MANCHO VILLA MEET M'LARNEN

OAKLAND, July 3.—In Oakland's first open air fight show the California legalized boxing club, meets Jimmy McLarnen, the world's flyweight champion, at 122 pounds, over the round route Saturday.

Indications Friday were that 15-10 would see the bout. Villa is a favorite, with the betting set in his favor at 2 and 3 to 1.

McLarnen, the class of the coast his weight, will have an advantage of 10 or 11 pounds. Villa's is not being at stake. The last of the "Belted Spider" was lost Bud Taylor of Terre Haute, who came through with a strong jab to take a decision.

It is Villa's first match since his turn from the Philippines.

BURNS TO DEATH

PORTLAND, July 3.—A little child named blue-eyed baby was six years old and as burned to death in a fire in a ward of the Albermarle nursery late Friday afternoon, the wind having fanned flame from a group burner near the bed to overhanging corner of the white wool blanket.

A circulation covering the city of Klamath Falls and the county of Klamath—that's the Klamath News.

A place where all the people have a right to express themselves in the news—that's The Klamath
