

LOCALS

Ships Lettuce—One of the most successful of the lettuce ranchers in the county is Roy Nelson who conducts a ranch on the Keno road and who spent some time in the city yesterday on business. Nelson has 250 crates of lettuce ready to ship and during the past few weeks found a market in Medford for 50 crates. Thirty crates was used in Klamath Falls and merchants declare the Klamath crown lettuce has found its demand in the public need.

Return—Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Moe and their niece, Miss Lila Moe of Portland have returned from a week's visit on the coast where they spent their summer vacation in Marshfield, North Bend, Bandon, down the coast to Gold Beach and Crescent City.

Lettuce Rancher—Earl Geary, rancher of the Wocum valley country was among the visiting ranchers in Klamath Falls yesterday. Geary has had exceptionally good success with his lettuce crop and is enthusiastic with the manner in which it has been received on the markets.

From The Fort—Mrs. Gus Page was among the visitors in the city yesterday with friends and shopping from her home in the Fort Klamath district.

Langell Valley—Mrs. R. L. Hopkins was among the out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday from her home in Langell valley where the Hopkins ranch is located.

On Picnic—More than 30 members of the Moe's store staff and a number of friends and members of their families enjoyed a picnic last night at Wul-kse where the visitors swam during the early evening hours, ending with a huge picnic supper served cafeteria style.

Return To City—Mr. and Mrs. Chester DeLap have returned to Klamath Falls from Ashland where they attended the funeral of Robert Casey, Mrs. DeLap's father. Mrs. DeLap intends to return this week to the valley where her children are spending the summer.

Rancher In—J. R. Eliff, Malin rancher was among the visitors in the city to transact business Friday afternoon.

From The Fort—Among the business visitors in Klamath Falls Friday was S. E. Nicholson, rancher of the Fort Klamath country who spent the day transacting business in the Klamath county court house.

For Ashland—Mrs. A. E. Hensley left the latter part of the week for her former home in Ashland where she will spend several weeks visiting with friends and relatives before returning to Klamath Falls.

In Friday—Paul Clark was among the business visitors in the city yesterday from Pelican City where he has been making his home.

From Topsy—G. E. Richardson was among the business visitors in the city yesterday to transact necessary affairs in the court house. Richardson is a resident of Topsy.

From Chiloquin—Among the out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday was Riley A. Powers who resides in Chiloquin.

On Business—Michael Rueck, rancher of the Bonanza country, was among the recent out of town visitors in the city during the past few days.

Dehaven In—Robert Dehaven, rancher of the Bonanza country, was among the visitors to stop in the city during the past few days to transact business and other affairs.

The rest of this week all over white waitress aprons will be marked $1.50 at Bee Begin's Dress Shop, 125 So. 7th St. J24-25

Forbes Pure Drugs
Eighth at Main
Good Service—Good Drugs

All Night Dance
at
Dorris, California
TONIGHT!
Music by the Broadway Novelty
Orchestra

Swimming Party—The weekly swimming party of a number of the court house employees was enjoyed last night in the natatorium, the desire to swim in the lake being postponed until a warmer evening. Those in the group included: Mrs. Irma Dixon, Mrs. Margaret Wherland, Miss Vera Rowston, Mrs. Mary Wilson, Miss Cordelia Cantrall, Miss Gertrude Cofer, Mrs. Carlotta Clark, Miss Delila Hawkins and Mrs. Elda Beal.

Merrill—Among the visitors in the city yesterday from out of town was John Takacs, rancher of the Merrill district.

Malin—Roy Martin of Malin was among the visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday to transact business and visit with friends in the city.

Return—Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Rice have returned from the valley where they attended the annual meeting of the synod of the Presbyterian church. The residents arrived in Klamath Falls late Thursday night.

Gentry Fined—R. G. Gentry was fined $5 in police court yesterday for driving a truck up Main street.

Void License—M. D. O'Neill received a $5 fine from Judge Gaghagen yesterday for driving a car with a void license plate.

Jensen Released—Morris Jensen of Skookum paid a fine of $50 and costs for possessing liquor and was released from county jail. Jensen was arrested on July 19.

To Bonanza—Assistant District Attorney Vandenberg and Deputy Sheriff Lon Burke will go to Bonanza today to handle the prosecution in a case for assault and battery coming up for trial in Justice Hamaker's court.

Frequent Visitor—W. W. Fordney, frequent visitor in Klamath Falls, was among the out of town guests in the city, from his ranch in the Bonanza district. Fordney is a property owner in Klamath Falls, as well.

