

LOCALS

Leave for Camp—El Johnson and Jack Tracy left Klamath Falls yesterday for the Bly district, where they will establish a camp for the purpose of caring for supplies for the crew which will be put to work in the near future. The right-of-way on the highway in that section will be cleared for five or six miles by the crew, which is expected to leave Monday.

Smith Improves—Willard Smith, who submitted to an operation for the removal of his appendix late Thursday night, is reported as highly improved by Mrs. Smith yesterday. Smith has been ill for the past three weeks, but definite diagnosis of the case refused to reveal such symptoms for which he was operated.

From Wocus Marsh—Mrs. P. E. Hinkley, sister of Mrs. Leah Smith, visited in Klamath Falls yesterday from her home in the Wocus Marsh district.

Enjoy Swim—Miss Ferne Hanks, Miss Kathleen Malloy, Miss Ruth Newton and Miss Miriam Wortley and Walter Short and Blair Malloy formed a party of six who enjoyed a swimming party at Wul-Kee on the lake, Thursday night. A picnic supper was also enjoyed during the evening after the swim.

Party At Lake—Among the interesting swimming parties of the week was one enjoyed by a group from Klamath Falls. Guests were Mrs. Dorothy Weaver and daughter, Miss Leah Weaver, Mrs. Paul Dalton, Miss Elma Jensen, Martin Adams and Ramon Graves. Mrs. Weaver and Miss Weaver are in Klamath Falls for the remainder of the summer to visit at the home of Mrs. J. R. Dixon. Their home is in Salt Lake City.

Of Merrill—Miss Ruth Newton, who has been in Klamath Falls for the past week from her home in Merrill, returning from a visit in Ashland, left for her home in the valley last night in company with her mother, Mrs. Alma Newton. Mrs. Newton spent Friday in Klamath Falls enjoying a short shopping trip.

Entertains—Miss Ruth Lindsey entertained informally with a dinner on Thursday evening. Covers were laid for Stella Seter, Katherine Doty, Inez Jenkins, Ruth Lindsey, Harold Cummings, Oscar Dance, Harold von Bergen, Al Beekler.

Hearing Today—The habeas corpus hearing of Robert Brown, held in jail for over two months on a charge of passing worthless checks, will be held in justice court today. The hearing was continued from yesterday.

Hogue Released—Pat Hogue, arrested by county officers for having whiskey in his possession, was released on bonds by justice court yesterday.

For Corvallis—Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Sexton and their small daughter left yesterday for Corvallis, where Mr. Sexton will confer with other county club leaders and with the state superintendent, H. C. Seymour.

Melons Served—The Pacific Fruit & Produce company favored the local "hello" girls of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company with several large watermelons during the hot spell.

To Lake—S. T. Brown, manager of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company of Petaluma, Calif., was in Klamath Falls yesterday on his way to Crater lake.

Business Visit—Frank Wilde of Weed, Calif. made a business trip to Klamath Falls Thursday and returned home yesterday.

In Wednesday—Mrs. Laura Moore was down from her summer resort, Point Comfort, Wednesday, attending to business interests here. Mrs. Moore reports fishing good, more than 100 people have partaken dinner at Point Comfort hotel the last two Sunday's.

In Klamath—Mrs. W. E. Lamm, of Modoc Point, accompanied by her niece Miss Geraldine Watt, of San Francisco spent yesterday afternoon in Klamath Falls.

From Merrill—Mrs. J. A. Brown and Mrs. W. H. Anderson were shopping in Klamath Falls yesterday from Merrill.

To Make Home—Mr. and Mrs. A. Epling, who are residents of Billings, Mont., arrived in Klamath Falls a few days ago to make their home.

From Merrill—Kenneth Colwell of Merrill, who has been employed with the surveyor's crew of the Modoc Northern, was among the many out of town visitors to spend Friday in Klamath Falls.

From The Fort—E. M. Leever was a business visitor here yesterday from Fort Klamath.

From Fort Klamath—Mrs. Ed Hoyt was in town yesterday from Fort Klamath on business.

From Eugene—Mr. and Mrs. Wayne M. Akers, residents of Eugene, are in the city for the remainder of the week visiting with George McIntyre. Akers is a recent graduate of the University of Oregon, where he was active in student affairs.

From Oakland—E. P. Gray and K. Gray, both residents of Oakland, are stopping at the White Pelican hotel for some time while in the city on business and pleasure.

From Odell—Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Miller are among the many tourists in the city from California cities. They make their home in Odell.

Aberdeen—John Shafer and J. F. Partlow of Aberdeen, were among the visitors to Klamath Falls to arrive in the city last night from the north.

Spokane Visitors—Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Hibbard of Spokane are in Klamath Falls for a brief visit with friends, and to transact business as well.

