COME THIS SUMMER Colorful San Francisco America's coolest summer city. Different from any city you know—rich in the colorings of Europe and the Far East—modern, joyous—fascinating,—San Francisco bids you welcome. Cool—yes! Bring a warm coat. Those invigorating breezes straight in from the Pacific bring the fragrance of vigor of a thousand sunny ocean miles. More than that. Besides a change of air, you will find much that is unusual to see and enjoy. Mind and body are alike refreshed. It's really two vacations in one. For every hour—new interests! Day after day—night after night—new interests will beckon you. Scores of modern hotels, with service at reasonable rates, restaurants internationally famous, Chinatown, Fisherman's Wharf, Golden Gate Park, Mission Dolores, the great Presidio military reservation, the harbor where ships of all nations gather,—theatres, sightseeing trips, distinctive stores and shops, smart cabarets,—all are the more enjoyable in San Francisco's sparkling, salty air, with an average summer temperature of 58 degrees. These tours will please you. Day trips across the Bay, or down the peninsula, include giant Redwood groves, petrified forest, geysers, Missions, great universities and scenic wonderlands. And San Francisco is the hub and starting point for all National parks and other points of interest in California. Motor over velvet highways, sail down the blue Pacific or take advantage of low summer excursion rates on all railroads.
