Orchestra To Play For Elks Services

Under the direction of Harry Borel, the Little Symphony orchestra of Klamath Falls will play at the Flag Day exercises Sunday evening in the Elks' temple, under the auspices of the Klamath Falls Elks' lodge. The orchestra, composed of seven pieces, will render only patriotic music, according to one of the members last night. Judge J. J. Butler of The Dalles will be the speaker during the services which are now under preparation to be the most impressive ever held.

For the past five days eager buyers have packed our store—Buyers who have appreciated our efforts to give real values, have bought two and three pairs. Economical mothers have bought children's shoes for just half former values. Thrifty shoppers have bought pumps for street wear at half original cost.

This sale will continue for another week. We have gone through the stock and mustered out additional values for Pay Day. These will be picked up soon, so shop early.
