Establishing its only branch office in the entire state, the Western Saving and Loan association, with home offices at Portland, opened local headquarters in the Underwood building, with James E. Smith as manager of the Klamath Falls district.

Smith is well known in this vicinity, as he handled the affairs of the company in this territory before the local office was established.

Smith declared the company guarantees to loan $2 for every dollar that is saved with the concern.

The company will launch a campaign for savings accounts within the next few days, and will gladly co-operate with anyone planning to build a home in Klamath Falls.

BROWN MUST AWAIT GRAND JURY DECISION

The writ of habeas corpus requested by Robert Brown, held in county jail for over two months on a charge of passing fraudulent checks, was dismissed by the circuit court yesterday afternoon, and Brown was remanded into the custody of the sheriff.

Brown sought the habeas corpus writ after the grand jury had adjourned without indicting him.

Quick Action

The Big Studebaker Six belonging to Claud Davis which was stolen two weeks ago and completely demolished by fire, was covered by insurance with Momyer & Momyer, and settlement for the loss was made with Davis last week.
