

LOCALS

Merrill Visitors—Mr. and Mrs. M. Giacolina were in town shopping yesterday from their home in Merrill.

From Modoc Point—Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Sparks were county seat visitors yesterday from Modoc Point.

From Rocky Point—Mrs. Arthur Leavitt and Mrs. A. E. Hackenson were in town shopping yesterday from Rocky Point, where they are spending the grater part of the summer.

Klamath Shoppers—Mr. and Mrs. Schreiner and Mrs. H. J. Bennett were city shoppers yesterday from Spring lake district.

From Chiloquin—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stout were business visitors here yesterday from their fish hatchery above Chiloquin.

In Friday—Mrs. Jack Almeter was down from her home at Chiloquin Friday, on business.

Returns To City—Miss Muriel Moore has returned home from a week's vacation at Lake of the Woods.

Ashland Visitors—Mrs. John Enders and Mrs. Henry Enders of Ashland are visiting friends and relatives in this city.

To Lake O' Woods—Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bradford and daughter left for the Lake of the Woods yesterday, where they will spend the next few days.

Return From North—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Avery returned from Portland and Corvallis, where they have been spending the past week.

From Poe Valley—Mr. and Mrs. Elsie Roberts and Elmer Moore were in town yesterday shopping, from their home in Poe Valley.

Visits Here—Miss Evelyn Applegate was a visitor in this city from Brookside ranch in Swan Lake.

Merrill Visitor—Mrs. J. R. Dixon and son, Wilford, of Merrill, were in the county seat yesterday afternoon, shopping with local merchants.

From Modoc Point—Mr. and Mrs. Dan Crump and small son drove in from Modoc Point last night and spent a few hours shopping and attending to business.

In Shopping—Mrs. C. R. Kiger was in town shopping from her home near Stuckel bridge.

From Chiloquin—Mrs. L. P. Montgomery is in town from her home in Chiloquin to visit her son Brady, who is undergoing an operation at one of the local hospitals.

Rancher In—Fred McKendree, Merrill rancher, was transacting business at the county seat Friday.

Averys In Klamath—Mr. and Mrs. Chester Avery were shopping with local merchants yesterday from their home seven miles south of town.

From Malin—Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Pope and daughter of Malin were among the Saturday visitors and shoppers in Klamath Falls.

Leave for Valley—Mr. and Mrs. John D. Depuy left for Grants Pass today, where they will visit at their recently purchased ranch in the Applegate district.

In Shopping—H. Johns was a business visitor and shopper in Klamath Falls yesterday from his ranch near the Klamath county poor farm.

From the Fort—James Callahan and daughter were among the visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday visiting in the shops, from their home in the Fort Klamath district.

Shop Yesterday—Mr. and Mrs. Elias Obenchain and niece, Miss Marjism Martin were among the Saturday visitors in Klamath Falls to visit from their ranch on the Merrill road.

In Shopping—Mrs. J. A. Conner and two sons were among the out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday.

From Portland—Among the Portland visitors in the city this week-end are George Harris, Alex M. Page, Norman W. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Chapin.

Tourists—Among the tourists in Klamath Falls from San Francisco is a group who arrived last night to spend the week-end in this city. Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Morris, Mrs. I. Wise and Miss I. Wise, complete the party.

From Bend—Dean Hollinshead, a frequent visitor in Klamath Falls is here to spend the week-end from his home in Bend.

Dunsuir Visitors—Visitors in Klamath Falls from Dunsuir include J. H. Hattan, A. F. Powers, also of that city, in Klamath Falls for several days.

From Medford—Valley visitors in Klamath Falls includes C. A. Nutter, who is here for the week-end from Medford.

Chiloquin Visitor—Among the week-end visitors at the Arcade is F. L. Jones, a frequent visitor in the city from Chiloquin.

Week-End Visitors—Guests in Klamath Falls for the week-end include C. Booth of Weed, and Tom Tagin of Mt. Hebron, who are here for a few days' visit.

Lumber Man Here—J. J. Steiger, prominent lumberman, is in the city from Chiloquin, to spend the week-end on business.

At the Hall—Earl J. Wood of Portland, with the Warren Construction company, is stopping for the week-end at the Hall hotel.

With Salvation Army—Major and Mrs. J. T. Winterbottom, of the Salvation Army, are in the city for the week-end in the interests of their work.

From Sprague River—Among the visitors in the city for the remainder of the week is J. M. Birdsell of Sprague River.

From Paunina—Theo. Thompson of Skookum, rechristened Paunina, is in the city for the remainder of the week to visit and transact business.

Enjoy Trip—Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Playbee, of the McCarthy apartments, left Saturday night for Diamond Lake, where they will spend the day fishing.

To Crater Lake—Among the cars to leave early this morning for Crater lake, is that of E. S. Veatch, who will be accompanied by his daughter, Miss Esther Veatch, Miss Jean Perry and Miss Lois Bynon.

