HILOQUIN

W. C. Mathison, local collector, left for Portland ten days ago. He will visit several places during his trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis of Trout creek were spending the Fourth of July in Sprague River.

Mr. George and Durbin Cook spent the Fourth in Klamath Falls.

Rev. Samuel Clinton made a trip to Klamath Falls Saturday, returning the same day.

The mill started full blast Monday after a short recess for the Fourth.

W. C. Mathison, the general manager of the Campbell Lumber Co. spent the week-end in Klamath Falls, returning Monday.

The people of Sprague River celebrated the nation's birthday by having a picnic.

Doc Hines has started building his new garage and battery station. Sprague River welcomes such institutions.

Mr. Viaria, one of our best ranchers left Friday for his home at Hildebrand. Mr. Viaria has a ranch at that place also.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivey C. Clark made a business trip to the county seat Friday of last week, returning the same day.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hood spent the week-end at Klamath Falls, returning the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Scobbin spent the Fourth at Beatty attending the camp meeting at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Pankey have the honor of having as their guest Mr. and Mrs. Potter from California.

Quite a number from here attended the camp meeting at Beatty over Sunday, and report a good meeting in progress at that place.

Rev. and Mrs. Call of Canyonville are in charge, and they are very able ministers. It seems it is a wonderful way to celebrate our nation's birthday.

It seems like the Sprague River will have the services at Sprague River, both morning and evening on next Sunday. The Indians tell us that the Peffleys are the best missionaries they ever had. The Peffleys now live in San Pedro, Calif.

Actor Shot By Jealous Wife While Attending Broadway Dinner Party

NEW YORK, July 8.—Allan Davis a member of the cast of "White Cargo," now playing a long run on Broadway was shot and seriously wounded Tuesday night when his wife, a former member a cast of the musical show "Vanities" broke in upon a dinner party and, according to those present, fired three bullets at him.

The cause of the shooting is a mystery to the police, who are holding Mrs. Davis, known to Broadway as Edith Parker, pending the outcome of an emergency operation which was performed Tuesday night.
