

LOCALS

Visiting Here—Among the shoppers in the city yesterday was J. A. Linman who makes his home in Shippington.

Visiting Father—Mrs. J. J. Sullivan and Miss Etta Hall of Fresno, arrived in the city Tuesday evening to spend the larger portion of the summer with their father, Ed Hall. Miss Hall may remain during the winter to attend school in Klamath Falls.

From Olene—J. E. Newham, resident of the Olene road, was among the early part of the week visitors in the city transacting business.

From Merrill—Visitors in Klamath Falls from Merrill district include Chester Avery, rancher of that section, who was a business visitor here the early part of the week.

Buy Supplies—Visitors in Klamath Falls included Rev. Bowman who spent Tuesday in the city purchasing supplies for the camp meeting now in progress in Beatty.

To Enjoy Fourth—Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Phelps are making plans for a Fourth of July vacation to be spent fishing in Diamond lake or one of the many attractive Klamath county streams.

Resigns Position—Miss Maris Berger who has been employed with the U. S. reclamation service has resigned her position and plans to leave for Hillsboro where she will spend a month visiting with her parents, of that city. Miss Berger will accept a position in Portland the remainder of the summer. Miss Kathryn Hamilton, of Tacoma, Wash., has arrived in the city and will take Miss Berger's position.

Newell Returns—Herbert D. Newell returned yesterday afternoon from a business trip to Bend and points between Klamath Falls and Bend where he spent some time interested in his work. Newell is project manager of the U. S. reclamation service.

Rancher In—Among the ranchers who visited at the Klamath county courthouse was Earl Brown, from the Bonanza section where he conducts a ranch.

Report Made—The annual report of the financial standing of the Klamath county schools was being compiled yesterday in the offices of the County School Superintendent Fred Peterson. The work was being done by Bess Vera O'Field, secretary. The annual school report will be made by Peterson in September to the state.

Returns To City—Mrs. L. A. Willets has returned to Klamath Falls after enjoying a week's visit at the home of her mother in Talent. Mrs. Willets arrived in the city Tuesday afternoon. She resides at 505 Klamath avenue.

From Modoc Point—Mrs. William Roark, accompanied by her children was among the visitors in the city yesterday from Modoc Point.

From Pine Grove—Mr. and Mrs. John Shepard of Pine Grove were among the visitors in the city yesterday, transacting business from their ranch.

Foreman In—E. M. Hammond of Merrill, foreman of the grand jury, was among the business visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday.

From Keno—Among the many out of town visitors in the city yesterday were: Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Kerns from their ranch on the Keno road.

In City—Mrs. T. A. Blake was among the Klamath Falls visitors yesterday, transacting business and shopping. Mrs. Blake makes her home in the Merrill district.

Rancher In—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Adams, prominent ranchers of the Olene section were Klamath Falls visitors on Wednesday afternoon.

From Olene—Visitors in Klamath Falls include a number of shoppers who are preparing for the holidays. Mrs. Hiram Roberts of Olene was among the guests who were noticed on the streets.

In Wednesday—C. J. "Champ" McCollum, road overseer of the Worden district was among the many Klamath Falls visitors in the city yesterday from his farm in the Worden section.

Merrill Visitors—Among those residents of Klamath county who enjoyed a visit in Klamath Falls on Wednesday were: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hammond and family of the Merrill section who spent the day with friends and shopping.

From The Fort—Among the visitors to spend the remainder of the week in the city enjoying the Fourth of July holidays are: Mr. and Mrs. Seth Dixon from their ranch in the Fort Klamath country. Mr. Dixon is interested in the rodeo and has contributed to its success.

At The Fort—Ross Finley and Arlet Edsall spent Monday night at Fort Klamath, where they interviewed Miss Lorena Trickey in regard to her participation in the Klamath rodeo. Finley remained at the Fort at the Seth Dixon ranch, expecting to bring to Klamath Falls horses for the round-up.

To San Francisco—C. R. Coseboom left the early part of the week for San Francisco, where he will join his wife and family, to return with them after the Fourth of July holidays.

Bly Visitor—J. M. Parker is spending the week-end in Klamath Falls from his home in Bly, enjoying the Klamath rodeo and other features of the week.

From the East—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Walton are anticipating a visit from Mr. Walton's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Baker, residents of Alma, Michigan. They will remain for some time visiting the scenic spots of Klamath county.

Return From Trip—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Robertson returned the early part of the week from their "gypsy tour" which they have enjoyed for the past month. They visited with friends in Portland for some time, followed the road to Seaside and down into the valley, stopping at Roseburg. They still call Klamath Falls "home."

From Fort—J. R. Sisemore of Fort Klamath is in the city for the remainder of the week, in order to take part in the Klamath rodeo. Sisemore is a prominent rancher of the Fort Klamath country.

