

LOCALS

From Eola—Mr. and Mrs. Ike L. Patterson of Salem, prominent business visitors in Klamath Falls are registered at the Hall hotel from Eola, Polk county. Eola is one of the most historic land marks in the Willamette valley and once held the prominence that Salem holds at the present.

Oil Man Here—Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Wherland of the Associated Oil company are in the city for a short business trip.

From Portland—Among the out of town visitors in the city is a group from Portland. Those in the party include R. A. Connerly, E. J. Eviars, A. H. Rinze and P. G. Gavin. Gavin is with the Warren Construction company of Portland.

From Medford—Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Barry are Medford visitors in Klamath Falls visiting with friends and transacting business.

From Topsy—Miss Grace Winters, employed with the Topsy Lumber company is in the city from Topsy for a short vacation and pleasure trip.

Cattleman—O. R. Stewart, Weedford cattleman is in the city interested for a while in business in Klamath Falls.

Elks Dance—Elks decorations of purple and white have been instrumental in adding to the dance barge "Venetian" which will be the scene of the first summer dancing party of the Elks lodge of Klamath Falls. Houston's orchestra has been obtained for the occasion and special features have been added to make the affair a success. The dance is invitational.

From The South—Scott McArthur from McArthur, Calif., is in the city for a short business trip, interested in cattle buying.

With Government—Stanley Jewett of Portland and Elmer Williams, also of Portland are in Klamath Falls for a few days interested in work for the government.

From Salem—C. E. Stricklin and Harold F. Hall are among the visitors in Klamath Falls from their homes in Salem.

Visit Here—Mr. and Mrs. Seth Cox of Dorris, accompanied by their son were among the business visitors and shoppers in Klamath Falls yesterday. Cox is a prominent farmer of the Dorris section. The party returned to their home last night.

In Tuesday—Mrs. Eleanor Rice from Macdoel, accompanied by her sister-in-law Mrs. Maude Rice of Medford were among the shoppers in Klamath Falls yesterday from their homes.

From Rochester—Making a business trip to Klamath Falls is the purpose of the visit of Mr. and Mrs. James McAuliffe of Rochester, New York, who are in the city for some time.

Southern Visitors—Among the southern visitors in Klamath Falls is a group from California. B. T. Oxford of Los Angeles is in the city as E. A. Wilson of San Francisco, H. C. Bryant of Berkeley and P. H. Blatterman of San Francisco.

Visiting Here—Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Gardner and daughter Miss Marjorie Gardner are stopping for a short visit with friends from their home in Westwood.

From The Valley—Valley visitors in Klamath Falls include Cecil Jackson of Roseburg who is making a short trip to the city.

From Dorris—Visitors from northern California this week include J. W. Moss and T. F. Norman, both residents of Dorris.

From Grants Pass—Jack Sherman is visiting for a time in the city with friends from his home in Grants Pass.

From The South—J. H. Morton, Los Angeles resident, is making a brief visit in Klamath Falls for a few days this week.

From Long Beach—Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Collins of Long Beach are in the city for a short visit, spending their time in Klamath Falls with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Houston. While in the city, Mr. Collins will spend his time looking into business interests. He is owner of the First National bank building, which is located at the corner of Fifth and Main streets, and in which is located the chamber of commerce and the Hall annex.

Light Burns—An electric light left burning on the bed in the home of Mrs. Nellie Beckley at 356 North Sixth street, caused considerable damage to the bedroom, destroying the mattress and bed clothing before the flames were extinguished by Mrs. Beckley. The accident occurred Monday night, and through the quick presence of mind of Mrs. Beckley, the entire house was probably saved.

From Ranch—Mrs. W. C. Dalton was visiting in the city yesterday from the Carr ranch in the Malin district. She brought into the city with her, Miss Florence Elliott and Miss Clarice Elliott, who have been spending the past week at the Carr ranch. The Misses Elliott returned to their home in Klamath Agency.

Expected Home—Julius Mueller is expected to return tonight from Marysville and other California cities, where he enjoyed a visit for the past week with his mother. Mueller will be accompanied to Klamath Falls by his brother, Carl Mueller, who plans to visit for some time here, enjoying the greater portion of the summer.

From Eugene—Eston Humphrey of Eugene is in the city visiting with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Kidder. Mr. Kidder and Mr. Humphrey spent yesterday at Diamond lake fishing during the day. The visitor plans to return to his home on Thursday.

Attending School—Miss Ellen McVeigh, daughter of Mrs. N. H. Bogue, is attending summer school in Berkeley, where she will remain during the summer months. Miss McVeigh is a teacher in the Merrill high school.

From the Agency—Mrs. Lulu Johnson of Klamath Agency, where she serves as government nurse, was among the business visitors in the city yesterday, shopping in the local stores.

Inspects Schools—County School Superintendent Fred Peterson spent Tuesday visiting at Lamm's mill and Klamath Agency, where he inspected the district schools, investigating as to the needs and wants of the buildings, in order to get them in first class condition for the opening of school.

To Take Vacation—Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Wilson and son, Buddy Wilson, will leave the first of next week for Medford. After a short visit in the valley town they will proceed to the coast, where they will spend a vacation in Marshfield, Bandon, North Bend and other sea coast towns.

From Topsy—Mrs. I. E. Kesterson, accompanied by her two daughters, Eva and Amy Kesterson, spent Tuesday in Klamath Falls from Topsy, where they make their home.

From Medford—Jerry Jerome and Court Hall, business men of Medford, were among the Tuesday visitors in Klamath Falls interested in obtaining a concession at the Klamath rodeo next week. They returned yesterday afternoon.

Rancher In—J. A. Parker, prominent rancher of the Bly district, was among the visitors in the city during the early part of the week.

