

LOCALS

Visitor Leaves—Miss Nonie Hedgepath of Rustin, Louisiana, who has been visiting at the home of P. O. Landry at 1221 Crescent avenue for the past two weeks, left yesterday on her homeward journey.

From Bly—Out of town visitors in the city include M. C. Knotts of the Bly district, who arrived in Klamath Falls last night for a short business trip.

From Portland—J. V. Whipp and family are paying Klamath Falls a visit from their home in Portland.

From Portland—To enjoy a fishing trip is the main purpose of a visit in Klamath Falls being enjoyed by Frank McFarland and O. A. Hatton of Portland, who, in the more serious season, are interested in the insurance game. With Frank Conner as guide, McFarland and Hatton will leave tomorrow for Four-Mile creek, where they will spend a day trying their luck in the stream.

Engineer Here—C. E. Strickler, state highway engineer, is in the city for a short visit and inspection tour from his headquarters in Salem. Strickler is accompanied by H. Hall, also of Salem.

From Seattle—Mrs. J. M. Mahoney of Seattle arrived in the city last night on the evening train to visit with her son, a resident of Chilquin. Mrs. Mahoney stopped in the Arcade hotel last night.

From Eugene—Among the visitors in the White Pelican hotel this week is E. B. Kingman, a frequent visitor in the city from his home in Eugene, stopping for a short business trip.

From Portland—Visitors in Klamath Falls include a number from Portland. Guests from the rose city who arrived yesterday for the remainder of the week, include G. B. Richmond and Kirk Reynolds.

From the East—C. C. Dukes, resident of Philadelphia, arrived in Klamath Falls last night for a short business visit.

Invents Novel Ad—Ane of most novel bits of advertising is that invented by Roy Durbin of the Klamath Clothing Company, who has taken a week's issue of the Saturday Evening Post and marked on the front, the number of a certain page. On that page is a national advertisement, and under that are the words: "Sold by the K. K. K. store." The idea is to link up with the national advertisements through that medium. Each week the books will be placed in hotel lobbies, reading rooms and recreation parlors with each new issue of the Post.

Merrill Rancher—T. A. Barrows, prominent Merrill rancher, who also owns a large stock farm in Modoc county, Calif., spent some time in the city yesterday on business and visiting with friends.

Visits Here—C. D. Chorpene, manager of the Merrill Mercantile company, was a business visitor in the city Thursday, conferring with Will Baldwin, one of the owners of the store, in regard to business matters.

Forbes Pure Drugs
Eighth at Main
Good Service—Good Drugs

From Glendale—Mrs. E. D. Stevens is in the city for a short visit, arriving last night from her home in Glendale.

From Oakland—Southern visitors in Klamath county include Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Cykler and John Cykler, all from Oakland. They drove north and plan to continue their journey north.

From Malin—Visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday included a number of Malin residents from their homes. Among them was Dick Lacy, rancher of the Malin section, who was transacting business in the county court house yesterday.

From Merrill—Martin Ownbey of Merrill was among the visitors in the city Thursday afternoon. While in the city Ownbey obtained a hunting license from the county clerk's office.

Return From Trip—Mrs. George J. Walton and two daughters, the Misses Beatrice and Katherine Walton, returned Wednesday night from a week's trip to Yreka, where they visited with Mrs. Walton's father. While on the trip a delay of several days was caused by trouble with their automobile, causing them to stop over in Medford several days. Miss Beatrice Walton is visiting for the remainder of the summer with her parents, after studying for a winter in the music conservatory of the College of the Pacific at Stockton, Calif.

From Yreka—Jesse W. Churchill, resident of Yreka, where he conducts a prosperous ranch in the Butte creek valley district, near Dorris, spent Thursday in Klamath Falls interested in land holdings of the lower Klamath lake. Churchill also is a banker of Yreka.

To Make Home—So impressed was A. B. Major of Westwood, Calif., with Klamath Falls that he has decided to return to the city in the near future with the object of opening a service station in mind. Major is one of the hundreds of tourists that are pouring into the city weekly from the south, enroute to other points in Oregon after visiting here.

To Return—Charles Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnston, is expected to arrive in Klamath Falls the latter part of the week from the south. Johnston has been attending the Pasadena Military academy for the past winter, and since his vacation has been a house guest of Burge Mason, Jr., at the Mason home in Modesto. Mason will also accompany Johnston north.

To Visit Here—Robert H. Norman of Oakland, accompanied by several friends, also residents of Oakland, are in the city from the south, to spend a ten days' visit in Klamath county fishing at Diamond lake and Rocky Point, and to attend the Indian convention at Wini-kse before returning south. They also desire a visit to Crater lake.

Land Owner Here—Maurice Zuckerman of Los Angeles, prominent land owner of the Klamath lake bed land, is in the city on one of his seasonal trips in the interest of his property. The land owned by Zuckerman includes thousands of acres.

