THE ANXIOUS MURPHY AGAIN

The Little New Orleans batsman last night that if he can get up with the commission, he will tend strictly to the work of training and give the best that he is capable of. "All I ask is about ten days or two weeks to get back in condition. It gives that opportunity I believe I can do better in a return match with Ritchie.

He stated last night that he did not want to meet Ritchie, or any other man, but the commission said that if he can get up with the commission, he will tend strictly to the work of training and give the best that he is capable of.

"If the commission has any other man that they want me to meet, I will sign an agreement with whoever they pick." As the fans filed out of the hall Saturday night there was a unanimous feeling among them that they had seen a real fight, and one of the best supporters of the game.

Correct Candling Of Eggs Will Be Shown

Correct candling of eggs and the advantages of using a candling machine will be another interesting industrial exhibit at the county fair. T. N. Case, the veteran poultryman of the Altamont district will demonstrate at the county fair the ease with which a home-made candling machine may be constructed on any poultry farm and used to large commercial advantage and saving. Mr. Case will have charge of the poultry products department at the fair this year. This is also a new division and one that will intrigue the average rancher and his wife who have a few more eggs than are required for the farm table and wish to market them in town to the best advantage.

POLA NEGRI SORRY SHE CAUSED TROUBLE

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., July 7.—(United News)—Pola Negri, screen star, is very sorry she owes Uncle Sam $57,000 for her recent carelessness in not declaring a ring and bracelet on her return from Europe; but she is sorrier still that she caused him so much trouble. "While I have been advised that I have the right to appeal," she said Tuesday, "I certainly have no such intention. I shall remit the money to Washington at once.
