

LOCALS

Move Into City—Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Shorthill, who have been employed in highway work in Langell Valley, have moved into Klamath Falls for an indefinite stay.

Visiting Here—Mrs. C. H. Miers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Emmitt, is making relatives and friends here a visit. Mrs. Miers was present at the celebration of the golden wedding of her parents some six weeks ago, and extended her trip to Glendale, Ore., where she visited her son and his family. After a few days' stay in Klamath Falls Mrs. Miers will return to her home in San Francisco.

At the Empire—Among recent arrivals registered at the Empire hotel are E. R. French of Vancouver, R. G. St. Clair of Bend, E. W. Helms of Portland and C. E. Harris of Bend.

Visiting Here—Mrs. W. G. Morris, mother of Mrs. James Blair, and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Hucci and Mrs. Dick Hunter, relatives, are visiting the Blairs, proprietors of the Empire hotel, and expect to be in Klamath Falls for several weeks before returning to their homes in San Francisco.

In On Business—Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hoyt of Fort Klamath have returned to their home after a business trip in this city.

Motored to Ashland—Mrs. Fred Cofer and daughter Helen and Mrs. Sid Evans motored to Ashland on Wednesday, and spent the day with friends.

On Business Here—James Pelton and E. M. Leever, Fort Klamath ranchers, were in this city on business one day this week.

Business Visitors—Among the business visitors in Klamath Falls at present are Mrs. B. F. Mitchell from Weed, John F. Hinds of Corvallis, and J. Ball of Modoc Point.

Leave for South—Lloyd DeLap and son Junior left yesterday morning for San Francisco, to be with Mrs. DeLap, who will undergo an operation at one of the hospitals in that city.

Visiting Here—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thornton and family were city visitors this week from Klamath Agency.

Return From Salem—Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Smith and daughter, Miss Gertrude Smith, have returned from Salem, where Miss Smith has been studying in the Willamette university for the past winter. Mr. and Mrs. Smith drove north last week to return with her daughter.

Visit Here—Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Koppen and son John, of Medford, were business and pleasure visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday from their home in the valley. They are former residents of this city. Koppen holding the position of office engineer with the reclamation service. He is now with the California Oregon-Power company at Medford.

From Lake—Phil Motschenbacher, superintendent of the fish hatchery at Diamond Lake, was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

To Leave Soon—Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wells will leave tomorrow for Lake of the Woods, where they will spend a restful week-end at their summer home on the lake shore, before leaving for California, where they will both enter summer school for a six weeks' session. Mr. Wells, who is superintendent of Klamath Falls public schools, will take a course in administrative work in the University of California at Berkeley. Mrs. Wells will study in Miss Swope's school at Santa Cruz.

Marriage License—Another marriage license for the week was issued in the office of County Clerk DeLap yesterday afternoon, when license to wed was granted to Roscoe Largent and Tillie Brundage, both of Klamath.

Postmaster Returns—John A. McCall, Klamath Falls postmaster, returned late Wednesday night from California, where, in company with Mrs. McCall and his two daughters, Hillis and Jean, a vacation of several weeks has been enjoyed. The McCall family left Klamath Falls May 21 and spent the major portion of their time in and around San Jose, where a visit with Mrs. McCall's brother, V. S. Hillis, was enjoyed. Santa Cruz and Monterey were also visited. While on the southern trip, Mr. Elwell, former resident of Klamath Falls, was seen in Willits, Calif., where he is now in business. The party returned by way of Crescent City and Grants Pass.

To Take Vacation—R. L. Griffith, assistant Klamath Falls postmaster, will enjoy his summer vacation in the near future, taking eight days off. Griffith plans to spend a portion of that time in Portland. During the absence of Postmaster McCall, Griffith was in charge of the postoffice.

In From Bly—Charles Adams, rancher of the Bly section, was among the business visitors in the city yesterday for a short time.

From Bly—Among the many out of town visitors in the city yesterday was Lawrence Griffin, well known rancher of the Bly section, who transacted business in Klamath Falls.

To Take Vacation—Julius Mueller left last night for Ashland, where he took the midnight train south for Marysville, his former home, where he will visit with his mother, Mrs. Mary Mueller, for some time. Mr. Mueller was driven to Ashland by motor by his brother, William Mueller, who returned later. Upon his return Mueller will bring back to Klamath Falls with him, his brother, Carl Mueller, who was wounded seriously while in the service in a New York camp shortly after the World war, and who has been in a veterans' hospital for some time.

