WEED TEAM FAST IN DASHES, BUT PELICANS OUTSHINE IN HURDLES OVER FENCE-AFTER THE BALL

Pelicans Use One Pitcher And 3 "ould-Be's;" Morale Of Channati Reds are dickering for house Pitching Good Ball

The Pelicans lost an opportunity to go into a tie for first place in the S-K league Sunday and literally presented that same chance to Weed on a silver platter, when, after "Lefty" Mohler, the "ace" of the team, and that in more ways than one, was yanked out of the box in the fifth, while the Pelicans were trailing by one lone tally-the score being 4 to 3, and with every indication that Phillips, the Weed hurler, would be slaughtered. There were two sides to everything, except the score, which finally ended at 17 to 7 in favor of Weed.

a doubt, the strongest club on the Demitt, O'Rourke Wild pitch: Ar circuit, and by far the heaviest hit-noid 2, Mohler, Praist. ting aggregation, had nicked Mobier for only five hits up until the fifth "Lefty" had struck out six men and would have, no doubled that number by the ninth-and don't forget that Mohler has struck out from 10 to 15 men a game, against every team in the league, something no other S-K league pitcher has ac-complished. There wasn't a sign of weakening when he was yanked, after two errors and a walk, Mobiler's first of the game, filled the bases Someone had an idea that becau-Bert Arnold is a whale of a good first sacker he might shine in the box. The first man he pitched to, Gramer, smacked out a homer and three Weeds trotted in home ahead of him. The morals of the Pelicanfell like a barometer in a tornado Before the fans could recover from that slap in the face, Arneld had been hit for five safeties in twothirds of an inning. Instead of put-ting Mohler back in to save what little chances there were to win the game the fans wanted them to win above all others, Frenchy Bayness went in and took a whack at pitching. His pitching was provincial After a home run or two and numerous other varieties of hard-smitten balls, as well as Bayness' hitting one Weed player at bat, Pruitt was rushed. Pruitt made a fair showing, but that perhaps was due to the Weeds being almost petered out from running around the bags.

Mohler, who went into left field to finish out the game after being relieved of the hurling burden, played a remarkable game in the out-field. He demonstrated that balls Booth had miserably fumbled, could be caught with ease, and Mohler starred in the outfield just like he did in the box the first five innings

The game was without any rioting as was expected. The Weed players, when the score was close, argued every detail of the game, much to the disgust of the fans. After they piled up a big tend they had little to say. The Weed fans were rough and about the worst sperts ever to attend a beautiful and the server to a beautiful a beautiful and the sports ever to attend a local game.

The actions of a crew of section hand niggers would have been a compliment to theirs. The same, however, is not true of the other cities in the league,

All told the game was a sad disappointment that will take a couple of away-from-home wins to

Harry Greb's recent victory over the confident and much talked of Mickey Walker once more draws attention to this ring oddity.

The victory makes Greb's record just that much more interesting,

Here is a man who isn't rated very high as a fighter. He has been referred to as a freak ever since he entered the ring.

And yet he has mastered a list of opponents as imposing, if not more so, than many more brilliant men of the ring. Greb is a middleweight.
