

SOCIETY

CLUBS - CHURCHES - LODGES

STUDENTS
AT KLAMATH
The past week of June, college folk have returned to their parents in Klamath Falls. Numerous students, not only from Klamath, are also spending the vacation period here. With the return of the students, many social events are being planned. The week-end spent on the lakes and other interesting places.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JUNE 17. Rev. T. D. Yarnes of the Methodist church read the ceremony in the parsonage in the presence of a few friends. Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie plan to make their home in Klamath Falls.
At the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Reed at 1133 Walnut street, Miss Marjorie Reed became the bride of Melvin F. Smith on Friday evening. Rev. T. D. Yarnes, of the Methodist church, read the wedding ceremony. Following the service, a delightful wedding breakfast was served the guests who numbered more than 20. Mr. and Mrs. Smith have been residents in the city for some time and their many friends join in wishing them happiness. They will reside in the city where they have a home.

FROM THE UNIVERSITY
Miss Maybelle Leavitt, daughter of Judge and Mrs. A. L. Leavitt returned from the University of Oregon Saturday morning, after completing her course in the School of Journalism. Miss Leavitt received her degree and plans to remain in the city for the summer months before entering into her work.
Another University of Oregon student to arrive in Klamath Falls Saturday morning was Ivan Houston. Mr. Houston is a member of Phi Gamma Delta on the Oregon campus. He received his degree after four years study in the university, and plans to remain in the city during the summer months.

TO LAKE FOR WEEK-END
Mrs. Will Baldwin, accompanied by Miss Maude Baldwin left yesterday for Lake of the Woods, where the Baldwin cabin is situated. Mrs. Baldwin and Miss Baldwin plan to spend the week-end at the resort as do many other Klamath Falls residents.

LEAVE FOR SOUTH SOON
Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Groesbeck and family are planning to leave in the immediate future for the south where they will enjoy a fortnight's vacation and visit with friends. The party will visit in San Francisco for a week and then continue for the balance of the trip in other California cities before their return.

TEA CUP CLUB IS ENTERTAINED
Mrs. R. E. Stinson proved an interesting hostess when she entertained on Thursday afternoon for members of the Tea Cup club at her home on Washington street.

MISS LINDLEY TO ENTERTAIN
Miss Josephine Lindley will entertain for a group of friends with a picnic on Wednesday evening of this week. The meeting of the girls was postponed from last week.

DANCE IS SCHEDULED
Members of the Klamath Falls lodge of Elks have named the date of their initial summer dancing party on Wednesday evening, June 24, the affair to be given on the dance barge, "Venetian." The affair will be invitational and a number of special features will be included in the evening's entertainment.

GUESTS ARE ENTERTAINED
In honor of a number of visiting girls, students of the Oregon Agricultural college at Corvallis, an interesting dinner was given in the dining room of the White Pelican hotel on Friday evening.

The guests were: the Misses Ruth Whitney, Tressa Phillips, Vera Baker and Ethel Brown. Miss Whitney and Miss Phillips are sorority sisters of the hostesses, members of Zeta Tau Alpha, national women's fraternity on the O. A. C. campus.
Covers were laid for: Miss Whitney, Miss Phillips, Miss Baker, Miss Brown, Mrs. Marvin Lucas, Miss Frances Humphrey, Miss Bertha Peltz, and Miss Margaret Johnston.
The four girls are enroute to Los Angeles, where they will remain for the summer. Miss Phillips is to attend school, the other girls to visit with their parents at their homes.

ENTERTAIN ON FRIDAY EVENING
Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Igl entertained informally on Friday evening at their home for a number of guests in the city from the south. The evening was spent in bridge, an interesting supper served later to Mr. and Mrs. John H. Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Igl, Miss Marie Igl, Miss Bertha Bush, Miss Katherine Igl and Henry Hiss.

