

Editorial and Feature Page of Klamath News

THE KLAMATH NEWS

Owned and Published by
KLAMATH NEWS PUBLISHING COMPANY (Incorporated)
 Officers and Directors: Nate Otterbein, president; Byron H. Hurd vice-president; Ben H. Stevenson, secretary; Walter Stronach, treasurer.
 (Constituting the owners of the entire outstanding stock issue.)
 B. H. STEVENSON, Managing Editor
 J. W. McDONALD, Editor
 WALTER WEST, Business Manager

Entered at the Postoffice at Klamath Falls, Oregon, as second-class matter.

PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING EXCEPT MONDAY
 Office I. O. O. F. Building, 102-122 S. Fifth St.
 Telephone 877

No. 1

Address all communications and make all remittances payable to
THE KLAMATH NEWS PUBLISHING COMPANY

In ordering change of address, subscribers should always give the old as well as the new address

Subscription Rates—All Subscriptions Payable in Advance
 Delivered by Carrier, per month $ 50
 Delivered by Carrier, six months 2.50
 Delivered by Carrier, one year 5.00
 Outside Klamath County 5.00

FULL LEASED WIRE, UNITED NEWS AND UNITED PRESS
 (Longest in the World)

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY OF KLAMATH FALLS

"Let us have faith that right makes might, and that faith let us to the end dare to do our duty as we understand it"—Abraham Lincoln

SUPPORT THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Every citizen should support the Chamber of Commerce because it is active, alive and doing the things that go to make the home city a better place in which to live and make a living.

Cities grow through the leadership of its Chamber of Commerce. Its members set the standard of the aims and ambitions of the home city, and should have the whole hearted support of the entire community in carrying those plans to a successful conclusion. A live city is simply impossible without a live Chamber of Commerce.

Knockers who constantly hammer away at every project of the Chamber of Commerce should stop and think. They only hurt themselves.

Live citizens never side-step an unpleasant duty. They just step on, or step over knockers and go on their way.

REAL HONEST BOOSTERS ARE ALWAYS MEMBERS OF THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE. FOUR FLUSHERS ARE NOT.

BOOSTERS ARE THE FELLOWS WHO KNOW THE TRUTH WHEN THEY SEE IT, AND GET BUSY AND LET THE OTHER FELLOWS KNOW IT.

BOOSTERS MAKE PEOPLE WHO CAN DO THINGS GET OUT AND DO THEM.

BOOSTERS GET GOING AND KEEP GOING, AND THE REST OF THE PEOPLE USUALLY GO THE WAY THE BOOSTERS GO.

BOOSTERS REALIZE THAT EVERY DOLLAR INVESTED IN THE HOME CITY MEANS A NEW DOLLAR ENLISTED IN ITS SERVICE.

THE TAX-EXEMPT PROBLEM

It is stated that there are now thirteen thousand million dollars of municipal securities in our country that are totally exempt from taxation.

The statement that this enormous sum of money belongs only to wealthy people who seek to escape taxation is untrue—as millions of citizens not counted plutocrats in these securities. A large part of this $13,000,000,000 would never get upon tax rolls in any form, which is true of many other forms of capital savings.

The unfair part of the whole situation is, that being entirely exempt from taxation, the tax-exempts operate to penalize all other forms of securities and prevent money being used for industrial development.

The big investment in tax-exempts hampers railroad development, construction of public utilities and industrial growth—higher rates and prices must be charged, because of higher priced capital to operate with.

Life has few anxieties after the girls are married off, your hair definitely gone, and the fenders crumpled.

Why Not?

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

MENU HINT
Breakfast
 Oatmeal with Cream
 Boiled Eggs Toast
 Green Applesauce
 Coffee or Substitute
Luncheon
 Luncheon Salad
 Scalloped Potatoes
 Blackberry Jam
 Baking Powder Biscuits
 Milk Tea
Dinner
 One Dish Meal
 Lettuce Salad with Sliced Onions
 French Dressing
 Blackberry Pie Coffee

TODAY'S RECIPES
Green Applesauce—Wash green apples, cut up, with skins on and cook with a little water until tender. Strain through wire strainer, sweeten to taste.

Luncheon Salad—Soak for five minutes two tablespoons granulated gelatin and one cup cold water, add one and one-half cups boiling water, one-half cup lemon juice. When cold add one cup celery cut small, three tart apples, one-half cup nutmeats and one-half cup sugar. Turn into molds.

One-Meal Dish—Put half of ordinary meat loaf mixture in one end of buttered baking dish, then a layer of sliced tomatoes, then a layer of sliced green peppers, season with salt, pepper and butter, and cover with the remainder of meat loaf mixture. Put it down tightly all around so that the tomato juice will stay in. In the other end of baking dish place potatoes, cut in halves and seasoned. Put in one cup of water and bake until done.

