mittee, finds time to run a large ranch near Merrill. For this reason his knowledge of the laborious and continuous cultivation of garden and truck crops is practical and the offering of special cash prizes but an expression of his appreciation for a possible large, remunerative and important new industry for his county.

Full List of Bad Horses At Rodeo

Bucking horses generally get their names from some peculiarity of appearance, from the country where they were raised, and sometimes from jazzy expression, or current notable, who is honored or possibly dishonored, by having twelve or fifteen hundred pounds of the orneriest horseflesh ever wrapped in a hide, named after him.

The following is the complete list of the names of the bad horses owned by the Bly association: Snowball, Whiz Bang, Shetland, Dempsey, Chuck Wagon, Nellie Bly, Round Mountain, Freckles, Greasewood, Nalin, Simms, Whirlwind, Cadmus, Buttes, Jazz, Cottonbelly, McAdoo, Tamarack, Blackbird, Sam Slinger, Aeroplane, Screwdriver, Dirty Shirt, J. Frank, Snappy John, Hot Damn, Corkscrew and Black Demon.
