by C. F. Orgill, of Corvallis, is in the city for some time, to make an inspection tour of conditions in Klamath Falls in the interest of the company. Orgill will be the permanent representative of the company in the city.

Picture Taken—Graduates of the five schools in Klamath Falls, were included in a panoramic picture taken Friday morning shortly before the graduation exercises were held in the Pine Tree theatre. The pictures will be on display soon in the Stinson studio and the 114 eighth grade graduates are included in the picture taken on the Central school grounds. The girls in

Forbes Pure Drugs
Eighth at Main
Good Service—Good Drugs

You'll Spot Them At

KENO STORE

Not only Grocery Bargains but Fishing Tackle, Picnic Eats, Soft Drinks and Fishing Licenses.

STANDARD CAR SERVICE

Keno, Ore., on the Ashland Highway

their frocks of pastel were placed in front and the boys on a raised platform in front. After the picture was taken the students marched to the theatre where they heard Mrs. Theresa B. Thatcher give the commencement address. Diplomas were awarded by Superintendent J. P. Wells with the invocation given by Rev. T. D. Yarnes, of the Grace Methodist church.

Leaves For Home—Miss Eloise Cooper left yesterday morning to spend the summer with her parents in Hood river. Miss Cooper who was employed as a teacher in the Mills Addition school will not return to teach next year as she has been able to obtain a similar position in the Portland schools.

Chautauqua—Among the lecturers and entertainers on the Ellison White Chautauqua circuit, in the city of Klamath Falls this week are a number arriving yesterday. The party includes Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Leake, Opal White, Margaret Cummings and S. K. Gudmundsen.

Engineers Here—Fred Walker and Paul Reed, of Willows Valley, are in the city for the remainder of the week. Walker and Reed are interested in the state highway department for which they serve as engineers.

To Go North—Mrs. Jennie Hurn will leave today for Portland where she will go as proxy to the grand chapter of the Eastern Star lodge, for George J. Walton, worthy patron of the Klamath Falls chapter. Due to the press of business Mr. Walton will be unable to make the trip north. Mr. and Mrs. Marlon Hanks and Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wortley are leaving this morning to attend the grand chapter meeting. Mrs. Hanks to go as worthy matron from the Klamath Falls chapter.

Farmer In—Among the many out of town visitors in the city this week was John Dodson, well known rancher, of the Tale lake district. Dodson called on local merchants yesterday, transacting business and visiting.

In Friday—Miss Mary Taylor, a teacher in the Bryant Mountain school, was a shopper in the city yesterday from her home in that district. School in the Bryant section has closed until the fall month, according to Miss Taylor.

Forbes Pure Drugs
Eighth at Main
Good Service—Good Drugs

DANCE TONIGHT at KENO

Les Sailing's Orchestra.

Supper Served At Midnight

To Drive South—Mrs. Frank Frankford and two daughters, Miss Vera Thompson and Miss Joan Thompson, plan to leave Sunday morning for Los Angeles, where they will spend three weeks visiting with friends and relatives. They will also stop at other southern cities on their way south. They plan to drive.

On Business—E. G. Stewart, resident of Shippington was among the out of town business visitors in the city yesterday, calling on the Klamath Falls merchants.

Catching Improves—R. W. Catching, chief clerk of the Standard Oil company is recovering from a severe attack of la grippe which confined him to his home for nearly two weeks.

From The Valley—Among the "old-timers" to drop into the city for a visit with friends Friday afternoon was T. H. Wilkinson, rancher of Langell valley, who with his grandson, Gerald Wyly, has recently returned from a winter's visit in Los Angeles and Tulare, Wyly, who is a resident of Tulare, plans to remain with his grandfather during the summer months on his ranch in the valley. The two drove north and report the roads in good condition.

Leaves Today—Cecil A. Cook, boy scout executive for the Crater Lake Council will leave at noon today for Lake of the Woods where he plans to spend the week-end making a survey of the land for the location of the boy scout cabin which will be erected there in the near future. Cook will camp over night, returning Sunday evening.

From Merrill—W. W. Ranney, resident of Merrill, where he conducts a ranch, was among the many out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday.

GREEN SLABS are ripe

Our trucks will be hauling 16-inch green slabs for a few days. Our customers are buying this good cheap wood.

$30 for 10 Cords.

Block Wood At Cheap Prices.

PEYTON & CO.
601 Main St. Phone 535

Whitaker's Groceteria
Headquarters For Good Goods and Low Prices.

There is no mystery connected with our low prices. We have cut head to a minimum—no delivery costs—no bookkeeping—no clerks. As a member, you get quality as well as low prices here.

OUR PRICES TODAY

3 Tall Cans Sego Milk	25c	1 Doz. Ball Mason Pt. Jars
4 lb. Pkg. Sunmaid Raisins	45c	New Potatoes, per lb.
Fancy Water Glasses, 6 for	35c	5 lbs. Rhubarb
New Pack Asparagus No. 2 Can	20c	Jelly Beans, per lb.
4 lbs. Snowdrift	91c	1 Doz. Mason Quart Jars

A Complete Line of Vegetables
Serve Yourself and Save

Whitaker's Groceteria
407 Main St.

Visiting Friday—Will Worden, resident of Shippington, spent Friday in Klamath Falls, transacting business and visiting with friends and merchants.

To Portland—A. H. Wyatt, of the Eureka Appliance company left Friday afternoon for Portland where he will spend the week-end on business. He plans to return Sunday evening.

For Eugene—P. H. Buck and R. K. McGavin are leaving this afternoon for a short business trip to Eugene where they will remain over the week-end.

To Take Vacation—Mr. and Mrs. George Barth are planning to leave the first of the next week for Oakland, where they will visit, enjoying their summer vacation.

To Visit—Mrs. Maule Hood, in company with her little niece, Miss Dixie Elaine Emmons, will leave Tuesday morning from Klamath Falls to visit with friends in Eugene.

THE KLAMATH FALLS
Falls to spend week-end with friends in St. Helens...
Pouring concrete for the new high street...
To Meet—Mrs. Maule Hood...
To Visit—Mrs. Maule Hood...

Don't Walk—TALK—

Use Your Phone for the Best Values in Town

DO IT THE H. & P. WAY

We are now handling Mrs. L. Homemade Cakes.

Houston & P.
Eighth At Main.