

LOCALS

To Portland—Miss Jeannette Clarkson left yesterday for Portland, where she will meet her mother, Mrs. J. A. Clarkson of Clark, Louisiana, who is arriving in the west to be with her husband and daughter for the remainder of the summer. Clarkson is interested in the lumber market in Klamath Falls and also has extensive lumber holdings in other sections of the country.

From Grants Pass—J. T. Logan and son of Grants Pass are included in the out of town visitors in the city for the remainder of the week.

From The South—Included among the interesting tourists this week are Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Alexander and Miss Ada E. Alexander, residents of San Francisco who are interested in visiting Crater Lake before returning to their home in the south.

From Salem—Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fry Jr., are among the visiting tourists in Klamath Falls, interested in the Klamath country. Fry is a son of Dan Fry, well known Salem druggist.

Visiting Here—John Hansen, Henry Auerbach and Robert McKranth, all from Honolulu are giving Klamath Falls a run on the islands this week while bent on a tourists' visit.

From Topsy—Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Heup and children are among the visitors in the city from "Topsy" where Heup is interested in the lumber game going on in the neighboring town.

From Fort Bragg—Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Taylor and Miss Lena Lind form a party of Fort Bragg tourists who are in the city for a few days this week.

From Bend—C. J. Dugan, visitor in Klamath Falls from his home in Bend, is making one of his frequent business trips to this city.

From Medford—W. H. Pippy, resident of Medford, is in the city for the remainder of the week making one of the usual business trips to Klamath Falls from his home in the valley.

Tourists—Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Paulig, resident of Hollywood are among the scores of tourists that arrive in Klamath Falls daily to spend some time in seeing the Klamath country.

In Klamath—Mrs. Byron K. Teed has returned to Klamath Falls after spending the past week in Portland where she visited with friends and relatives.

With Service—Gilbert D. Brown of Lakeview, affiliated with the United States Forest Service, made a business trip to Klamath Falls last night expecting to remain for the balance of the week on business affairs.

Rancher In—Jim Stewart, rancher of the Merrill road was among the out of town visitors in the city yesterday to visit and transact business.

In County—John Loomis, visiting in the city from his home in Brownsville, Miss Ida B. Momyer and Charles Loomis, spent Wednesday afternoon in and around Klamath county interested in the developments since the last trip into those sections had been made.

From Bonanza—Mr. and Mrs. Jerry McCarthy, from the McCarthy ranch in the Bonanza section were among the visitors in the city from out of town yesterday.

Miss Fog—Miss Virginia Fog of the Hickerman hotel of Bonanza was among the visitors in the city yesterday to visit with her Klamath Falls friends and to transact business.

Sheepman In—Dennis Murphy, well known sheepman of the Bonanza country was among the out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday.

Expected—Mrs. Harriett Connors of Chicago, and Mrs. Oliver McPherson of Albany, Oregon, are expected to arrive in Klamath Falls from Turlock, Calif., where they have been visiting. While in the city they will be guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McPherson.

Obenchain In—Ellas Obenchain, who is spending the greater portion of his time on his Merrill ranch, was among the out of town visitors in the city yesterday.

Arrives in City—Joe Francis, brother of Sam Francis, has arrived in Klamath Falls from his home in Petaluma, where he conducts a splendid chicken ranch. This is the first visit with his brother in three years. Francis will remain in the city visiting for two months.

Doing Well—Mrs. Walter Zetman who submitted to a major operation for the removal of her appendix on Tuesday morning, is reported as doing well, which will please her numerous friends.

Go Fishing—Miss Ethel Pearson and Miss Hilda Hamaker spent the past week-end at Keno, where they enjoyed a fishing excursion among other things. According to an eye witness, when the girls went fishing "for to catch a whale" they were as excited when they pulled in a lone sucker as if it had been the prize salmon trout of the season.

Visiting Here—Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Morrison are enjoying a visit from Morrison's brother, W. E. Grisinger of Omaha, Neb. Grisinger, a retired capitalist, was among the eastern Elks to attend the national convention held last week in Portland. He is spending some time here with his brother, and is highly interested in the Klamath country. He plans to leave soon for the south, where he will visit with other relatives.

From Ranch—James Henley was among the out of town visitors in the city yesterday, from his ranch on the Merrill road.

Returns to Klamath—Ernest Nilschelm has returned to Klamath Falls from Portland, after spending the past week in the north, attending the Elks national convention.

To the Valley—Mr. and Mrs. Rodrick Smith and son made a business and pleasure trip to Medford and Ashland yesterday by motor.

From Vacation—Freeland Staley and his brother, Ray Staley have returned to the city after an enjoyable two weeks' visit spent in San Francisco and other southern cities. Freeland Staley is one of the yard bosses of the Pelican Bay Lumber company, and his brother is also affiliated with the concern.

In Ashland—Among the Klamath Falls residents in the valley yesterday was Jesse Bailey of the Little Brick cafe, who made a business trip to Ashland by motor.

To Lakeview—Linn NeSmith and John Boyle made a recent business trip to Lakeview. They declared the roads were in good condition.

From Merrill—Mrs. John Taylor was among the visitors in the city yesterday from Merrill. Mrs. Taylor came to meet her daughter, now a resident of Bend, who plans to visit for some time in Klamath county with her friends and parents.

To Brownsville—Miss Irene Loomis is planning to leave soon for Brownsville, where she will spend a portion of her summer's vacation visiting with friends and relatives.

In Wednesday—Among the many out of town visitors in the city Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. Percy Dixon, ranchers of the Merrill road, who spent the day visiting and transacting business.

From Keno—Mrs. Grant Nelson was among the visitors in the city yesterday, shopping and transacting business, from her home in Keno.