Carrot Tops Garnish
 Green carrot tops make an unusually attractive garnish. They do not wilt as soon as do many of the other leaves and may be used many times when one does not have anything else.

Suggestions
 A hardware merchant who makes a point of keeping his ranges in nice condition for display purposes uses the following method. He takes a good grade of stove paste or dry polish. A portion of this is moistened in an old saucer with spirits of turpentine. A small quantity of black varnish is mixed with this and carefully blended. The stove is cleaned thoroughly and the mixture applied with a broad, flat paint brush.

This, if carefully put on, should last on a range for a season, with possibly a little touching up on the covers where greatest heat comes. The varnish, turpentine and stove blacking mixture may be kept in a small, covered can for this use. This will minimize the care necessary to give the stove, as the surface may be wiped off with a damp cloth. When using sour milk the degree of acidity is variable. So we will be rather safer when baking to follow this rule: Use one teaspoon of soda dissolved in a little warm water to each cupful or eight ounces of sour milk; also half a teaspoon of cream of tartar. This insures lightness and tenderness. Or, if we do not have the cream of tartar at hand, we can use a level teaspoon of baking powder.

Pieces of stale bread may be dried, put through the food chopper and used for breading, for making dressing, bread puddings, or anything of that kind. They may also be used for simple puddings by buttering the bread, cutting it in small squares and putting layers of buttered bread and berries or other fruit in a baking dish. Pour a custard over this and bake.

Painted walls are best for the kitchen, as in cold weather the steam arising on wash days dampens the paper much faster than it will dry, and so loosens and causes it to drop off.

THE BEST OF ADVICE

Does your life mean anything? William James said wherever a process of life communicates an eagerness to him who lives it, there the life becomes genuinely significant.

"Sometimes the eagerness is more knit up with the motor activities, sometimes with the perceptions, sometimes with the imagination, sometimes with reflective thought. But, wherever it is found, there is the zest, the tingle, the excitement of reality; and there is 'importance' in the only real and possitive sense in which importance ever anywhere can be."

We are all dominated by our "feelings."

It is well known that our judgments concerning the worth of things, big or little, depend on the FEELINGS the things arouse in us. Where we judge a thing to be precious in consequence of the idea we frame of it, this is only because the idea is itself associated already with a feeling.

Psychologists tell us that if we were radically feelingless, and if ideas were the only things our mind could entertain, we should lose all our likes and dislikes at a stroke, and be unable to point to any one situation or experience in life more valuable or significant than any others.

We are practical beings, each of us with limited functions and duties to perform, it seemed to William James.

"Each is bound to feel intensely the importance of his own duties and the significance of the situations these call forth."

"But this feeling is in each of us a vital secret, for sympathy with which we vainly look in others."

"The others are too much absorbed in their own vital secrets to take an interest in ours."

"Hence the stupidity and injustice of our opinions, so far as they deal with alien lives."

And hence the falsity of our judgments, so far as they presume to decide in an absolute way on the value of other persons' conditions or ideals.

Do not be too hasty or conclusive in your opinions of other men's motives. You cannot know all of their feelings.

DINNER STORIES

The late George Bellows once said at an artists' banquet in New York: "Our rich men pay millions for a few faded and dubious Rembrandts and Titians, and the finest native talent may starve for all they care."

"A Westerner of real genius said to me the other day:

"I got more than I expected for my nocturne, 'Palaces'."

"Why," said I, "I thought your landlord had taken it for rent."

"Yes," said the Westerner, "but he raised the rent."

William was thirsty for knowledge and interesting facts shone like jewels in his brain. "I read today," he said to Michael, "of the wonderful

HEART & HOME PROBLEMS

A widow tells her love story in this letter:

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a widow with two children whom I love devotedly and I want to do the right thing by them. But some time ago I met a man six years my senior, and he is just wonderful to me, also to the children. I am very fond of him. Really, I believe this is the first time I have ever known real love. I married when I was very young, and don't believe I knew the everlasting love for my first husband, even though I was very fond of him. This man has quite a little sum of money and a position that pays him $300 a month. But some how, even though he constantly tells me of his everlasting love for me, and always is planning for our future home, as I have never married him some how I don't know how to trust him. I am in an unusual way. I have a great fancy to see my father's home, and to see my flowers, has taken every one and I soon began to grow fond of him. Now I do believe he it worries me terribly why I believe it, he showers my little and never wants to taking them with ways made a big big I would like to know find out for me if he have no one to whom ask this favor of, is a very sad and wakened such as I have stated pany with a man for found he was married immediately cut his acquaintances. And much as I love the stop seeing him I know he was married and will, please kindly answer in me I will immediately name, address and for. My little girl and my boy is eight fire means more a thing in the world offered to educate me a wonderful me what to do, is thirty. TROUB progress made in aviation. Men can now do anything—absolutely anything—a bird can do?"

But Michael was tired of wonders—he was more matter of fact. "Is that so?" he answered. "Well, when you see an airman fast asleep, hanging onto a branch of a tree with one foot, I'll come around and have a look!"

