WIFE SLAYER TRIES SUICIDE

Haggard Confessed Dentist Seeks Easiest Way Out But Is Foiled

LOS ANGELES, June 15.— (United News)—A desperate attempt to take his life was made here by Dr. Thomas W. Young, confessed "science slayer" of his wealthy wife, Mrs. Grace Young.

The suicide attempt was frustrated late today, when Officer Fred Darley, who was riding with Young in the rear seat of an official automobile felt a tugging near his right hip, where his .45 was in its holster.

Suddenly reaching down to his gun Darley found Dr. Young's left hand already on the butt of his pistol. The investigator jerked the weapon out of reach.

"You can't do that, doctor," Darley said.

Young only smiled and shrugged his shoulders.

TURNER OF ORE. TRUNK QUIETLY VISITS IN K. F.

Rail Executive Spends Day In City And Quietly Leaves; Back Sat.

W. F. Turner, of Portland, president of the Oregon Trunk railroad, slipped quietly into Klamath Falls Sunday and quietly out the same evening. His unannounced arrival and sudden departure created rumor after rumor about the city yesterday that something big in the way of announcement of new development was impending. Friends of Turner, however, who talked with him during his short stop here, declare his visit was merely to look over the situation here in Klamath Falls and to inspect the surveying camps. Turner was accompanied by Chief Engineer A. J. Witchell. The two drove over here from Ashland. Turner will be back here Saturday night with other Hill executives.

So pleased with the looks of the Klamath country was Mr. Turner, that he expressed his tentative intention to spend his vacation this summer in and about Klamath Falls fishing and horseback riding, the latter his favorite sport.

Little interest was displayed in the county school election yesterday the contest turning out regular in every way with the four candidates, Roy Loosley, of Fort Klamath; Roy Nelson, of Keno; George Offield, of Merrill, and Charles Mack, of Henley, all elected without opposition with the exception of a few scattering names written in on the ballot.

The figures for this election were not tallied last night, according to county superintendent Fred Pettersen, F. J. Bowne, of Bonanza is the hold over member of the board.

Odell To Celebrate Tunnel Completion On Natron Cut-Off

Big Tunnel To Be Finished Thursday Amid Much Celebration

BEND, June 15.—Completion of the big tunnel under the Cascade divide on the Natron cut-off, expected Thursday, will be the excuse for a monster celebration at Odell lake, it was learned here today from contractors, who are preparing for the jubilee. The tunnel, 3,650 feet long, will be the longest in the state, and one of the longest in the United States.

The piercing of the Cascades, a step in the closer union of eastern and western Oregon, was to have been finished in July, according to last year's calculations. Later it was estimated that it would take until July 15, but now the hole will be bored nearly a month ahead of schedule, due to unusually rapid progress made through rock of softer texture than had been expected.

Huge quantities of delicacies have been ordered for the celebration, and an immense dance pavilion is being constructed for the final festivities.

FRUIT EXPRESS WRECKED
SENTINEL BUTTE, N. D., June when a fruit express was wrecked

FRANK WAY IS CHARGED WITH MURDER IN 1ST

First Degree Charge Filed By Grand Jury; Case To Be Interesting

A charge of first degree murder was placed against Frank Way, shortly before 5 p. m. yesterday, by the grand jury, after that body devoted the entire opening day of the session to the weighing of evidence presented by Acting District Attorney Vandenberg.
The charge is in connection with the death of Tim Murphy, well known Klamath and Lake county sheepman, whom, it is alleged, Way killed either with his fists or with the butt of a revolver, after the two men had disagreed over the ownership of a black sheep.

The action of the grand jury is said to have been unanimous. Members of the grand jury are E. M.
Hammond, foreman; E. L. Hopkins, Marshall Orr, Merle Kilgore, Walter Short, F. H. McCormack and H. S.
Wakefield.