MESDAMES DALTON ENTERTAINED
Mrs. William Carson Dalton and Mrs. Paul Jackson entertained delightfully at the Carr ranch home on Saturday afternoon, with a daintily appointed bridge luncheon. Wild lippin and California poppies added to the interest of the beautiful rooms in which ten tables of cards were in play. During the afternoon the Misses Florence and Charice Elliott entertained with a number of musical selections.

FT. KLAMATH
FORT KLAMATH, June 20. Mrs. E. D. Briscoe motored to Medford Wednesday to visit with relatives of there. She is expected to be home the latter part of this week.
G. A. Page was a business caller in Klamath Falls Wednesday.
Mrs. O. W. Engle, daughter and son, Marie and Melvin, Mrs. May Angel and Miss Esther Jackson were business callers in the county seat Thursday.
Messrs. Melvin Engle and Chester Jackson motored to Chiloquin Wednesday evening to attend the motion pictures.
Mrs. Olena Page was among the business visitors from Fort Klamath seen in the county seat Friday.
Mrs. George Hoyt, who has been in Medford for sometime visiting with her sister, Mrs. Jackson, recently returned to her home here.

W. O. W. ATTENTION!
Important meeting Tuesday evening June 23. Be sure to come. Refreshments.
C. K. BRANDENBURG, Clerk.
K. Sugarman, Dr. Truax, Geo. Grizzell, Committee.

HOT SUMMER DAYS
Demand Beauty Aids Where Service and Efficiency Meet
Specializing in Violet Ray Facial and Scalp Treatment
Marcelling - Shampooing
French Paper Wave
For Appointment Phone 311
Boston Beauty Parlor
Winters Bldg. Gloenna Warren, Prop.

PLANNED BY BUSINESS CLUB
Members of the Business and Professional Women's club have plans made for another interesting picnic to be held Monday evening on the Upper Klamath lake. Cars will leave from the chamber of commerce at 6:30 p. m. and proceed in a caravan to the picnic grounds. A number of the girls are planning to enjoy a swimming party as well as a picnic dinner.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, June 17. Rev. T. D. Yarnes of the Methodist church read the ceremony in the parsonage in the presence of a few friends. Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie plan to make their home in Klamath Falls.
At the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Reed at 1133 Walnut street, Miss Marjorie Reed became the bride of Melvin F. Smith on Friday evening. Rev. T. D. Yarnes, of the Methodist church, read the wedding ceremony. Following the service, a delightful wedding breakfast was served the guests who numbered more than 20. Mr. and Mrs. Smith have been residents in the city for some time and their many friends join in wishing them happiness. They will reside in the city where they have a home.

FROM THE UNIVERSITY
Miss Maybelle Leavitt, daughter of Judge and Mrs. A. L. Leavitt returned from the University of Oregon Saturday morning, after completing her course in the School of Journalism. Miss Leavitt received her degree and plans to remain in the city for the summer months before entering into her work.
Another University of Oregon student to arrive in Klamath Falls Saturday morning was Ivan Houston. Mr. Houston is a member of Phi Gamma Delta on the Oregon campus. He received his degree after four years study in the university, and plans to remain in the city during the summer months.

TO LAKE FOR WEEK-END
Mrs. Will Baldwin, accompanied by Miss Maude Baldwin left yesterday for Lake of the Woods, where the Baldwin cabin is situated. Mrs. Baldwin and Miss Baldwin plan to spend the week-end at the resort as do many other Klamath Falls residents.

LEAVE FOR SOUTH SOON
Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Groesbeck and family are planning to leave in the immediate future for the south where they will enjoy a fortnight's vacation and visit with friends. The party will visit in San Francisco for a week and then continue for the balance of the trip in other California cities before their return.

TEA CUP CLUB IS ENTERTAINED
Mrs. R. E. Stinson proved an interesting hostess when she entertained on Thursday afternoon for members of the Tea Cup club at her home on Washington street.

MISS LINDLEY TO ENTERTAIN
Miss Josephine Lindley will entertain for a group of friends with a picnic on Wednesday evening of this week. The meeting of the girls was postponed from last week.

