German Crown Prince Writes Another Book

BERLIN, July 11.—"I Seek the Truth" is the title of the latest li-erary achievement of the ex-crown prince, who, however, still signs himself, "Wilhelm, crown prince." Radicals assert that not little Willie, but his literary "ghost" the Viennese author, Karl Renner, is doing the seeking. The book itself is considered a noteworthy achievement in saying nothing at great length, and in disproving the theory, recently advanced by the former American Ambassador James W.

Gerard, that the ex-kaiser's son has learned from adversity. z z z

MRS. JESSIE COOK
Electrical Cooking Specialist

Mrs. Scott has attained a wide reputation for her cakes and recipes. She will show during the week how easily any woman can equal the best cooks with the Westinghouse full-automatic electric range. These demonstrations are open and free to the public. All interested persons are invited to attend.

The Real Test of an Oven

Cake-baking affords a real test. With minimum time, work and patience it is possible to bake and cook deliciously with the Westinghouse Range.

In every State this marvelous helper is lightening women's burden to the extreme satisfaction of the hungry members of the whole family.

The Economy of Electric Cooking

Money is only one item in the Westinghouse economy program. Of far more importance is the time saved, strength conserved, health gained, appetites satisfied.

It's simple too. Mrs.
Scott is here to show you how you can do all these things. All without obligation.

Demonstrations will be continuous beginning Monday morning.
Visitors are invited to call at any time during the day. Thursday, a large oven dinner will be baked in the range automatically. This will include meat and several vegetables. Saturday will be MEN'S DAY, a day for husbands, fathers, and sons, to inspect this modern electrical servant and satisfy themselves as to its mechanical sturdiness and efficiency.