From Medford—G. E. Hengen and Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Boyce, all residents of Medford, are among the many visitors in the city this week from the valley cities. According to the visitors it is exceedingly hot there, and Klamath Falls is cool in comparison.

Tourists—Mrs. Catherine Cogswell Thorne, Mrs. Shafer, Mrs. Idaho Campbell and Miss Celeste Campbell form a part of four, all residents of Eugene, who are in the city for the remainder of the week to visit and enjoy the scenic spots of Klamath county. The trip was made south by motor.

Hotels Crowded—Bordering on the same condition that faced visitors during the Fourth of July holidays, all Klamath Falls hotels last night were practically filled to their utmost capacity, and few rooms could be found in the buildings. According to hotel men, the rush of business is caused by the tourist season, which will be at its height the middle of the month.

At the Arcade—J. Randolph Barr, who gave his residence as the Hop-ka building, is in the city for some time to transact business in Klamath Falls.

From Chiloquin—Charles W. King of Chiloquin and J. H. Hamilton, also a resident of that city this summer, were among the many out of town visitors who arrived in the city last night to spend the week-end.

To See Lake—Lillian Ness of Los Angeles, arrived in Klamath Falls last night for the remainder of the week, the main object of her visit to take the trip to Crater lake.

To Meet Relatives—Mr. and Mrs. George J. Walton will leave today for Ashland, where they will meet Mr. and Mrs. Lou Baker, relatives of St. Paul, who will spend the week-end at the Walton home before continuing south, where they will spend some time in Los Angeles. A trip has been planned on Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. Baker by Mr. and Mrs. Walton and their daughters, Miss Beatrice and Miss Katherine Walton. Baker is a prominent merchant of Alma, Michigan in the central section of the state.

From the Fort—Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hoyt, prominent ranchers of the Fort Klamath country, were among the visitors in the city yesterday, calling on friends and shopping in the city stores.

Collier Here—Ethan Collier, assistant market road engineer, is in Klamath county for the remainder of the week, interested in work of the department. Collier is a brother of Andrew Collier and Alfred Collier, of Klamath Falls. While in this section of the state, Collier conferred with members of the county court.

Marriage License—A marriage license was issued yesterday afternoon to Louis Glen Hoagland, 27, and Ethel Nelson, 22, both of Klamath Falls.

Returns North—G. D. Runnels of Portland, secretary of the Mungler Service Laundries, left Thursday for his home in the north, after spending a week in Klamath Falls in the interests of the new laundry which will be erected in Klamath Falls early this fall. George Manger, Jr. president and general manager of the chain of laundries, returned to Marshfield after laying plans for the new project.

From Portland—L. D. Welch, N. J. Welch and Everett Hubbard, all residents of Portland, are in the city for several days to visit and transact business.

Visit Here—Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Wiggins of Astoria are among the interesting visitors in the city this week to transact business and visit.

To Visit Here—Fred Walker, who has been interested in the Willow Valley dam with Dunn and Baker, will leave today for Mt. Shasta, where he will visit with friends and relatives. Walker expects to return Monday when he will be interested in further work with the company.

From Medford—Among the many out-of-town visitors in the city are Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Jones of Medford and Ernest Ellerd, also a resident of Medford.

Southern Visitors—Among the tourists in the city who plan to see a great amount of Klamath county's scenic beauty while in this section are Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Maguire, residents of San Francisco.

Tourists—Maude Smith and Erma Wiggins are among the many tourists in the city this week, both young women are residents of Portland from where they drove into Klamath Falls last night. They plan a trip to Crater lake before continuing south.

From Mt. Hebron—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burkhardt of Mt. Hebron are among the many out of town visitors stopping in the city for some time.

At The Hall—Tourists stopping at the Hall hotel for the remainder of the week include Mrs. William G. Meyer and son, William G. Meyer Jr., of Alturas and Mrs. C. L. Burton, also a resident of Alturas.

Portland—Among the many business visitors in Klamath Falls is J. S. Sammons of Portland who is stopping in the city for the remainder of the week.

For Portland—Harry Morey left for Portland yesterday afternoon where he will spend some time visiting with his mother and other relatives. Morey has been in Klamath Falls for a greater part of the summer, interested in installing a sprinkler system in the Ewauna Box company.

Ladies' over-size dresses at Bee Begin's Dress Shop, 129 So. 7th St. J11-12

Forbes Pure Drugs
Eighth at Main
Good Service—Good Drugs

Christian Church

Next Sunday will be the last in the basement. The pastor will preach in the morning and Rev. Rice will preach at the Union Services at the evening hour.

W. E. Bobbitt
Minister

DANCE

SATURDAY NIGHT AT WLUL-KSE

Klamath County's latest dance floor, with the best music, late from Portland, the best spot to bring your camp outfits and spend the week end. Excellent boating, bathing and fishing. On the California-Dalles Highway

In Friday—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stewart, well known residents of the Spring Lake country were among the many out of town visitors in the city, calling on friends and shopping in the Klamath Falls shops.

