

LOCALS

Visits in Valley—J. J. Miller returned late yesterday from Ashland where he spent Sunday in the interests of the Southern Pacific company, conferring with the district freight and passenger agent in Ashland.

Returns Home—Miss Hazel Noble returned to her home in Duluth, Minn., where she will spend the summer visiting with her parents. Miss Noble is a teacher in the Central school of Klamath Falls public schools, and expects to return to the city in the fall to resume teaching.

Returns To Home—Miss Grace Meyers left yesterday afternoon on the late stage for her home in Central Point, where she will visit for the early part of the summer with her parents, expecting to return later to build a home in Klamath Falls, which she will occupy this fall.

In Klamath—Ranchers who spent some time in the city transacting business during the past few days, include A. Mark, J. H. Barnes and others from the out of town districts.

From Spring Lake—J. C. Taylor of the Spring Lake district was a business visitor in the city the latter part of the week from his ranch.

Rancher In—Among the many Merrill ranchers to transact business in the city is Harry Booth from his ranch in that district.

From Country—A. E. Applegate has been a recent visitor in Klamath Falls, spending some time transacting business. Applegate is owner of a ranch on the old Fort Klamath road and is a frequent visitor in the city.

From Olene—Among the ranchers from the Olene district to visit in Klamath Falls during the last few days is Earl Kester, who has a fine herd of dairy cattle.

In Monday—Joe Calhoun and G. S. Cates, were among the Klamath county ranchers to visit in the city yesterday from their ranches. Both men own fine herds of dairy cattle.

From Merrill Road—A. Imig, rancher of the Merrill road, where he owns a tract of land in the Altamont acres district, was among the Monday business visitors.

Rancher In—H. B. Largent, owner of a ranch in the out of town district, was a business visitor in the city on Monday.

From Worden—Ranchers from Worden, who spend Monday in Klamath Falls transacting business, include F. T. Nelson and Grant Nelson.

Dairy Rancher—Ed Foster, rancher of the Dairy section, spent yesterday afternoon in the city transacting business. Foster has a splendid herd of milch cows, numbering more than 50 that keep him busy keeping up the dairy end of his ranch.

Visiting in Klamath—Mrs. J. Steck of Sargent avenue, has as her house guest for the remainder of the week, her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Uiner of Salt Lake City, Utah. They plan to visit in Klamath Falls for several days.

To Build—According to information received, Mrs. Ray Pickett is planning to build a new hotel building with a pool hall included in the structure at her home at Sprague River. Construction will start immediately, and it is hoped that the building will be completed in time for tourist trade later in the summer.

To Hold Meetings—Otto Olsen, for the last four years stationed in Peking, China, interested in missionary work, and H. Hansen, an evangelist well known in the United States and Canada for his activities in Hunt field, have leased the White Pelican theatre in order to hold a series of revival meetings. The first of the series will be held on June ninth, the remainder of the month having also been scheduled for meetings.

Enjoying Fishing—Among the fishermen spending the day on Diamond lake bringing in the trout, was Dr. L. D. Cass of Klamath Falls. Others who enjoyed the trip to the lake were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Peltz, their nephew Robert Bolch of Portland, Miss Hazel Noble, Miss Mary Hunt, Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Truax and Bert C. Thomas.

Spend Week-End—Among the week-end visitors of the city to spend some time at Diamond lake was Leo Houston and a group, who report the fishing to be excellent.

Former Resident—Charles Graves, a former resident of Klamath Falls, is in the city again to spend a short time on business and renew the acquaintances of his old friends. Graves is making his home at present on the coast, in Crescent City. While living in Klamath county Graves conducted a prominent ranch in this district, and was also interested in the lumber game, of the county, in which he played an active part.

Passing Cigars—Dr. Paul Noel was busy yesterday morning passing out the cigars in honor of the arrival of another member of the Klamath county dental society, who arrived Sunday evening at 8:30. The boy, which weighed in at 81-2 pounds, will be known as James Henry Noel, named after his grandfathers, James Noel and Henry Calkins. Mrs. Noel will be remembered as Miss Esther Calkins before her marriage.

In Monday—Among the well known visitors in the city to spend Monday was C. K. Davis, furniture dealer of Chiloquin, who drove down from the reservation town to transact business.

To Visit Here—Miss Katherine Upp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Upp, who is now attending the state normal school at Monmouth, Oregon, will arrive in Klamath Falls the latter part of the week to visit for some time. Miss Upp will probably be met by her sister, Miss Jo Upp, and drive south. She expects to return after a short visit in the city with her family, to attend a session of summer school.

Bishop Leaves—Bishop William P. Remington returned to his home in Pendleton Sunday afternoon, after spending the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter West. While in the city the bishop held services in the Episcopal church, and also officiated at a christening on Sunday morning.

From Midland—Henry Janssen, well known rancher of Klamath county, was in from his Midland ranch on Monday to visit and transact business.

To Leave For North—Mrs. R. E. Stinson will leave this morning for Portland, where she plans to spend some time visiting with friends and attending the graduating exercises of Hill Military academy, of which her son is a student. Mrs. Stinson

"No Interest"

This used one $50.
Terms $8.00 cash
$5 per month.
Interest, No
507 Main St.
Earl Shepherd Co.

