

SPORTS DONE BROWN

BY NORMAN E. BROWN

The "riders" are laying off Ty Cobb, according to word from the home of the Detroit Tigers.

Which is well. Ty hasn't been getting a square deal from the Detroiters all season. He was panned when he said last spring that he had but a fair ball club. The second guessers and howlers thought he ought to be talking of a pennant. This despite the fact his infield situation was still up in the air, his pitching staff ditto and his own condition such that he later collapsed in the south.

Then the Tigers started out fairly well, only to find themselves crippled by the illness of Topper Riney and the failure of the pitching staff to give the service expected of it.

The "riders" got busy. Cobb said nothing but plugged along, trying to stop the mad rush of the team toward the cellar. He finally checked it. The team has been playing better ball of late. The Tigers are not out of the running. They have as good a chance of breaking into the pennant fight late in the season as any other team outside the Athletics, Senators and White Sox.

Cobb still sticks to his statement that he has but a fair team. He still sticks, also, to his belief that that club can play better ball than it has and is laboring to make it reach the standard he has set. And given a chance he will prove his views—if the "riders" will continue to refrain from helping share the morale of his players.

On every ball club there seems to be one man who is the main spring or the fuse of the ball club. When he is going good the whole team is hitting on all nine. When he hits a slump the team skids coincidently. Ever since Tris Speaker joined the Cleveland Indians he has been that spark plug. It is tradition that when Speaker is hitting the Indians hit with him. The tonic spreads to the pitching box and the burlers seem to do their best.

By the same token, when Speaker is forced from the game by injuries or illness or falls into one of his rare hitting slumps the offense of the team suffers almost instantly and the defense soon falls into line. George Sisler has been the main-spring of the Browns. Their success in the A. L. race has varied with his play.

Irish Meusel now must be classed with these barometers. Recent games of the Giants show that when Meusel has gone hitless in the pinches the Giants have lost. In the games in which he has come through the Giants have had the necessary punch.

Which reminds the older fans of Larry Doyle, old Giant star. He had the happy faculty of adding the extra punch when it was needed. He seemed to be fated to go to bat in the pinches and it became tradition that "Larry" would come through with a hit if it were needed to win a game.

Larry Gardner, once star member of the Boston Red Sox with Tris Speaker and later third sacker for Tris on the Cleveland team, was one of this type. Long after Gardner slowed up afield and found his batting average slipping he had the happy faculty of connecting with a base hit when the hit was needed. Jack Graney, once known as the greatest leadoff man in baseball, was one of those whom fate liked to frown on in emergencies. I've seen Graney hit into more double plays when a hit meant a run, a tie score or a victory than a flapper has dates. Graney's ability to wait out a pitcher more than neutralized this handicap, however. There probably never will be as good a judge of balls and strikes as the short, stocky gentleman from St. Thomas, Ont. That seems as it lays.

PHILADELPHIA, June 27.—Slim Harris' arm and bat subdued Washington today, enabling the Athletics to win by a 2 to 1 score. The tall hurler held the world champions to five hits. In addition, he brought in the winning run, with a single in the sixth.

Score— R. H. E. Washington 1 5 2 Philadelphia 2 11 0 Batteries—Zachary, Marberry, Russell and Ruel; Harris and Cochran.

DETROIT, June 27.—Fighting a game, uphill battle, the Detroit Tigers won their ninth straight victory, and third straight over St. Louis today by a score of 5 to 4. Singles by Burke, Wingo and Blue in the ninth won the game.

Score— R. H. E. St. Louis 4 11 1 Detroit 5 12 2 Batteries—Bush and Wingard, Dixon; Wells, Collins, Daus and Bassler.

PITTSBURGH, June 27.—The Pittsburgh Pirates split a double-header with the Cincinnati Reds here today, winning the first game 2 to 2 and dropping the second, 6 to 2.

NEW YORK, June 27.—Fonseca's homer off Burleigh Grimes with the bases filled, gave Philadelphia a 10 to 6 victory over Brooklyn today. The Robins pecked away at Jimmy Pflug all during the game, but could not overcome their lead.

Score— R. H. E. Philadelphia 10 13 1 Brooklyn 6 11 2 Batteries—Ring and Wilson; Grimes, Hubbell and Taylor.

ST. LOUIS, June 27.—Rogers Hornsby's rejuvenated Cards defeated the Cubs, 5 to 0 here today.

Score— R. H. E. Chicago 0 7 2 St. Louis 5 9 0 Batteries—Jones, Bush and Hartnett; Reinhart and O'Farrell.

BOSTON, June 27.—The Yankees won both ends of a double-header from the Red Sox today by scores of 10 to 5 and 5 to 1. Hoyt was driven from the box in the opener, but Conroy's costly error led to an eighth inning rally for the Yanks. In the second game the Red Sox outbatted the Yankees, who were held to five scattered hits. But two of these were home runs by Meusel, and they accounted for all of the Yank tallies.

First game— R. H. E. New York 10 11 0 Boston 5 13 2 Batteries—Hoyt, Jones, Schang; Zahniser, Quinn, Ross and Pielnich.

Second game— R. H. E. New York 5 9 0 Boston 1 10 0 Batteries—Shocker, Bengough; Russell and Heving.

CHICAGO, June 27.—The White Sox took a double-header from the Cleveland Indians today and won their sixth consecutive game. Both games were captured by good pitching. Harry Hooper's homer won the first encounter.

First game— R. H. E. Cleveland 1 7 1 Chicago 2 6 1 Batteries—Smith and Myatt; Lyons and Schalk.

Second game— R. H. E. Cleveland 1 8 1 Chicago 3 9 0 Batteries—Edwards and Myatt; Robertson and Grabowski.

WLUL-KSE DRIVERS BREAK DIRT TRACK RECORD FRI.; RACE TODAY

In the auto races at Wlul-Kse yesterday afternoon George W. Lotts, driving Pelican No. 9 Flyer broke the half mile dirt track record by negotiating the distance in 30 seconds flat. In the first event, Ernest Smith in this race had a stormy time of it, his car swerving from the track three times, but finally finishing unharmed.

In the second race Thomas Tendle won, driving a Templar No. 4. Art Hoskins was second, in a Winema Special No. 8, time 3:46. A hard driven race was fought out in the third event when George Lott, driving a Pelican No. 9 won over Bob Moore, driving a Wool Special by a narrow margin of three inches.

The fourth race, 5 mile free for all, was a see-saw affair with Ernest Smith, driving Pontiac No. 5 off in the lead. George Lott came up from fifth to second place in the first lap, passing the grandstand in a wonderful drive with Smith. The Pelican Special No. 9 came up from the rear and took the lead from Smith, when the latter's car missed the turn but escaped unharmed. Finally Pelican No. 4 challenges Pelican No. 9 and overhauls him and won the race. The drivers are well pleased with the Wlul-Kse track and claim it to be the fastest dirt track in the state.

Officials in charge of the sports program estimated the attendance at yesterday's races at 1,500.
