Otherwise the records were not im- perilled, for the athletes worked in an atmosphere suggesting laboring conditions at the mouth of a blast furnace, and the heat undoubtedly took something from the performances of the specialists.

It was so hot, in fact, that Escutcheon, of Harvard, went down and out before the finish of the two-mile race, and was carried off unconscious. He ran himself into exhaustion chasing Briggs of Yale, who was leading the field, and was on Briggs' heels, going stride for stride with him, when he suddenly flopped to the cluders. In the excitement, Tibbets of Harvard rushed past Briggs to win the race in 9:42 1-5.

SCOUTS DECIDE ON 6 WEEKS AT LAKE O' WOODS

Klamath Falls Troop No. 1, Boy Scouts, held their regular meeting at the American Legion Hall last evening, when definite plans were made relative to the scout vacation headquarters, which will be located at Lake of the Woods this summer. The vacation season at the lake will be of six weeks duration, starting July 6, and continuing until August 14, and will be under direct supervision of Cecil A. Cook, scout executive for Crater Lake Council Boy Scouts, who will be in direct charge of the camp throughout its duration. Rates will be six dollars per week, which include even transportation. David and Hubert Totten successfully passed their tenderfoot tests, qualifying them for registration for summer camp. Merle Swansen was appointed senior patrol leader and group bugler. It is hoped by Scoutmaster Julius Mueller, that the entire troop will have their uniforms in another week.