A young woman in a crowded street car arose to give her seat to a gray-haired, sharp-faced woman who had entered, and as the latter seemed reluctant to take it the young woman said with a pleasant smile: "Age before beauty, you know."

"Thank you," was the sour reply: "but one would need glasses to see the beauty."

"Perhaps," the young woman rejoined quietly, "but none would be required to see the age."

Whereupon she resumed her seat.

Local Briefs

Denver—Visitors in Klamath Falls this week-end include Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Gardner and son, of Denver, Colorado.

To Crater Lake—Mr. and Mrs. Abe Barnes and Frank Andrews left yesterday morning for Crater Lake, where they enjoyed a day at the resort, returning late last evening.

From Glendale—Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hatch of Glendale, Calif., were among the visitors in the city, arriving last night to spend several days in the Klamath country.

Los Angeles—Southern visitors in Klamath Falls this week include Mr. and Mrs. Jack McGonigle of Los Angeles, who are listed among the tourists in this season's list. They are planning a trip to Crater Lake.

From Ranch—D. E. Alexander of the Rock Creek ranch, was among the visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday. Alexander is one of the big cattle owners in Klamath county.

Corning—Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Houghton of Corning, Calif., are among the week's visitors in Klamath Falls to visit and transact other affairs.

Hall Hotel—H. D. Wherland, a frequent business visitor with the Associated Oil company, is in the city for a short business visit, stopping at the Hall hotel.

Odel Lake—Visitors in Klamath Falls from Odel Lake include D. P. Roberts and O. F. Houghton, of that section of Oregon.

Fort Klamath—Visitors in Klamath Falls this week include several residents of Fort Klamath. Among those from the neighboring city include J. U. Utter and O. W. Engle, who arrived last night for a few days' visit.

Visiting Parents—Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hanna are visiting with Mrs. Hanna's parents for a week in Portland, motoring up the first of the week to spend their visit.

To Ashland—Among the Klamath Falls residents who have spent a portion of this week in Ashland were Luke Walker, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Addie Walker, and Miss Mildred Daily, who made the trip to the valley on Wednesday, returning the same day.

From Sisson—Among the visitors in the city this summer is Mrs. Katie Cohn, resident of Sisson, Calif., who arrived in Klamath Falls this week to spend some time visiting at the home of her son, Matt Cohn.

Returns—Miss Ada Flackus has returned to Klamath Falls from an interesting visit in Portland, where she has spent the past week on her vacation.

ture home, as I have never married him some how I don't know how to trust him. I am in an unusual way. I have a great fancy to see my father's home, and to see my flowers, has taken every one and I soon began to grow fond of him. Now I do believe he it worries me terribly why I believe it, he showers my little and never wants to taking them with ways made a big big I would like to know find out for me if he have no one to whom ask this favor of, is a very sad and wakened such as I have stated pany with a man for found he was married immediately cut his acquaintances. And much as I love the stop seeing him I know he was married and will, please kindly answer in me I will immediately name, address and for. My little girl and my boy is eight fire means more a thing in the world offered to educate me a wonderful me what to do, is thirty. TROUB

progress made in aviation. Men can now do anything—absolutely anything—a bird can do?"

But Michael was tired of wonders—he was more matter of fact. "Is that so?" he answered. "Well, when you see an airman fast asleep, hanging onto a branch of a tree with one foot, I'll come around and have a look!"

A young woman in a crowded street car arose to give her seat to a gray-haired, sharp-faced woman who had entered, and as the latter seemed reluctant to take it the young woman said with a pleasant smile: "Age before beauty, you know."

"Thank you," was the sour reply: "but one would need glasses to see the beauty."

"Perhaps," the young woman rejoined quietly, "but none would be required to see the age."

Whereupon she resumed her seat.

Children's Picture Cross Word

1. In the city this summer is Mrs. Katie Cohn, resident of Sisson, Calif., who arrived in Klamath Falls this week to spend some time visiting at the home of her son, Matt Cohn.

2. A word for a word.

3. A word for a word.

4. A word for a word.

5. A word for a word.

6. A word for a word.

7. A word for a word.

8. A word for a word.

9. A word for a word.

10. A word for a word.

11. A word for a word.

12. A word for a word.

13. A word for a word.

14. A word for a word.

15. A word for a word.

16. A word for a word.

17. A word for a word.

18. A word for a word.

19. A word for a word.

20. A word for a word.

21. A word for a word.

22. A word for a word.

23. A word for a word.

24. A word for a word.

25. A word for a word.

26. A word for a word.

27. A word for a word.

28. A word for a word.

29. A word for a word.

30. A word for a word.

31. A word for a word.

32. A word for a word.

33. A word for a word.

34. A word for a word.

35. A word for a word.

36. A word for a word.

37. A word for a word.

38. A word for a word.

39. A word for a word.

40. A word for a word.