Returns Friday—James Manning, son of Horace Manning, has arrived in the city to spend the remainder of his summer vacation with his father. Manning is a student of the University of Oregon.

To Visit Here—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Poole will enjoy a visit over the Fourth of July with Mrs. Poole's daughter, Miss Eleanor Torrey, who has spent the past winter in San Francisco.

From Merrill—Melvin Meyer was among the numerous Klamath Falls visitors in the city Saturday from his home in the Merrill district.

From Midland Road—Visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday included Bryon Williams from the Williams ranch on the Midland road.

Visits in City—F. H. McCormick, rancher of the upper Klamath lake district, was a business visitor in Klamath Falls yesterday.

Brother Visits—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Amicke are enjoying a visit from Amicke's brother, David R. Jacobs, rancher of Nipipwin, Sask., Canada, who is in the city for a fortnight, on his return to his home from San Francisco. Mr. Jacobs has spent the major portion of his life in Alaska.

From Olene—Jesse McFall of Olene, was a business visitor in Klamath Falls on Saturday, shopping and visiting as well.

In Saturday—Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Short, ranchers of the Merrill road district, were among the many Saturday visitors to spend the day in Klamath Falls.

From Merrill—Visitors in the city from the Merrill road include Theodore M. Case of that section of the county. Case visited with friends and transacted business.

From Lake—Mrs. J. H. Barnes of Spring Lake was among the many out of town visitors in Klamath Falls this week-end.

To Ashland—Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Short passed through Klamath Falls yesterday from their ranch in Klamath county, enroute to Ashland, where they met their children who were returning with the Klamath county boys and girls who have spent the past two weeks studying in Corvallis.

Dalton In—W. C. Dalton, prominent Klamath stockman, was among those to attend the cattle meeting in Klamath Falls yesterday, from his ranch in the Malin district.

Visits Sister—Mrs. O. E. Bucholz and children, all residents of Oregon City, are in Klamath Falls visiting with Mrs. Bucholz' sister, Mrs. Clifton Dunnington. They plan to remain in Klamath Falls for a month.

Leave for Portland—Mrs. John Dunnington, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Margaret Dunnington, left yesterday for Portland, where she will visit for some time.

Ships Sheep—Rex Bard shipped a carload of pure-bred sheep to Durham, California, yesterday.

From the Agency—Miss Loretta Porter of Klamath Agency was among the business visitors in the city yesterday.

Opens Store—Miss Ida Mochattaz of Klamath Falls has opened a delicatessen and women's exchange in the office rooms of the Premium dairy on Fourth street, the opening to be made formally on Monday. Miss Mochattaz will handle a complete line of tourists' luncheon goods as well as a line of fine imported foodstuffs.

To Visit Here—Orville Pellett is expected to arrive in Klamath Falls Monday to spend the summer vacation with his father, F. E. Pellett, of 1311 Crescent avenue. Mr. Pellett will arrive from Oakland, where he has been for the past winter.

Registration—Twenty-five cars registered at the chamber of commerce Saturday, making the largest registration day with the exception of Monday, which includes Sunday as well, since the opening of the registration bureau. All but four of the cars hailed from California, the others coming into the city from Montana, Colorado, Washington and New York.

From Ranch—D. E. Alexander of Rock Creek ranch, was among the many cattlemen interested in the work of the orderly marketing system as expounded yesterday in the chamber of commerce by California men.

TOURIST HOTEL
FORT KLAMATH
AUTO CAMP
 Community Kitchen and Dining Room
 Hotel Rooms if Desired
Rates 50c per Day

The Choice of Good Taste!
Purity Ice Cream

There can be only one choice, a single dish that never fails to cool and revive, that always refreshes and nourishes.

That's Purity Ice Cream

Its wholesome and health-giving crystals of Arctic delight always rout fatigue and heat.

Order by Brick or Bulk

CITY CREAMERY
 202 Main St. Phone 381-J
 New, modern plant on Spring St.

WE WISH TO Announce
 THE
OPENING OF
Moe's
BALCONY BEAUTY SHOPPE

Monday, June 29th
 AT 9 A. M.

Cool and inviting is this beauty Shoppe. Gentle breezes waft a refreshing welcome to you. Here in this inviting spot there is always delightful freedom from the glare of an intense sun.

Here Madame Panario and Miss Louise Hoesele will care for your marcelling and beauty needs with efficiency. Drop in for a half hour relaxation before going on with half hour's relaxation before going on with

Moe's
 THE WOMAN'S STORE

Frank & King's Comedians
 in
The Big White Tent
 Seventh and Pine Streets
 Sunday and Monday
 The Rural Comedy Drama
"WHEN DREAMS COME TRUE"
 Prices 25c and 50 c. Jazz Orchestra
 Vaudeville Between Acts

One Week's Notice!

BECAUSE WE ARE PATRIOTIC AMERICANS

This Store
WILL BE CLOSED
 All Day
Saturday, July 4

Houston & Phelps
 8th and Main Sts. Phone 421