Visiting Here—Charlie Duncan, Merrill visitor, is in the city for some time, expecting to remain in Klamath Falls until the close of the rodeo. While here Duncan is making the Hall hotel his stopping place.

Lumberman Here—Another visitor in the city to enjoy the rodeo for the remainder of the week is J. J. Steiger, who with his son, is in the city from Chiloquin, where they make their home. Steiger is a prominent lumberman of that section.

Jolly Here—Oscar Jolly of Mt. Hebron is in Klamath Falls for the Klamath rodeo.

From Bly—Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Cross and daughter Mattie Jane, of Bly, are in for the remainder of the week, to enjoy the rodeo. Cross is one of the directors of the association.

Madame Panario's modern beauty methods improve on nature. Moe's Beauty Shoppe. J30—Jy7

W. P. MYERS
LAWYER
205 Odd Fellows Bldg.,
Klamath Falls

Tourists—Visitors in the city, enroute to northern points, are Mr. and Mrs. Thaidus Rohnerts, Dot Rohnerts, Fred Rohnerts of Hollister, Calif., and Don Barnard of San Francisco. The party arrived last night from the south in time to enjoy the western show and round-up.

Eugene Visitor—A visitor in Klamath Falls from the valley is Don J. McKinnon, resident of Eugene, who is making a pleasure and business trip to the city.

From Portland—Among the visitors from the rose city in Klamath Falls are Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Casler and John Peterson and Miss Alice Benson. The party arrived last night, expecting to remain over the week-end for the western show.

To See Rodeo—Mrs. J. N. Givan, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Hazel Peters, arrived in Klamath Falls yesterday from their home in Bly, to enjoy the Klamath rodeo, in which they are interested.

From Algoma—L. B. Kimble of Algoma was among the many out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday transacting business.

Visitor Here—Among the many out of town visitors in the city yesterday was Nels Nelson, resident of Algoma, who transacted business in the city.

From Merrill—Among the out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday was Mrs. Ethel Juliette of the Merrill section who spent the day in local shops.

From Merrill—Miss Ruth Newton was a shopping visitor in the city yesterday with friends from her home in Merrill.

Enjoy Swim—A large number of young men and women enjoyed a swim and picnic on the Upper Klamath lake last night, motoring out shortly after 5 o'clock and to the shores of the lake.

From Bonanza—Gilbert Harrison of Bonanza was among the many visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday to transact necessary business of the first of the month.

From Merrill—N. E. Woodhouse, well known "bee man" of Merrill was among the visitors in the city yesterday, transacting business and visiting.

From Lakeview—Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Gunther and Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Chandler, residents of Lakeview were visitors in the city the early part of the week at the home of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ahlstrom. Mr. Gunther is a prominent business man of Lakeview where he is interested in saddlery. Mr. Chandler is a well known sheepman and land owner of that section.

Bobleg hair looks its best with Madame Panario's marcel and bob curl. J30—Jy7

KODAK FINISHING
8 Hour Service
The Peasley's
Opposite Court House

This Market Will Close From

1 to 5 p. m. July 2-3-4.

SINCLAIR MARKET

Phone 793.

1126 Main St.

CLOSED

From 1 to 5 P. M.

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

Closed All Day Saturday

CLAUD H. DAVIS, FURNITURE

"The House of Quality"

THURSDAY

AND

FRIDAY

OPEN ALL DAY

REGULAR DELIVERY SERVICE

New Items Thursday Morning:

GREEN CORN

FRESH BLACK FIGS

Open Saturday Except 1 to 5 p. m.

No Delivery Service Saturday

Hurry Cash Grocery

576—Phone for Food—It's the

Better Way

Frank & King's Comedians

in

The Big White Tent

Seventh and Pine Streets

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday

The Western Comedy Drama

"LET 'ER BUCK"

Prices 25c and 50 c.

Jazz Orchestra

Vaudeville Between Acts

Repair Work

Tourists and Rodeo Visitors,

Your watches will be repaired in a minimum of time, carrying the guarantee of a new watch

We will close from 1 to 5 p. m for the three days of the Rodeo

George L. Metz, Jeweler
622 Main Street

Big Sale Still Breaking Records

SHOP IN THE MORNING!

Store Closed During Rodeo Days
From 1 p.m. to 5 p. m.

Let's Go

Houston & Jester
515 Main Street

IN HONOR OF OUR NATION'S BIRTHDAY

This store will be closed all day
Saturday, July 4.

Regular business hours today and Friday.

BEN P. LEWIS GROCERY

"The Old Reliable Coffee House"

223 So. Sixth St.

Phone 355

Shop In The Morning

Take a Kodak on Your Trip

STORE CLOSED

From 1 to 5 p. m. During the Rodeo

Underwood's Pharmacy

KLAMATH FALLS OREGON

WHERE PARTICULAR PEOPLE BUY THEIR DRUGS

PURITY

ACCURACY