Just when Way will go to trial is a matter of speculation, according to Circuit Judge Leavitt, who has postponed the opening of this term of his court from June 18 until July 6, in order to permit Acting District Attorney Vandenberg to familiarize himself with evidence in the many cases to come to trial.
Vandenberg only started acting in the capacity of acting district attorney Saturday night, following the resignation of W. P. Myers.

Case Draws Interest

Keen interest will be manifested in the murder trial of Way by both his friends and those of the slain man. The best legal talent in southern Oregon will be aligned on both sides and a hard battle, like that of the John O'Shea trial, in which Horace Manning and C. F. Stone drew a verdict of not guilty for their defendant. These attorneys will oppose each other in the Way case.

Way, when informed of the grand jury's action, accepted the first degree murder charge without comment.

Flag Day Services Of Elks Impressive

Impressive exercises comemorating flag day were held by the Klamath B. P. O. E. at the Elks' temple Sunday evening. About 200 people were in attendance and Robert R. Butler, senator from Wasco county delivered one of the most beautiful tributes to the national colors ever heard in Klamath Falls.

Francis R. Olds recited the history of the flag and the lodge put on their impressive flag day ritual.
Harry Borel's orchestra played a medley of patriotic airs that brought down the house with sustained applause.

JAP WARSHIPS OFF FOR CHINA

Allies May Be Forced To Intervene In Chinese Civil War Strife

TOKIO, June 15.—(United News) Four Japanese warships have been ordered to prepare to depart for Shanghai from Sasebo, the island naval base in the China sea, which is about 26 hours from the Chinese coast. The order was issued at the request of the Japanese naval commander in Chinese waters.

Minister Yoshiwaza, the Japanese envoy in Peking, has been instructed to protest the murder of a Japanese citizen in the Hankow riot.
In announcing these instructions, the Tokio government reiterated its statement that Japan would not interfere independently in China, but would act only in concert with the other powers.

SUIT IS FILED BY MYERS FOR $10,000 LIBEL

Report Is That Half Dozen More To Be Brought For Character Defamation

A civil libel suit was filed in circuit court Monday afternoon by W. P. Myers, until last week acting district attorney of Klamath county, against E.
J. Murray and W. H. Perkins, publisher and news editor, respectively, of the Evening Herald of this city. The suit is for $10,000, charging defamation of character. Only one instance is cited in the suit.
Others will follow later.

The particular alleged defamating story was one printed several months ago, headed:
"Somebody Blundered." In it the acting district attorney is accused of humiliating a man by false arrest, and wasting the public's funds by transporting the man from Chico, Calif.

It is Myers' contention that William Ganong had not relinquished office at the time this alleged false arrest was made, and that he knew nothing of the matter at the time.

Mayor, Police and Sheriffs Combine For Liquor Coup

Mills Add'n. House Raided And 8 Arrested; Beer And Mash Taken

Deputies Snyder, Burke, and Hilton from the sheriff's office, cooperating with Mayor Goddard, Chief Loucks and the entire night police force staged a big liquor raid at 1 o'clock this morning at number 2405 Radcliffe Ave. in Mills Addition, netting seven men, one woman, three 15 gallon beer kegs, 131 empty bottles, 15 gallons of malt, 1 gallon jug of beer, and several bottles of home brew.

The victims were: Elwin Allowsious Perry, Dave Smith, Al Yates, A. T. Romello, Jack Smith, T.
Manning, C. V. Barnett, and Evaline Gainsford.

The Radcliffe avenue house came under the suspicions of the night police from unusual night activity noted in that neighborhood. Following the raid last night, after the officers had taken possession of the house Manning and Barnett drove

Deputy Ed Kendall Badly Shot In Duel With Bootleggers

3 Moonshine-Crazed Men Fire on Woman, Hold Up Man and Brazenly Resist Ar- rest; Kendall and Jim Burk Empty Guns and Both Wound Each Other.