Make Trip—Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Vannice and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Crooks, and family, made a short business trip to Medford yesterday, making the trip by motor.

Former Teacher—Miss Mary Rieth, former school teacher in Klamath Falls, has returned to the city for a short visit with friends. Miss Rieth now makes her home in Kelso, Wash.

From Medford—Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Loosley, frequent business visitors in Klamath Falls, arrived yesterday from their home in the valley, to spend the remainder of the week here. Mr. and Mrs. Loosley make their home in Medford.

From Modoc Point—Mrs. Rhoda Tompkins of Modoc Point, was among the visitors in the city from her home in the county, transacting business and visiting with friends.

In City Thursday—Mrs. Levi McDonald was among the Langell valley visitors in Klamath Falls from out of town Thursday. Mrs. McDonald resides on the McDonald ranch in that section of Klamath county.

Visit Here—Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Foster of Lakeview were recent visitors in Klamath Falls, spending some time with Mrs. Foster's sister, and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barnes. They left yesterday for Ashland, where they took Mrs. Flavia McDonald to Phoenix, where she will spend some time visiting with her sister, Mrs. Andrew Fisher.

Leave for South—Mrs. Will Houston and two daughters, Miss Geraldine Houston and Miss Genevieve Houston, and Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Landis, left the early part of the week for San Diego, where they will visit with Mrs. Houston's and Mrs. Landis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harris.

To Enjoy Picnic—Girls of the Jinkers club of the First National bank will enjoy a picnic and weenie roast tomorrow night on Klamath lake. The trip will be made in Miss Lulu Hansen's car. The girls who will be in the party are Miss Hansen, Miss Elna Jensen, Miss Stella Setzer, Miss Constance Crystal, Mrs. Lilly Rigney, Miss Ruth Lindsey, Miss Inez Jenkins, Miss Katherine Doty, Miss Josephine Upp and Miss Sybil Bamber.

Enjoy Trip—Mrs. Elmer Hoskings had as her guests yesterday Mrs. E. M. Igl, Miss Marie Igl of Minneapolis, Miss Bertha Bush of Los Angeles, and Miss Katherine Igl, also of Los Angeles. The party enjoyed a most delightful picnic trip to Spencer creek.

To Make Trip—Many Klamath Falls residents are planning to leave over the week-end for Crater lake, where the trip may be made by motor within three miles of the lake. The hike of three miles through snow, which is not exceedingly deep, will enable the trip to be made in practically the same time as in heavy traffic during the summer season, according to several who are planning the trip.

To See Game—Mr. and Mrs. Perry Wilson are planning to attend the McCloud-Klamath Falls baseball game on Sunday at McCloud, taking as their guests "Sunny" Mohler, pitcher for the Klamath team, and Miss Ruth Lindsey and Miss Inez Jenkins.

Students Here—Among the many students from the state college to arrive in Klamath Falls this summer, are two from the University of Oregon. Richard Extra of Wyoming, a student at Eugene, arrived yesterday, as did Fred West, of Portland, also a student in the college. Mr. West is a brother of Miss LeLaine West, who spent the past two winters teaching in the Klamath county high school.

Many in Hotels—Klamath Falls hotels are filled to their utmost capacity, according to several of the hotel men yesterday, who report a splendid season for this early in the summer. Although many of the visitors are traveling men and commercial visitors, the majority of those stopping in the Klamath Falls hotels are tourists, who carry with them little or no camping paraphernalia. In many cases the fame of Diamond Lake has spread, and there are a number armed with fishing tackle, rod and line, who are spending the remainder of the week in the city.

Merchant Here—H. G. Enders, merchant of Ashland, is a business visitor in Klamath Falls from his home in the valley. Enders is a frequent visitor in the city, driving over the mountains often.

From Lakeview—Miss Mae Vernon, resident of Lakeview, is among the visitors in the city from her home in Lake county.

From the Coast—Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hill and son are among the tourists in the city from their home on the coast, Gold Beach. Mr. and Mrs. Hill made the trip by motor, and report the roads in most excellent condition.

From the Agency—Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Jolly, residents of Klamath Agency, were among the out of town visitors in the city yesterday. Mr. Jolly is employed as chief clerk in the reservation town.

From Bend—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Roberts, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Wanda Roberts, are among the many out of town visitors in the city from their home in Bend. While away from his business interests in a grocery concern of Bend, Mr. Roberts plans to take on a little Klamath county fishing.

Daughter Born—Mr. and Mrs. Provost of Bonanza are being congratulated upon the arrival of a baby daughter, born the middle of the week at the family home. Mrs. Provost and the child, who will be named Rosetta Marguerite, are reported as doing nicely.