From Portland—David Shiel, resident of Portland, is expected to arrive in Klamath Falls soon to visit with his family over the Fourth of July.

From Malin—Mrs. Frank Wilde, resident of Malin, where she conducts a hotel, was among the Klamath Falls visitors in the city yesterday.

From Merrill—Mrs. B. W. Short was a Tuesday visitor in Klamath Falls from the Short ranch in the Merrill district.

From Algona—Visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday included Mrs. Egerlein of Algona, who spent the day shopping and calling on friends.

Son Visiting—Mrs. Wilbur Jones is enjoying a month's visit with her son, Carl Newberry, who arrived Monday from the Orient, where he has been located for the past two years. Newberry is a former resident of Klamath Falls, and his many friends welcome him back for the summer.

Receive Word—Bert C. Thomas is in receipt of a letter from Mrs.

Thomas and daughter, Mary Charlene, who are visiting with Mrs. Thomas' relatives in Columbus, Ohio. According to Mrs. Thomas, the weather, although warm, is delightful, and they are enjoying the change from the coast.

Son Born—Mr. and Mrs. George J. Watson of 665 California avenue, were being congratulated upon the arrival of a baby boy weighing 10 pounds. The child was born June 20, and the proud parents have named him Marvin George Watson.

Leave for Salem—Mrs. Frank Martin and Walter Martin left for Salem this morning, accompanied as far as Ashland by Mrs. R. D. Busard. Mrs. Martin will remain in Salem until after the Fourth of July, and plans to visit with friends in Grants Pass on her return to Klamath Falls.

Attend Funeral—Mrs. W. Doney and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Benson and daughter, Miss Margaret Benson, were among the Asprogro visitors in the city yesterday, where they attended the funeral Tuesday morning of LeVerne Cartwright, infant victim of pneumonia. The services were held from Sacred Heart church.

From Algona—Matt Egan, interested with the Algona Lumber company, was in Klamath Falls yesterday visiting and transacting business, from his home in Algona.

Parents To Come—Mrs. Gertrude Moore is expecting her parents tomorrow from their home in Houlam, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hodgson, Mrs. Moore's father and mother, will probably remain over the Fourth of July, as they have never before had the opportunity to witness a western rodeo.

KODAK FINISHING
in at 9 out at 5 p. m.
The Peasley's
Opposite Court House

From Asprogro—Mrs. Troy Miller, resident of Asprogro, was among the many business and shopping visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday.

Special Election—Announcement for the special election of the clerk of the high school district in Chiloquin was made yesterday, the election to be held at 2 p. m. this afternoon.

Accepts Position—Miss Viola Brennan of Eureka has accepted a position in the offices of J. H. Carnahan. Miss Brennan is a recent arrival in the city, where her parents plan to make their home.

From Mantague—Mrs. O. R. Trivelpe of Mantague, was among the many out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday, transacting business and shopping.

French Deputies Give Painleve Confidence

PARIS, June 24.—(Wednesday) (United News)—The chamber of deputies voted confidence in Premier Painleve's direction of the war in Morocco, by a vote of 516 to 39 today. The vote followed a bitter session in which conservatives and communists fought around the tribune. The conservative deputies supported the government.

A paper where all the people have opportunity to express themselves if they desire—that's The Klamath News.

ATTENTION, ELKS!
First Elk dance of summer, at Venitian Dance Barge
TONIGHT
Each Elk requested to bring a friend.

Famous Attorney Starts Defense Of Evolutionist

DAYTON, Tenn., June 23.—Clarence Darrow, whose clever maneuvering saved Richard Loeb and Nathan Leopold from the hangman's noose, is now in Dayton, carefully studying how best to defend Prof. John T. Scopes, the high school biology teacher who expounded the theory of evolution to his pupils.

PORTUGUESE NAVY
LISBON, June 23.—The government has decided to send a cruiser to China to protect the Portuguese community and Portuguese financial interests.

ATTEMPT CAPTURE OF 500 DEER
OGDEN, Utah, June 23.—Capture of 500 fawn deer on the Kibab national forest in northern Arizona is being attempted, according to announcement received here.

THE KLAMATH
KODAK FINISHING
The Peasley's
Opposite Court House

HOTEL AS
EVERY ROOM has PRIVATE BATH
50% Baths
Close to Shopping District
FREE GARAGE

Beck's Manstore

Open for Business

Wednesday June 24

"A man's store for men"

A strictly brand new stock of the newest things for men
Nationally advertised lines at popular prices.

CLOTH-CRAFT CLOTHES
IDE SHIRTS and COLLARS
HARDEMAN HATS
W. L. DOUGLAS SHOES

Come in and pick out your Rodeo outfit.

BECK'S MANSTORE
For work or play—We can fit you out for the day.
If Men Wear It—We Have It!
517 Main St.

$198.00

Piano Bargain $198.00
Fancy case Haines oak used piano. Very special at the above price, so see it promptly, telling us what terms you wish.
Earl Shepherd Co.
Pianos, Radio, Victrolas, Records.
507 Main St. Phone 282

Frank & King's Comedians in
The Big White Tent
Seventh and Pine Streets
TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY
The Sensational Melodrama
"The White Slave Traffic"
Prices 25c and 50 c. Jazz Orchestra
Vaudeville Between Acts

CLOSING OUT SALE

LAWN MOWERS
GARDEN HOSE
REFRIGERATORS

We do not want to carry any of this merchandise over, so have placed them on sale at prices that will astound you.

Claud H. Davis, Furniture
"The House of Quality."
McCarthy Building

PELICAN LUNCH
The Home of the Pelican
STEW
6th. Off Main.