HOTEL ASTOR
2nd & Hill Los Angeles
EVERY ROOM has PRIVATE TOILET
50% Baths New, Modern
Close to Shopping District and Theatres
FREE GARAGE Toll free $1.50

will return with her son, Earl Stinson, after the rose festival, which she will enjoy while in Portland.

To Locate Here—E. C. Powell of Marysville is expected to arrive in Klamath Falls to spend some time here looking for a good location for the manufacture of fishing equipment. Powell is well known on the coast as an expert fisherman, maker of fishing tackle and other paraphernalia. Several of his friends in the city are planning on his arrival in order to learn the art of fly casting, at which Powell is an adept. While in Klamath Falls he will visit at the R. E. Stinson home.

Fish Sunday—Among the most energetic fishermen of the Klamath country on Sunday was D. Hayes and his brother, who spent the day on Sprague river, and report better luck than has been enjoyed early in the season in the streams of that section.

Train To Arrive—A special train, carrying C. W. Boschke and party, from Kirkford, is expected in the city today on its way south. Boschke, who is chief engineer of the Southern Pacific, has been in the county looking into the interests of the right of way of the company at Kirkford.

Spends Week-End—Ernest McCollum, surveyor for the Weyerhaeuser Timber company, was among the week-end visitors in the city, visiting with friends and transacting business.

From Olene—William Green, well known Olene rancher, was among the visitors in the city during the past few days.

Week-End Visitor—Among the ranchers to stop in Klamath Falls for some time, visiting with friends, was H. C. Tipton, of the Langell valley country. Tipton transacted business and visited with friends while in the city.

In Monday—Thomas Rae of the Klamath Agency hatchery, was a Monday visitor in Klamath Falls to transact business and look into his affairs in the city.

All Decked Out—With the advent of warm weather and the prospects of warmer weather, the men employees of the First National bank have decked themselves out in the black silk alpaca coats and feel they have something over the other firms and business houses of the city. The initial wearing of the coats occurred shortly after noon yesterday.

In Monday—Mrs. Owen, of Dorris, was a business visitor in Klamath Falls yesterday.

From The Valley—Mrs. Rhoda Tompkins, of Langell valley, was in town yesterday on business and pleasure.

From Bonanza—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Becholdt and mother, Mrs. F. C. Becholdt, of Bonanza, were business visitors in town the latter part of the week. F. C. Becholdt and two sons, Claud and Austin, have their new sawmill running and turning out first class lumber. This mill is an added industry to Bonanza being only about seven miles from that city.

Leaving For South—Mrs. Austin Haden is leaving today for Santa Cruz, Calif., on a two months' vacation at the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Goldberg, of Santa Cruz.

From Poe Valley—Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Roberts were here from Poe valley yesterday shopping with local merchants.

Returns To Home—Mrs. Jack Wanibek, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Sly, near Dorris, for three weeks, returned to her home at Bend Sunday. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Chas. Owen, of Dorris, who will make her a brief visit.

Leave For South—Dr. and Mrs. C. V. Rugh, of San Francisco, who have been spending their vacation visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Miller, of this city, returned to their home Friday. The Rughs expect to return here next year to make their home in Klamath Falls.

From Dorris—O. W. Sly and daughter Agnes, from the state line ranch near Dorris, were in Klamath Falls yesterday for a short stay on business, also visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Miller, of No. 9th St.

To Visit North—Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Crego and family, of North 9th street, accompanied by Mrs. Crego's brother, Grant Creighton, are leaving today or tomorrow for The Dalles for a week's visit with Mrs. Crego's relatives. Mr. Crego is connected with the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Co. of this city.

In Town Monday—Mrs. John Jones, of Dairy, was in Klamath Falls yesterday visiting her daughter, who had her hand injured by being caught in a mangle. Miss Jones' hand is improving at one of the local hospitals.

At The Empire—Among those registered at the Empire hotel are: Mrs. E. E. Jolly and Mrs. E. M. Jolly, Seattle; G. H. Haworth, Sprague River; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Quigley, Kirk; Ada Lange,

THE KLAMATH...
Forbes Pure Drugs
Eighth at Main
Good Service—Good Drugs

RESERVE
JULY 2-3-4
The Biggest
RODEO
Ever Given in Klamath Falls

Forbes Pure Drugs
Eighth at Main
Good Service—Good Drugs

Paint Now — Pay Later
Ten Months to Pay by Using My
Special Painting Contract

You don't have to pay cash, but on completion of work pay 20 per cent, then pay balance in ten equal monthly payments.

Your buildings will last longer, look better and have a higher cash value if properly protected with a good paint job.

F. R. OLDS

Shop 902 Klamath. Res. Phone 192-W

THE BEST MEAT AT REASONABLE PRICES

PALACE MARKET

THE OLDEST, MOST RELIABLE MEAT MARKET IN KLAMATH CO.

WE APPRECIATE YOUR PATRONAGE

524 MAIN ST. PHONE 68

Forbes Pure Drugs
Eighth at Main
Good Service—Good Drugs

The Klamath Falls
Music House

has now made arrangements to a record exchange. This will be est to every owner of a phonograph.

We will be ready to
Today, June 9th

122 South Sixth St.

MERRILL

Thursday Evening
8 o'clock

Community Hall

The Lower Klamath Valley wants or a railroad—any kind of a railroad. We information. Any one who can help us come.

A Friendly Meeting. Com
C. C. HULET, Chair