Professor To Speak—Professor Cary of Los Angeles will conduct a free lecture this afternoon at 2:30 in the Presbyterian church, to which the public is invited. The theme of his discussion will center on di-etics and food values. The address is especially interesting to women of Klamath Falls, who promise a good attendance at the meeting.

From Portland—Business visitors in Klamath Falls include Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Reynolds of Portland, who are spending some time in the city on business.

Southern Pacific—Among the Southern Pacific men in the city for the remainder of the week are A. F. Green and James P. Weeks, both men stopping in the Arcade hotel.

In City—C. H. Beattie of the Southern Pacific company, is among the business visitors in Klamath Falls, stopping at the Hall hotel while on a visit to this city.

On Business—Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Benjamin of Portland, are business visitors in the city from their home in the north.

Leaves For Portland—Ross Finley, Klamath Falls business man, and interested in the Bly Rodeo association, left last night by motor for Portland in the round-up. Mrs. Finley will all plans for the rodeo, which will be held from July 1 to July 4. Mrs. Finley will be in charge of the camp which will be anchored.

Two Irishmen In Land—A fight in a local town between M. H. Sullivan and Brown and Collins resulted in a fighting charge. Sullivan will be in possession of the town will probably appear at Gachagen today.

THE KLAMATH
for Portland in the round-up. Mrs. Finley will all plans for the rodeo, which will be held from July 1 to July 4. Mrs. Finley will be in charge of the camp which will be anchored.

Two Irishmen In Land
A fight in a local town between M. H. Sullivan and Brown and Collins resulted in a fighting charge. Sullivan will be in possession of the town will probably appear at Gachagen today.

PELICAN
The Home of the STE
ch. off

Open June 21, 1 o'clock

LAURA MOORE RESORT
Point Comfort.

Boating and fishing. Every modern convenience. Baths, hot and cold water, electric lights. Oh, these big home-like fire places, screened porches, everything for comfort. Home cooked, home served eats. Follow the airplane.

Phone 187 for Reservations.

There's Several Reasons WHY WICKERSHAM'S CAN SELL YOU BETTER FOOTWEAR FOR LESS

Because we employ no extra sales help. Our fixtures are all very plain, no opera chairs here, no city heat to be paid these hot days.

Because doing all our own work keeps down the overhead expense. We are out of the high rent zone. Watching closely all other unnecessary expenses enables us to sell better footwear for less.

Because we sell for cash only. No bad accounts to be added to the cost of merchandise. We buy direct from the manufacturers, therefore no commission for the jobbers.

Because our system of doing business enables us to offer you footwear at sales prices every day in the year.

OUR WINDOW TELLS THE STORY

WICKERSHAM'S
Main 822. Phone 805

DANCE

Tonight

FRANK & KING'S PAVILION

South 6th St.
City Limits
Dancing 10 P. M.
Until Midnight

It's Nice To Shop Mornings
"What a Sale" on Shoes Closes Saturday Night

DOVE

The Mode For Women
In Under Garments

The Witchery of Lingerie

NOT June brides alone, but all the world of femininity loves the flower-like touch of "Dove" lingerie—in lustrous white, in flesh tints and pastel shades, or in the novel colorings of the latest mode.

You will love the chic of "Dove" styling—admire the sheer fineness of "Dove" texture—and appreciate, too, the practical advantages of "Dove" serviceability and its cool, pleasurable feel—delicious crepe, soft summery muslins and silks.

At this, your favorite store, look for the little blue-and-white "Dove" label peeping from the soft folds of every "Dove" underthing and find just the style you seek, in just the material you prefer—a delight to the eye—a caress to the figure.

Gowns, vests, bloomers, step-ins, every necessity in enchantingly beautiful "Dove" undergarments, 98c to $3.39.

"What a Sale" In Our Down Stairs Store ON SHOES

Closes Saturday, June 20

If the men folks, boys and girls need shoes, sandals, slippers, hiking boots suggest our 'Down Stairs Store'

Remember Father On Father's Day
Sunday, June 21

With a nice shirt and tie—he'll appreciate them in it's sweetest sense.

Shirts—$1.50, $2.50, $3.00, $3.50, $4.50
Ties—50c, 65c, 85c, $1.00, $1.50.

GOLDEN RULE CORPORATION
OF
KLAMATH FALLS OREGON

Our Post Office Open Until 8 p. m. Saturdays
It's Nice To Shop Mornings