

LOCALS

In City—Mrs. L. E. Thayer of Bonanza was a visitor in the city yesterday for a short time. Mrs. Thayer, with her children are planning to move into Klamath Falls in the near future to join Mr. Thayer who has been employed in the city for some time with one of the local firms.

From Midland—Among the business visitors from out of town in the city yesterday was Mrs. Lawrence Burnett from the Burnett ranch in the Midland district.

Shopping—William Zumburum of Beaver marsh near the Natron cut-off, was a business visitor and shopper in Klamath Falls on Friday. Zumburum is proprietor of a stopping place at Beaver marsh, where he conducts a small store and hotel.

Visit Here—Mrs. I. Mucci, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Morris, both of Alameda, are in the city visiting with their sister and daughter, Mrs. James Blair. They plan to spend several weeks in the city before returning to their home in California.

Shopping—Business visitors and shoppers in the city this week include Mrs. Trafren of Macdoel, and Mrs. James Bailey, also of Macdoel. They spent Thursday afternoon shopping in Klamath Falls stores.

From Merrill—Out of town visitors in Klamath Falls this week include Mrs. W. S. Holbrook of Merrill, who stopped for several hours in the city from her home on Friday.

To Visit—Mrs. W. P. McMillan and Mrs. Bertha Coverstone left yesterday morning for the Modoc Lumber company at Kirk, where they will spend some time visiting and transacting business.

Family Here—Albert May and his family are now domiciled in their home at 636 Eleventh street, following the arrival of Mrs. May and their children, Buelah, Winnie and George May, from their home in Merced, Calif. The Misses May will attend high school in the fall.

To See Game—Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cook will leave Saturday night for McCloud to attend the McCloud-Klamath Falls game, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Wilde and Goldie Miller. The party will spend the night in Dunsmuir, arriving in McCloud Sunday morning.

Returns To City—Miss Dorothea Hawkins arrived in Klamath Falls yesterday afternoon from Monmouth, where she has been attending the Oregon state normal school. Miss Hawkins plans to remain in the city for the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burt E. Hawkins.

Visiting Here—Miss Ethel Brown, Miss Ethel Baker, Miss Ruth Whitney and Miss Tressa Phillips, of Corvallis, where they are students in Oregon Agricultural college, are in the city visiting with friends for a short time, while enroute to Los Angeles. Miss Phillips will attend summer school in Los Angeles, the remaining three girls leaving for the south, where they reside. Miss Whitney and Miss Phillips are members of Zeta Tau Alpha, and while in Klamath Falls are visiting with a number of their sisters, Mrs. Marvin Lucas, Miss Frances Humphrey, Miss Margaret Johnston and Miss Bertha Peltz.

From Merrill—Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Hulet passed through Klamath Falls yesterday afternoon enroute to their home in Merrill, after having spent the past week in Corvallis and Roseburg. They were accompanied by their daughter, Miss E. Evelyn Hulet, and their niece, Miss Zylpha Patterson of Albany. Miss Hulet is a student in the Oregon state normal school in Monmouth, where she has been studying for the past winter. Miss Patterson will visit in Klamath county for the next two weeks at the Hulet home in Merrill.

To Take Trip—Among the interesting fishing parties to be enjoyed during the week-end will be a trip to the streams above Fort Klamath. Those in the party will be: Mr. and Mrs. Otto Langelett, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Funk, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Clemens, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hanks, Blair Malloy, Miss Kathleen Malloy, Miss Ferne Hanks and Ed McLaughlin.

Visiting Daughter—Mrs. P. J. McMahon of Portland, is a visitor in Klamath Falls, spending a fortnight with her daughter, Miss Cecilia McMahon.

Injures Foot—Miss Bertha Bush of Los Angeles, a visitor in the city, injured her foot quite painfully while enjoying a picnic at Spencer creek the middle of the week. Ligaments in the foot were torn and a blood vessel broken when Miss Bush slipped from the car as she was descending to the ground.

Mrs. Glover Ill—Mrs. John M. Glover of the Sunset apartments is confined to her bed, suffering from a severe attack of bronchitis. Mrs. Glover is employed with the California, Oregon Power company.

From Sprague River—Among the business visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday was Louise Pankey from Sprague river, transacting affairs.

To Return North—Miss Martha Upp and Waldeen Upp will drive north this evening with their sister Miss Katherine Upp, who will attend the six weeks' summer school session at Monmouth at the state normal school. Miss Upp has been visiting with her parents for the past week.

From Ashland—Mrs. Emma Wing of Ashland, was among the out of town visitors in the city. Mrs. Wing, who is a former resident of Klamath county, made a short business visit, also calling on old friends.