To Medford—Miss Evelyn Amicks and Miss Marjorie Perry left yesterday for Medford, where they plan to visit for a week, visiting with Miss Terry's sister.

Drunk Is Fined—Joe Wycoff was fined $25 in police court yesterday for drunkenness.

From Algoma—Mrs. J. P. Baker, a resident of Algoma, was in the city yesterday visiting with friends and transacting business.

To Visit Grandson—It was a home-coming for H. P. Thomas and his son, Lloyd Thomas, who was the grandchild of the two over the birth of an infant son to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Thomas. Nevertheless the elder Thomas comes in for his share of glory and made his first call last night, very much in style, upon his first grandchild, Charles Robert Thomas. Mrs. Thomas Sr. and Mrs. Thomas Jr. are also very much concerned.

From Bonanza—Tom Brown was among the Bonanza sleepers to spend Wednesday in the city on business and calling on friends.

Out of Town—Among the visitors in the city yesterday from outlying sections of the county were Ben Quislan, sheepman of the Bonanza district, who spent Wednesday visiting and transacting business.

Visiting—Miss Lucille Thackara of Dorris is in the city visiting with her sister, Miss Iren Thackara. Her father, J. E. Thackara is expected to be in the city today from his ranch in the south. Miss Thackara to return with him this evening.

On Business—Among the visitors in the city to transact business is "Red" Curlew of Sacramento and Joe Pettis of Redding, who are stopping at the White Pelican hotel during their stay in Klamath Falls.

To the South—Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Vore are leaving Sunday for San Francisco, where Mrs. Vore will enjoy another fortnight's musical training in the Masters School in San Francisco. Vore is planning to attend the annual Bohemian Jinks of the California Bohemian club of which he is a member.

From the South—Southern visitors in Klamath Falls include Joseph G. Ruhl and family, who are spending some time here on a touring trip.

From Weed—Among the visitors in the city this week are F. J. Wilde of Weed, who is a frequent visitor in Klamath Falls from northern California.

Ashland—Valley guests in Klamath Falls this week include C. N. Elgh, a resident of Ashland, who arrived in the city last night to spend some time in the county seat.

Returns Home—Hale Mattoon was among the Klamath Falls Elks to return this week from Portland, where he has been for the past week attending the convention.

From Portland—Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Stoutmyer, residents of Portland, are among the tourists in Klamath Falls this week, planning to enjoy a trip to Crater Lake before continuing on their vacation trip.

On Trip—Captain and Mrs. Earl C. Flegel of Schofield Barracks, Hawaii are in the city for some time interested in seeing the sights of Klamath county. They are also anticipating a visit to Crater Lake. Captain Flegel is well known throughout Oregon, where he has spent much of his life.

From Chiloquin—Among the out of town visitors in the city yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Benson of Chiloquin. Benson is in charge of the picture house in the reservation town.

From Regg—A visitor in Klamath Falls today is T. A. Johnson, a resident of Regg, California, who is stopping for a time in the city to transact business.

Among Tourists—Mr. and Mrs. G. McDonald and family, residents of Long Beach, California, are among the tourists from the south who are in this section of Oregon for several days.

Returns—Mrs. Bertha Coverstone, of Grants Pass, has returned to Klamath Falls from a recent business trip made to Portland, where she was interested in the business for the logging and loan company. Coverstone was among the Klamath Falls visitors, who are enjoying a bit of the vacation life in the city. She made the trip to the lake to compare the water level with their own.

From Bend—Out of town visitors in Klamath Falls this week include R. M. Jackson of Bend, who is in the city transacting business.

Abbie Green—Abbie Green, a resident of Venetian, is in the city, Jackson the Arcade hotel.

Everything for Preserving

BLACKBERRIES The Peddlers Loss
Your Gain, TODAY Only $1.50
 Do Not Miss This Chance
 We Will Even Deliver Them
PUBLIC MARKET
 126 No. 6th St. Hourly Delivery Phone 169

Klamath News

Classified Ads

BRING RESULTS

July 22, 1925.

Klamath News,
 Klamath Falls, Oregon.
 Gentlemen:

I placed a classified ad in your paper this morning for cherries for sale and wish to commend your paper on the results obtained from same. The cherries have all been sold in less than a half day.

Yours very truly,
 (Signed) DON J. ZUMWALT.

"Classified Advertising is a Morning Paper Proposition"

Cut Price

and

No Interest

Will sell more goods
 the best high pressure
 man any store can hit

We claim that we
 ing more phones
 than all other stores
 makes combined in
 ath. All latest styles
 upright and flat models cluded. We special quest you to visit
 music stores and get prices and terms.

Then For Comparison's Sake
"See Us Last"

Earl Shepherd Co.
 Pianos, Radio, Records.
 507 Main St. Phone

Frank & King's Comedies

in

The Big White Tent

Seventh and Pine Streets

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday

A Scream From Start To Finish

"YON YONSON"

Prices 25c and 50 c. Jazz Orchestra

Vaudeville Between Acts

SHORT ORDERS

at

ALL HOURS

The coffee we make here can't be beat.

EAT

At

Coffee Dan's

616 Klamath

HOWARD & GRIMES

AUTO STAGES

Three round trips daily between Klamath Falls, Ashland, Medford and Portland over the scenic Green Spring Mountain.

Leave Klamath Falls Daily:
 7:45 a.m., 1:00 p.m., 2:45 p.m.
 Leave Medford Daily:
 8:00 a.m., 10:35 a.m., 1:30 p.m.

Connection with stages at Medford to and from Portland, Coquille, Marshfield and Bend.

7:45 a.m. stage through to Portland and Marshfield in one day.

Klamath Falls office: 615 Main. Phone 433.
 Medford office: Nash Hotel. Phone 800.