DANCE IS SCHEDULED
Members of the Klamath Falls lodge of Elks have named the date of their initial summer dancing party on Wednesday evening, June 24, the affair to be given on the dance barge, "Venetian." The affair will be invitational and a number of special features will be included in the evening's entertainment.

GUESTS ARE ENTERTAINED
In honor of a number of visiting girls, students of the Oregon Agricultural college at Corvallis, an interesting dinner was given in the dining room of the White Pelican hotel on Friday evening.

Plans for a picnic were discussed during the afternoon which was purely of a social nature. Refreshments were served on the lawn of the Stinson home, the hostess being assisted by Mrs. B. F. Stewart, Mrs. Frank Martin, Mrs. J. W. Vernon, Mrs. C. H. Barnstable and Mrs. John Yaden.
Special guests of the afternoon were: Mrs. Howard Robbins and Mrs. E. C. Koppen, both residents of Medford, the latter a member of the club during her residence in Klamath Falls.
Other guests were: Mesdames W. J. Steinmetz, D. M. Smith, W. C. Van Emon, Nina G. Taw, J. M. Guthrie, G. Nino, P. R. Melroe, F. Hill Hunter, George R. Lindley, Stanley Berry, H. E. Peltz, L. K. Phelps, G. K. Bonquist, C. E. Myers, G. G. Hales, E. C. Hales, E. C. Spakey, B. F. Stewart, Frank Martin, J. W. Vernon, C. H. Barnstable, John Yaden and Miss Anna M. Reeves.

SENSE OF HUMOR IS VERY NECESSARY HERE
Eastbound auto tourists off wax merry over a well-meant inscription on the east face of an arch that spans the main highway at the eastern border of Florence, Ariz. It reads: "Welcome! Come Again." One comment was, "Guests of the state penitentiary (located in Florence) who have completed their terms will read the sign with small appreciation for the hospitable sentiment expressed."

W. O. W. ATTENTION!
Important meeting Tuesday evening June 23. Be sure to come. Refreshments.
C. K. BRANDENBURG, Clerk.
K. Sugarman, Dr. Truax, Geo. Grizzell, Committee.

HOT SUMMER DAYS
Demand Beauty Aids Where Service and Efficiency Meet
Specializing in Violet Ray Facial and Scalp Treatment
Marcelling - Shampooing
French Paper Wave
For Appointment Phone 311
Boston Beauty Parlor
Winters Bldg. Gloenna Warren, Prop.

PLANNED BY BUSINESS CLUB
Members of the Business and Professional Women's club have plans made for another interesting picnic to be held Monday evening on the Upper Klamath lake. Cars will leave from the chamber of commerce at 6:30 p. m. and proceed in a caravan to the picnic grounds. A number of the girls are planning to enjoy a swimming party as well as a picnic dinner.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, June 17. Rev. T. D. Yarnes of the Methodist church read the ceremony in the parsonage in the presence of a few friends. Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie plan to make their home in Klamath Falls.
At the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Reed at 1133 Walnut street, Miss Marjorie Reed became the bride of Melvin F. Smith on Friday evening. Rev. T. D. Yarnes, of the Methodist church, read the wedding ceremony. Following the service, a delightful wedding breakfast was served the guests who numbered more than 20. Mr. and Mrs. Smith have been residents in the city for some time and their many friends join in wishing them happiness. They will reside in the city where they have a home.

FROM THE UNIVERSITY
Miss Maybelle Leavitt, daughter of Judge and Mrs. A. L. Leavitt returned from the University of Oregon Saturday morning, after completing her course in the School of Journalism. Miss Leavitt received her degree and plans to remain in the city for the summer months before entering into her work.
Another University of Oregon student to arrive in Klamath Falls Saturday morning was Ivan Houston. Mr. Houston is a member of Phi Gamma Delta on the Oregon campus. He received his degree after four years study in the university, and plans to remain in the city during the summer months.