Return To City—Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Borgman have returned to Klamath Falls from San Francisco and Sacramento, where they have been on a short pleasure trip. Mrs. Borgman was Miss Ina Graham before her marriage last week and has been identified prominently in musical circles of the city, where she conducts a studio in the Odd Fellows building. The marriage of Miss Graham and Mr. Borgman took place last week in Oakland. Miss Graham having been studying music in the Master's school in San Francisco. They will make their home in the city.

Take Ride—Among the most enthusiastic fans of the air are a number of the girls from the First National bank. On Thursday night when Pilot French took his "customers" up in the air, Ruth Lindsey, Inez Jenkins, Stella Setzer and Mrs. F. R. Holcomb were on hand to get the much promised thrill. "Bud" Conway is also reported as extravagantly paying $5 for his ride. Lloyd Porter, another report says, was extremely nervous and fright at the last minute prevailed him to stay close to mother earth, although Lloyd maintains that he is going to take a stunt ride before Pilot French leaves for the north.

Drive To Ashland—Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Lewis of Klamath Falls, were visitors in Ashland Thursday evening for a few hours, driving over the mountains.

To Enjoy Week-End—Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rogers and four children will leave Saturday night for Lake of the Woods, where they will spend the week-end at their summer cottage.

In Friday—Among the business visitors in Klamath yesterday was John W. Farleigh of Wolf creek, who transacted business in the court house during the afternoon.

In City—W. M. Lucas arrived in Klamath Falls Thursday on an indefinite visit at the home of his brother, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Lucas.

OPENING DANCE
Altamont Auditorium
TONIGHT
Excellent Portland Orchestra.
Best and Largest Floor in the County.
AT ALTMONT
(Next to the Camp Ground)

DANCE TONIGHT
At Wlul-Kse
Klamath County boasts of this new dance floor. Campfire and moonlight effects, with the best of music, which dancers enjoy and crave for.
Place, Wlul-Kse, time, evening.
On the Dalles-California Highway.
Follow the real dancers.

Shopping Here—Mrs. Ruth Davis and Ruth Hill of Chiloquin, were business and shopping visitors in the city yesterday for a short time. Mrs. Davis is a cousin of Miss Ruth Dixon, with whom she visited.

Leaves For South—Joe Leonard, sheep buyer for the Union Sheep company of San Francisco, left yesterday for Alturas after a short business trip in Klamath county, in the interest of the company.

Accepts Position—Miss Bertha Peltz has accepted a position in the Hurry Cash grocery for the summer months. Miss Peltz recently returned from Corvallis, where she completed her first year in the Oregon Agricultural college.

From the South—Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Forkner, a nephew of Mrs. F. M. Lucas, is here from Selma, California, for a few days visit at the Lucas' home.

Leaves for North—Mrs. Anna Nealon of Lakeview passed through town Thursday on her way to Portland. While in Klamath Falls Mrs. Nealon visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grimes in Hot Springs.

At the Empire—Among those registered at the Empire hotel are Lester Gordon of Bend, Ore.; A. M. Barry, Lakeview; Leo Phipp, Chiloquin; M. A. Clay and Robert Sanders of Bend.

In City Friday—Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Plackus of Yonka Valley were in Klamath Falls yesterday shopping with Klamath Falls merchants.

From Pine Grove—Charles Mack and daughter of Pine Grove were in town yesterday on business.

Merrill Visitor—Gene Hammond, Merrill farmer, was a business visitor at the county seat yesterday.

To Medford—C. S. Currin, accompanied by James Straw and Dickie and Robert Currin left yesterday afternoon for a hurried business trip to Medford, where Mr. Straw will remain for some time.

From Dorris—Mrs. Freda Seivts and young child are in the city for a short shopping tour from their home in Dorris. While in Klamath Falls they are stopping at the Hall hotel.

To Go Fishing—Harry Prather, Kenneth Prather and Glenn Parker are planning a fishing trip which will take them to Wood River during the entire day on Sunday, returning late that evening.

Leaves for South—Frank Kemp left Klamath Falls yesterday afternoon for San Francisco, where he was called by the sudden illness of Mrs. Kemp, who submitted to an emergency operation for appendicitis. Mrs. Kemp is a sister to Harry Prather.

Lumbermen Here—J. J. Steiger, accompanied by Mrs. Steiger, is in the city for a short week-end visit from their home in Chiloquin. Mr. Steiger is prominent in Klamath county lumber circles.

From the Fort—Melvin Engle and Marie Engle of Fort Klamath are among the young visitors in Klamath Falls this week-end from their home.

Rancher In—C. A. Lentz, rancher of Klamath Marsh, is in the city for a short business trip, arriving last night for the week-end.

Visiting Here—Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Parshall, residents of Montague, are in the city on a short shopping and business trip from their home in the south.

Sheepman In—D. W. McCormick, prominent sheep buyer, is in the city from his home in Sacramento to spend a few days transacting business.