Deputy Sheriff Ed Kendall lies in the Klamath Valley hospital in a serious condition with a broken and shattered left arm and another deep wound in his leg; Jim Burk, an alleged bootlegger, is in a nearby room with one of Kendall's 32-20 automatic bullets through a leg, and an unknown passerby is more or less seriously wounded from a deep flesh wound in the knee, following a desperate gun battle between Sheriff Hawkins and Kendall on one side and three drunk and alleged bootleggers on the other. The battle, in which Kendall and Burk emptied their guns at each other, took place a mile this side of Olene, between that town and the Shepherd ranch, after the three crazed men had been reported terrorizing the surrounding country between 7 and 8 o'clock.

HAWKINS NARROWLY ESCAPES

Sheriff Hawkins narrowly escaped being wounded, a bullet having grazed his leg, tearing a hole in the trousers.
The three alleged bootleggers were Jim Burk, Ed Fuller and his son, who live in Mills addition. The Ford car, driven by the three men, was loaded with new automobile parts, believed by officers to have been stolen.

Just what havoc has been wrought by the moonshinecrazed men beside shooting Kendall and the unknown passerby, has not been definitely learned up until early this morning.

MEN FIRE ON WOMAN

A woman passing by in a car was hailed by the men who had ran their machine, a Ford, to the side of the road. They attempted to shoot the woman as she passed by, firing a half dozen shots at her. At the nearest farm house the woman sent an emergency telephone call to the sheriff's office, and hung up the receiver before anyone could learn her name or where she was calling from. Sheriff Hawkins and Deputy Kendall left immediately for the scene.

Ten minutes later came another telephone call to the sheriff's office from the Frank Corning store at Olene, that F. O.
Poole was held up a half mile from Olene by three men, and would await the arrival of officers at the store.

GUN BATTLE RAGES

Reaching a dark place along the road, just a mile from Olene, Hawkins and Kendall came upon the Ford, saw one man in full sight and two others partially hidden behind their car. As they came into full sight of the three, Kendall perceived Burk with a drawn .30 Luger automatic.
Kendall was forced to draw. "Stick 'em up!" were the words of Kendall, but Burk flashed back with a bullet that went through Kendall's left arm near the shoulder, shattering and breaking the bone.

"THEY'VE GOT ME, BURT"

"They've got me, Burt," cried Kendall, who though badly shocked and dazed, stayed on his feet and blazed into the crazed Burk. All this time, young Fuller, from behind the car, held Hawkins at bay at the point of a .45 caliber revolver.
The elder Fuller was unarmed.

The duel between Kendall and Burk continued. One of Burk's bullets struck a rock, glanced up, hitting Kendall square on the right shin, and tore a deep wound upward as far as his knee cap.

Kendall, with the last cartridge in his magazine, shot Burk through the foot, and the wounded man fell over an embankment, his gun dropping to the ground.

As young Fuller turned to see his comrade fall, Hawkins slipped around to the other side of the car and overpowered young Fuller. He disarmed him and ran over beside the wounded Burk and took his gun.

PASSERBY WOUNDED

The passerby wounded had stopped and got out of his machine to investigate when he heard the shots, and a stray bullet from the Kendall-Burk duel struck him in the leg. He left immediately in a machine, it is understood, and has not been heard from up until 3 o'clock this morning.

A Klamath Falls-bound car stopped and brought Kendall, who was weak from loss of blood, and the pain of a shattered arm, into the hospital. Sheriff Hawkins remained on the scene with the three crazed men.

Several times Burk attempted to get away, although he had a bullet through his foot, which was bleeding profusely.
The elder Fuller was hostile and threatened to overpower Hawkins, who used self control rather than wound any of the alleged bootleggers.

KENDALL'S WOUNDS PAINFUL

Kendall's wife and child were immediately sent for. No bullets remained in his flesh. Dr. Warren Hunt dressed the wound, cast the broken arm, and at three o'clock declared that while Kendall was suffering much pain, he would live
