SOCIETY CLUBS - CHURCHES - LODGES

House parties continue the most attractive way to entertain and several hostesses this week have entertained with "porch parties" where tables at cards in the cool of porches where attractive awnings have been hung have been delightfully enjoyed.

Week-end in Klamath Falls appears decidedly dull as the majority of the society maids and matrons have forsaken the hot city for the resorts where they maintain summer homes and cottages on the lake shores. Crater lake is still holding a fascination all its own and the smaller creeks and lakes throughout the county are crowded to their utmost capacity when visitors from the city and the numerous tourists flock to the cool streams for picnic and perhaps a try at fishing.

One of the most popular resorts this season is Wul-Kae which has an interesting hold on many for picnics and early evening swims and picnics.

ENJOY SWIM AT WUL-KAE

A group of Klamath Falls residents spent Friday evening at Wul-Kae where they enjoyed a swim and picnic supper later in the evening. Those in the party included Elbert Stiles, Ruth Cofer, Beverley Thomas, Forrest Miller, Edan Dunbar, Joy Miller, Eva Miller, Gertrude Cofer.

PRETTY PARTY IN ENJOYED

Mrs. C. S. Curran entertained for a number of friends with a pretty party at the White Pelican hotel on Saturday afternoon. Following a daintily appointed luncheon, bridge was enjoyed during the remainder of the afternoon. Guests were: Mrs. Fred Schallock, Mrs. Twyla Ferguson, Mrs. Steve Sabo Jr., Mrs. Claude Darggett, Mrs. Howard Perrin, Mrs. W. E. Lamm, Mrs. William Duncan and Mrs. Curran the hostess.

MISS DIXON RETURNS

After spending the winter in Los Angeles where she has been teaching in the city schools, Miss Ruth Dixon has returned to Klamath Falls to enjoy the remainder of the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dixon. This week-end Mr. and Mrs. Dixon, Miss Dixon and several others are being entertained at the James Dixon ranch in Bly.

WEEK-END AT COTTAGE

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dalton are being entertained over the week-end at the Fred Houston summer home at Rocky Point. They left late Saturday night expecting to return to the city this evening.

LAKE OF THE WOODS VISITORS

Among the many visitors who plan to spend the week-end at Lake of the Woods, is Miss J. Jones, sister of Mrs. J. C. Brockenbrough, who will be entertained with Mr. and Mrs. Brockenbrough by Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Pike at the Pike summer home on the lake. Miss Jones recently returned from an enjoyable trip abroad.

ENTERTAINS ON WEDNESDAY

Mrs. H. D. Lloyd Stewart honored Mrs. F. U. Patrick and Mrs. L. F. Terwilliger of California, with one of the most attractive parties of the week on Wednesday afternoon at the Dr. Stewart home. Mrs. Patrick and Mrs. Terwilliger, who are former residents of Klamath Falls, enjoyed the meeting with their many friends. Mrs. W. R. Boyd assisted the hostess about the rooms which were made attractively beautiful with the addition of numerous bowls of flowers in pastel shades.

ANNUAL PICNIC ENJOYED THURSDAY

Members of the Tea Cup club enjoyed one of the most delightful picnics of the year at Fort Creek on Thursday when a number of the women and their families gathered at the Methodist church leaving early in the day to spend their time at the interesting spot.

August 29 has been set as the date for the next gathering of the group which will be held at the home of Mrs. Walter West on Riverside Drive. Husbands of the members are invited for this affair.

Those who enjoyed the trip to Fort Creek were: Mesdames F. H. Cofer, O. H. Barnstable, S. R. Berry, M. W. Gerhart, R. D. Bussard, H. E. Peltz, H. E. Momyer, T. D. Barnes, Preston Nims, Arthur Olson, F. M. Martin, B. J. Lestgard, H. E. Dobbins, Laurence Phelps.

MRS. PEIL HONORED

In honor of Mrs. A. W. Peil, a visitor in the city from Stockton, Calif., members of the Art and Needle Work club entertained at the home of Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg on Pine street, Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Peil is a charter member of the organization which is one of the oldest in the city.

Shasta daisies and sweet peas adorned the rooms in which the following guests called to honor Mrs. Peil: Mesdames J. P. Goelzer, R. H. Dunbar, H. S. Phillips, George A. Wirtz, R. S. Moore, K. G. Cummings, Allan Sloan, S. E. Martin, F. Hill Hunter, Charles Martin, Wilbur Jones, M. S. West, B. V. Kaykendahl, Jennie Hurn, Rose Soule, L. L. Traux, J. H. Carnahan and Miss Elizabeth McCurdy. Special guests for the afternoon included Mrs. Clara Elmer Shearer of Los Angeles, Calif.; Mrs. Laurence McHaffey of Oakland; Miss Ella McMillan, Mrs. C. Wattenburg, Mrs. James McClure and Mrs. O. L. Carter.

MRS. MOORE ENTERTAINS

Mrs. A. W. Peil of Stockton, Calif., who has been the inspiration for a number of social affairs during the past week, again was honored at the home of Mrs. Rufus Moore on Riverside Drive when she proved a charming hostess on Thursday afternoon. More than a score of guests, friends of the former resident called during the afternoon.

A young American who was bicycling in southern France was pushing his machine up a steep hill when he overtook a peasant with a donkey cart who was making but little progress, although the donkey was doing his best. The benevolent cyclist, putting his left hand against the back of the cart and guiding his machine with the other, pushed so hard that the donkey, taking fresh courage, pulled his load up to the top successfully. The summit reached, the peasant burst into thanks to his benefactor. "It was very good of you, indeed, monsieur," he protested. "I should never have got up the hill with only one donkey."