To Go to School—Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dicks are leaving in the near future for Ashland where they will attend summer school. They make their home at New Pine Creek.

Returns—Mrs. H. V. Brown, who has been visiting relatives in Myrtle Creek for several weeks returned home yesterday. Mrs. Brown was accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Newton, and sister, Miss Evelyn Newton, who will visit with Mrs. Brown until Sunday morning.

Boat Snagged—Running on to a dead head in Ewauna lake Thursday, the motor boat, Miss May J., was injured and the bottom of the boat torn so badly that it was necessary to dry dock the craft for repairs. The boat is owned by D. A.

$205.20 Complete

Yes! We Have It
The new Super-Small Heterodyne Radio for Home and Summer Camp.
Undoubtedly we have the best lines of Radio in Klamath.

Earl Shepherd Co.
Batteries, Tubes, Etc.
507 Main St.

Open June 21, 1 o'clock

LAURA MOORE RESORT
Point Comfort.

Boating and fishing. Every modern convenience. Baths, hot and cold water, electric lights. Oh, these big home-like fire places, screened porches, everything for comfort. Home cooked, home served eats. Follow the airplane.

Phone 187 for Reservations.

OH BOY—

The Fish are sure Biting at
Rocky Point Resort
The Home of the Rainbow Trout

We are equipped to take care of all kinds of parties. Tent houses, bungalows, camp grounds, dining rooms, good beds, the best of meals and everything. Row boats, kicker boats equipped with new Evnrude motors. In fact, the best resort on the Pacific coast to spend a few days or a week fishing and recuperating.

Under New Management
ROCKY POINT RESORT
A. R. LEAVITT

O'rear of Portland, who brought her south to Klamath to use during the Rodeo association celebration. O'rear was also planning to take the craft to Wlul-Kse for the convention of the Oregon and Washington Indian tribes, June 20 to June 31. According to owners of the craft she will be in readiness for the celebration.

From Merrill—Among the visiting ranchers in Klamath Falls yesterday, was Burr Westbrook of Merrill, where the Westbrook ranch is located.

From Merrill—Mrs. Charles Latta was among the many out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday, from her home on the Merrill road.

From Portland—F. G. Chard of Portland, interested with the Dal-

THE KLAMATH
PELICAN LUMBER
The Home of the
STEWARD
6th. Off Main.

SPRINTLING MEET
Readings daily. Approx. Tent at free camp ground Sixth St., back of garage Cummins.

UNDERWOOD'S

Things You'll Need For

PICTURES TELL THE STORY

Box Brownies...$2.75
Folding Autographic Brownies...$9.00
Autographic Kodaks...$6.50
Graflex Cameras...$52.50
Professional Cameras...$125.00 to $400.00
EIGHT-HOUR KODAK FINISHING SERVICE
KRYSAL KOTE ON VELOX

Box Candy
A complete line of Miss Soper Unusual Chocolates
Sampler
Cherries
Milk Chocolates
Assorted Chocolates...$1 to $2

For You Who Demand Quality

R O D E O

Perfumes & Toiletries
Here you will find the most complete line of Quality Toilet Articles in this city.
COTY'S, HUDNUT'S, DJER-KISS, ROGER & GALLETT, KARESS, MAVIS, COLGATES, HOUBIGANT, CARON—and dozens of other well known brands are always in stock.
THIS STORE SPECIALIZES IN QUALITY MERCHANDISE, and our guarantee of satisfaction or your money back goes with every sale.

Pocketbooks...$1.00 to $2.00
Hand Bags...$2.00 to $5.00
Ivory Toilet Sets $5.50 to $8.00
Hair Brushes...50c to $1.00
Combs...25c to $1.00
Pocket Flashlights...75c to $1.00

Underwood's Pharmacy

Whitaker's Groceteria

Headquarters For Good Goods and Low Prices.

Quality groceries at special prices. Whitaker's Groceteria sells best goods the market affords and at prices that are more than pleasing the pocketbook. Buy and profit at this store.

100 Lbs. PURE CANE SUGAR $6.75

Extra Fancy Corn, Regular 25c, today	17c	Full Pint Bottle Catsup	19c
Ashland Tomatoes, Extra Standard No. 2 1/2 12 for	15c $1.75	Florida Grape Fruit, No. 2 can, 2 for	48c
Extra Fancy Jam, 5 lb. Tin	80c	Libbys Sockeye Red Salmon No. 2 Tall	27c
Campbells Soup, any variety 3 for	25c	Pure Castile Soap, 1 1/2 lb bar	23c
1 Gal. Fancy Dill Pickles	73c	10 Bars Crystal White Soap for	35c

A Good Supply of Fruits and Vegetables.
Serve Yourself and Save

Whitaker's Groceteria

407 Main St.