From The South—Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Rice of San Francisco are among the prominent visitors in the city this week. Mr. Rice is secretary of the California Cattle Growers' association and interested in the growth of the Klamath Falls interest in the matter of joining the orderly marketing system in regard to the disposition of cattle on the southern markets.

Purchase Home—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Foster, ranchers of the Swan lake country, have purchased the Silas Obenchain home on High street, and will occupy their new residence July 15. Mr. and Mrs. Foster plan to remain for the summer in the city.

To Diamond Lake—Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cook, Goldie Houston and Dean Houston are leaving Monday morning for Diamond lake, where they will spend a week fishing and enjoying the resort. The party plans to camp during their absence from the city. A number of friends are expected to join them later in the week.

Of Chiloquin—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bell of Chiloquin were among the prominent visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday. Mrs. Bell was a former teacher in the Klamath Falls schools having taught in the grades of the Mills Addition school last winter. She does not plan to teach this coming year.

From Medford—Walter E. Quisenberry, credited auditor for the California, Oregon Power company, is among the business visitors in the city during the past few days from his home in Medford.

Special $190.00

This medium size Mahogany fancy old-style straight piano on almost your own terms.

Another car of the new standard $295 enroute. Get your order in now and don't rob your children of a start in Music this vacation. Thirty months to pay.

Earl Shepherd Co.

Pianos, Radio, Victrolas
507 Main St. Phone 282

From Algoma—C. V. Schultz of Algoma was among the visitors seen on the Klamath Falls streets yesterday afternoon. Schultz transacted business while in the city.

In Thursday—Mrs. Mary Ward, resident of Myrtle Creek, was among the many out of town visitors in the city Thursday, visiting and transacting business. Mrs. Ward was interested in the affairs in the county court house while here.

36 Register—Cars from Georgia and Idaho, cars from Washington and Arizona continued to pour into Klamath Falls yesterday, calling at the office of the chamber of commerce in order to register their cars. Thirty six cars in all was recorded by Mrs. Leah M. Smith and Miss Margaret Johnston, who are in charge of the chamber during the absence of Lynn P. Sabin, secretary. According to Mrs. Smith, the majority of cars still come from California although Washington rates a number.

Returns Home—After an enjoyable visit for the past five weeks with friends and relatives in Fort Bragg, California, Mrs. J. S. Elliott was returned to Klamath Falls and is again at home to her many friends at 711 Pacific Terrace. Mrs. Elliott was joined in the south by Mr. Elliott who motored north with Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. F. L. Terwilliger and Mrs. F. U. Patrick who are visiting with former acquaintances in Klamath Falls for several weeks.

From The Coast—Tourists in the city are exceedingly numerous and among those from the town of Bandon-by-the-Sea are Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Prout, who arrived in Klamath Falls last night for a short visit throughout this section.

KODAK FINISHING
in at 9 out at 5 p. m.
The Peasley's
Opposite Court House

On Trip—George H. Y... also a resident of that city Klamath Falls for the remainder of the week, stealing off a... from their business affairs south to get the limit in... lakes and streams.

A big assortment of... dresses have just arrived... new shades. In sizes... Beg's Dress Shop... 7th St.

BARNHART
See our line of... dresses. They... good, $1.25

Whitaker's Groceteria

Headquarters For Good Goods and Low Prices.

Many of our customers have expressed amazement at our prices, say that in many instances our goods bear tags showing prices lower than those found in the big city stores. This is quite true and the explanation sound merchandising

OUR PRICES TODAY:

|                                                           |     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Extra Fancy Cantaloupes 4 for                             | 25c |
| No. 2 Tin, Florida Grape Fruit, regular 30c seller, today | 24c |
| 4 oz. Can Ehrman Olives                                   | 10c |
| 5 lbs. Berry Jam                                          | 80c |
| 2 Pkgs. Kingsford's Corn Starch for                       | 23c |
| 10 lbs. New Potatoes                                      | 3   |
| 10 Bars Fels-Naptha Soap                                  | 6   |
| Large Size Pkg. White K Washing Powder                    | 4   |
| 2 Small Bottles Grape Juice                               | 2   |

A Good Supply of Fruits and Vegetables

Serve Yourself and Save

Whitaker's Groceteria

407 Main St.

Quality Groceries and
The H. & P. Habit
Travel Hand in Hand
Fresh Fruits and Vegetables
In Season.

Houston and Phelps
Eighth at Main Sts.

Phone 42

Forbes Pure Drugs
Eighth at Main
Good Service—Good Drugs

HOTEL ASTOR
2nd & Hill
EVERY ROOM has PRIVATE TOILET
50% Baths New, Modern
Close to Shopping District and Theatres
FREE GARAGE Tariff from $1.50