Motor To Salem—Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Miller motored to Salem Monday where they will join their son Jack Miller, and daughter, Miss Leatha Miller, who are attending school in the state capital. They were accompanied by Mrs. R. L. Deitzel who will visit with her nephew, W. A. Deitzel of Salem.

Week-End Visitors—Mrs. C. E. Miller of Mt. Lassen, Calif., was a week-end visitor in Klamath Falls on Saturday afternoon.

To Go South—Mrs. S. E. Martin will leave this morning for San Francisco, called by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. S. K. Ramsby, who is reported as very low. Mrs. Ramsby failed to rally after an operation and her condition is considered serious.

To Leave Soon—Mrs. Thomas Martin will leave Wednesday for San Francisco, where she will enter Lane hospital for medical treatment for her hip, which was broken more than nine months ago. She will be accompanied by Carey Ramsby, who is also called south by the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. S. K. Ramsby. Mrs. Carey Ramsby is with the elderly lady in San Francisco.

Fish Sunday—Mr. and Mrs. "Doc" Cook were among the Klamath Falls residents to spend Sunday fishing on Diamond lake. They reported more than the usual luck.

To Go North—Mrs. Maude Hood, accompanied by her niece, Miss Dixie Elaine Emmons, will leave this morning for a two weeks' visit with friends and relatives in St. Helena and Portland.

Visiting Parents—Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hessig of Fort Klamath are enjoying a visit from their daughter, Miss Loretta Wadsworth, a recent graduate of the University of California, at Berkeley. Miss Wadsworth will remain in Klamath county the major portion of the summer.

Returns To Home—Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ross, Jr., returned to their home at Malin after spending the week-end in Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Ross were married in Klamath Falls over the week-end and plan to make their home on the Ross ranch in the Malin section. Mrs. Ross was a teacher in the Malin schools.

Lakeview Visitors—Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Woodcock of Lakeview are among the out of town visitors in the city from the southern section of the county. Woodcock is a well known lumberman of that section, and is in the city to transact business and discuss the timber game with Klamath Falls timbermen.

At the Lake—Among the Klamath Falls residents to spend the week-end at Lake of the Woods were Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Underwood, Mr. and Mrs. John Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hall, and many others. Ray Telford was also seen on the lake enjoying the fishing. According to J. A. Gordon, who with Mrs. Gordon, opened their cabin over the week-end, the road entirely around the lake is open, and as a result of work expended on it during the later spring months, the road is more like a boulevard and the drive around the lake is a particularly delightful one to make.

From Coos Bay—Coos Bay visitors on the coast in the city this week include several visitors. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Wells of Marshfield are stopping at the Hall hotel for a few days, interested in business in Klamath Falls.

From the Agency—T. C. Johnson of Klamath Agency, was a business visitor in the city last night, remaining today to transact business.

Malin Sheepmen—Out of town visitors in the city include a number of sheepmen from the Malin and Merrill country. Ted Sullivan and John Sullivan were in Klamath Falls where they have many friends, transacting business over the week-end.

From Algona—Mrs. L. B. Kimble, of Algona was a business visitor and shopper in the city from her home yesterday. Mrs. Kimble remained over night, expecting to leave for her home this morning.

From Burns—Business visitors in the city include E. Pugsby and C. Kelsko, both residents of Burns, who are spending some time this week in Klamath Falls. They are stopping at the Hall hotel.

From Yainax—Among the most prominent and well known citizens in the city this week is F. A. Hutto of Yainax, who is in Klamath Falls shopping and purchasing supplies for the little town on the reservation.

Chic Costumes Snapped at French Fashion Parade

These three costumes were snapped at the summer fashion promenade at the Longchamps, Paris. The sports outfit (left) consists of pleated skirt, overblouse and braided trimmed top coat. Pleating is again used on the black and white frock (center). The black pleated skirt has a panel of white down the front and embroidery is employed as trimming on the cuffs and front of the frock. A colorful printed material in criss-cross pattern (right) is trimmed with bands of plain fabric.

Medford Visitors—Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Davidge, frequent visitors in the city are among the guests in Klamath Falls for several days from their home in the valley. Mr. and Mrs. Davidge reside in Medford.

At Barkley Springs—Many Klamath Falls residents enjoyed the day driving on the highway that borders the Klamath lake and among those to motor as far as Barkley Springs Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Stinson. Incidentally they were accompanied by Hans and Fritz, their cocker spaniel puppies who took to the water at the springs quite readily, despite their six weeks.

Pass Exam—Three Klamath Falls postal distributing clerks passed the examination given on Saturday afternoon by William C. Ott of the railway mail service, two passed 100 per cent, the other 99.05 per cent. Those passing the test perfectly were Thomas H. Massey and William L. Massey. John Svenson missed only 8 of the 47 distributing sections. There are 851 postoffices in Oregon and it is necessary for the distributing clerks to pass at least 95 per cent in order to gain the raise at the end of the year. The next examination, according to Ott, will be given in May of 1926.

Leaves for South—Mrs. E. A. Hunter left Sunday for Sacramento where she will visit for some time, later returning to Klamath Falls with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. T. R. Cummings and the two Misses Cummings, who will remain for the summer at the Hunter home at 224 Mortimer street.

To Make Home Here—Albert May left for San Francisco Monday on a buying trip for the H. N. Moe company, to be gone for some time. On his return to Klamath Falls Mr. May will be accompanied by his wife and children, two daughters and a son, from their home in Merced, Calif. The May family will make their permanent home in Klamath Falls.

Rancher—J. C. Ham is spending several days in the city from his home in Malin, where he conducts a ranch.

Be sure of your furnace!

Your comfort—even your health—depends on the kind of heat you obtain from your furnace. That kind of heat depends on the construction of your furnace and the skill with which it is installed in your home. Health requires an abundant circulation of warm moist heat. Not just heated air. Comfort requires adequate heat at minimum expense and effort.