From Monroe—Visitors in the city from the north include James Hodges of Monroe, Wash., who, with a party, are enjoying a trip through Oregon, stopping for a time in Klamath county for the scenery.

From Portland—Mr. and Mrs. George Biehn of Portland arrived in the city yesterday for a short visit with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lucas. According to Mrs. Biehn, their daughter, Miss Pearl Biehn, is now in New York preparing to sail in the immediate future for Europe, where she will enjoy a two months' cruise.

Friendship Club—Members of the Friendship club will meet this afternoon at 2:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. George Werts at 529 Jefferson street, for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year. All members are urged to be present, by the hostess.

Visiting Here—Miss Ruth Newton of Malin arrived in Klamath Falls Wednesday evening to spend a few days as the house guest of Miss Marlam Wortley of Klamath Falls.

From Dunsmuir—Harry Sprague of Dunsmuir is among the out of town visitors in the city from the south to transact business this week. Sprague spent Thursday in Klamath Falls.

FIGHTS TONIGHT
—At—
Klamath Indian Convention Grounds.
Follow the Crowds to WLUL-KSE

Motor To Wlul-kse—Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Vannice and family enjoyed a motor trip to Wlul-kse on Thursday afternoon, where they enjoyed a visit at the Indian convention now being held on the lake shores.

From Lakeview—Among the visitors in Klamath Falls from Lakeview is H. Gunderson, resident of that city who arrived last night to spend the remainder of the week.

From Medford—Valley visitors this week include R. C. Johnston who is making a short business trip here.

From Grants Pass—Among those stopping at the Hall hotel for their stay in Klamath Falls are Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Trumbey and family who arrived yesterday for their visit here.

From Burlingame—Among the tourists in the city are Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Collier and daughter of Burlingame, who are stopping in Klamath county for a time.

To Go South—Freeland and Ray Staley of the Pelican Bay Lumber company are planning to leave in the morning for a two weeks' visit in San Francisco, where they will spend some time visiting with friends.

Sheepman Here—John Sullivan, prominent sheepman of the Merrill district, was among the visitors in the city yesterday for a brief time, shopping and transacting business.

From Macdoel—Shopping and transacting business is the chief object of the visit in Klamath Falls of two residents of Macdoel, L. R. Andrus of that city and H. Nuffer, also of Macdoel are stopping in the city for a brief stay.

Postal Man—William C. Ott, who was in the city recently to give tests in the Klamath Falls post office, is in the city again for an inspection and business visit to the local office.

Leaving South—H. S. Thorp and T. E. Robinson, both residents of Oakland, with the Best Tractor company, are in the city for a short visit, Robinson planning to leave today for San Francisco for a business trip.

PELICAN LUNCH
The Home of the Pelican
STEW
6th. Off Main.

DANCE
At Bonanza
Saturday Night
June 27
Music By Hi-Life Orchestra

Medford Visitor—Valley visitors in Klamath Falls include many from Medford. Among those are Mr. and Mrs. William Olson, who are here for a short visit.

Forbes Pure Drugs
Eighth at Main
Good Service—Good

$198.00

Piano Bargain $198.00

Fancy case Haines oak used piano. Very special at the above price, so prompt, telling us what terms you want.

Earl Shepherd Co.

Pianos, Radio, Victrolas, Records.
507 Main St. Phone 2

PUBLIC MEETING
PINE TREE THEATRE
Sunday, June 28, 10 a. m.
Subject—"A Standard for the People, Comparing The Pyramids of Egypt With the Scriptures."
Under the auspices of the
INTERNATIONAL BIBLE STUDENTS' ASS'N.
Speaker R. C. Pollock of New York
ALL ARE WELCOME
Admission Free
And No Collection

FREE DANCE
Opening Of New G. & A. Store
—At—
CHILOQUIN
Good Music Lots of Floor Space
Be Prepared To Dance All Night
Saturday, June 27
GIENGER & ALMETER

It's the Quality of the Hardware and Implements in this store that sells them.

Now Is The Time To Purchase That
Lawn Mower and Garden Hose

Look Them Over Here Before You Buy

Roberts & Harvey

Hardware For Hardware

FUN
JULY 2-3-4
The Biggest Rodeo Ever
Night Show
Klamath Ave. and Payne
Fire Works and a Big Time

Frank & King's Comedians
in
The Big White Tent
Seventh and Pine Streets
Friday and Saturday
It's To Laugh
"OH, DOCTOR!"
Prices 25c and 50 c. Jazz Orchestra
Vaudeville Between Acts

TAKE
Cal's Stage
TO THE FIGHTS
—at—
WLUL-KSE TONIGHT
Leaving Klamath Falls 7:00 to 7:30 p. m.
Returning immediately after fights.

Globe-Wernicke
Structural Strength Safes

This safe carries the Underwriter's Label
Southwell Stationery Co.
626 1/2 Main St. Phone 600
Globe-Wernicke Agency