TO LAKE FOR WEEK-END
Mrs. Will Baldwin, accompanied by Miss Maude Baldwin left yesterday for Lake of the Woods, where the Baldwin cabin is situated. Mrs. Baldwin and Miss Baldwin plan to spend the week-end at the resort as do many other Klamath Falls residents.

LEAVE FOR SOUTH SOON
Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Groesbeck and family are planning to leave in the immediate future for the south where they will enjoy a fortnight's vacation and visit with friends. The party will visit in San Francisco for a week and then continue for the balance of the trip in other California cities before their return.

TEA CUP CLUB IS ENTERTAINED
Mrs. R. E. Stinson proved an interesting hostess when she entertained on Thursday afternoon for members of the Tea Cup club at her home on Washington street.

MISS LINDLEY TO ENTERTAIN
Miss Josephine Lindley will entertain for a group of friends with a picnic on Wednesday evening of this week. The meeting of the girls was postponed from last week.

DANCE IS SCHEDULED
Members of the Klamath Falls lodge of Elks have named the date of their initial summer dancing party on Wednesday evening, June 24, the affair to be given on the dance barge, "Venetian." The affair will be invitational and a number of special features will be included in the evening's entertainment.

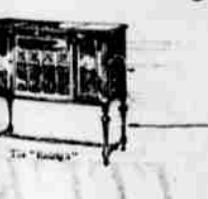

GUESTS ARE ENTERTAINED
In honor of a number of visiting girls, students of the Oregon Agricultural college at Corvallis, an interesting dinner was given in the dining room of the White Pelican hotel on Friday evening.

THE SEASON'S NEWEST
Hi Style Lo Price

WICKERSHAM'S BEAUTIFUL "LACLEDE" IN GUN METAL SATIN
Know When to Stop
"LACLEDE" as pictured above—A RED CROSS, Gun Metal Satin Pump, trimmed with blue silk thread, 16-8 Spanish covered heel.
An important thing for a designer to know. The "Laclede," for instance, is one of the most beautiful shoes of the season. The designer knew when he had a good thing, and didn't try to add any "extras." Simple, sweeping lines, combining with a restrained one-strap effect, makes the "Laclede" a shoe you will surely want.
AAA-C
The Calendar Shoe For July.
Exclusive Representative RED CROSS SHOE
WICKERSHAM'S
STYLE SHOE SHOP
Main 822. Phone 805

SANITARY
"Cleanliness is next to Godliness"
NEW CITY LAUNDRY
Phone 154

If You're Tired of Any of Your Phonograph Records
Then take advantage of our record exchange department, and trade the old ones for others to your liking.
The Only Music Store in Town Carrying Sheet Music
KLAMATH FALLS MUSIC HOUSE
122 So. 6th St. Phone 125

No, a Brunswick Phonograph doesn't improve with age but you like it better each year which amounts to the same thing

Currins For Drugs
Klamath Falls and Portland

New Life Obtained By Coming To WLUL-KSE
Sunday, June 21, 1925.
Come early and enjoy a swim, catch some fish or take a walk on the beautiful Klamath Lake.
A REAL BARBECUE
Sunday Noon, at 12:05 P. M.
Served by F. de Maon, famous in the southwest for his excellent art of barbecue service. After barbecue feasts will include some blooded horse racing, five (only) bucking horses and auto racing. Place, Klamath Indian Convention Grounds, Klamath Falls, on the Dallas-California highway. Oregon's fastest track where records will be broken.

YOUR first day at a summer resort—alone. Lonesome? Not for long if you have a
Sonora
Portable Phonograph
with you. For what is more inviting than a captivating fox trot, a winning smile and then—shall we dance?
Weights only 16 pounds, carries thirty selections right within its own case. Attractively covered with durable Fabrikoid.
$35
Earl Shepherd Co.
BATTERIES, TUBES, ETC.
507 MAIN ST.