Rancher—W. S. Bechdel, one of the prominent ranchers of the Bonanza country, was among the visitors in Klamath Falls during the latter part of this week.

Merrill—W. S. Reynolds, Merrill rancher, was among the out of town visitors seen on the streets during the past few days to transact business and visit with friends.

From Ranch—Mrs. William Zumbum spent Thursday in Klamath Falls from the Zumbum ranch in the Merrill district.

McKendree In—One of the frequent business visitors in the city from out of town is Fred McKendree, who was in the city during the latter part of the week from his ranch in the Merrill district.

Keno—Grant Nelson, rancher of the Keno road, was among the business visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday.

Business Visitor—E. R. Young was in Klamath Falls during the past few days to transact business, from his home in Dorris.

Accepts Position—Robert Leonard, recently a resident of Sacramento, has accepted a position in the Golden Rule, where he will be affiliated during the future.

Swimming Party—Klamath Falls mermaids must have their swim, and if the weather proves cool, as it has during the past week, the natatorium is the place to go. A party of girls enjoyed a swim last night, those in the party were Jo Upp, Connie Crystal, Martha Upp, Kathryn Doty, Jackie Emmons and Maude Hood.

To Visit—Miss Kathryn Doty is anticipating a visit from Miss Louise Wentworth of South Bend, Wash., who is expected to arrive in Klamath Falls during the coming week.

Rancher In—Bill Tingley, prominent rancher of the Miller hill district, was among the visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday, to transact necessary business affairs.

Visiting—Glenn Vandenberg, a brother of David Vandenberg, deputy district attorney, is visiting in the city for the week, from his home in Delake, Oregon. Vandenberg arrived yesterday to visit in Klamath Falls.

On Business—Combining business and pleasure, Don Newberry, son of Mrs. Wilbur Jones, is in the city for a short visit from his home in Medford. Newberry was a former resident of Klamath Falls.

Bank Flooded—At least that is what Henry Haas thought yesterday morning, when a big drop of water fell on his head as he was busy handing out a couple of thousand through the bars of his cage in the First National bank. But the momentary leak was caused by the sudden thunder shower, and the bank employees are now safe and sound, and out of the rain.

From Kelso—Stanford Lord, assistant postmaster of Kelso, was in Klamath Falls yesterday transacting business with John A. McCall.

Correction—Members of the Friendship club will meet at the home of Mrs. R. A. Emmitt on Pine street, Friday, July 31.

From Lakeview—Among the visitors in the city yesterday from out of town was William Carey of Lakeview.

On Business—B. M. Adams was among the out of town visitors in the city yesterday from his home in Lakeview, to transact business and attend to other affairs in the county seat.

Dorris—Among the residents of Dorris, Calif., who were in Klamath Falls Friday afternoon, was D. C. Strong.

Visiting—S. S. McCollum was among the business visitors in the city during the latter part of the week to transact business, from his home in Dorris.

From The South—Klamath Falls enjoyed an especially interesting week with more tourists than ever before in the season. Miss Grace Worthen of Monrovia and Miss Wagneta River, also of Monrovia, accompanied by R. O. Worthen of Los Angeles form a party of three tourists from the south.

Forbes Pure Drugs
Eighth at Main
Good Service—Good Drugs

From The South—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Pecardo, accompanied by Mrs. May McCabe, all residents of Oakland, are among the groups of tourists arriving daily in the city from the south.

Pasadena—Among the tourists to arrive last night in Klamath Falls is W. H. Rothben, who, with J. M. Connell, are visitors in the city from their homes in Pasadena.

At the Pelican—Among the guests at the White Pelican hotel are J. A. Jensen and J. R. Quinn, visitors from their home in Benecia, California.

Burns Visitors—Klamath Falls guests in the city this week include Mrs. Julian Byrd, Evelyn Byrd, Gladys Byrd and Mrs. M. A. Briggs, all residents of the neighboring city of Burns.

Tourists—Among the eastern visitors in the city today, to enjoy a tour of this section of the coast are: R. S. Cawley of Princeton, New Jersey and Mary J. Browning, also a resident of New Jersey, claiming as her home town, Haddonfield.

From Portland—Russell Chase and S. C. Bruce are among the Portland visitors in the city this week combining business and pleasure. Bruce is a prominent realtor of the Rose City.

Oakland—Among the visitors to arrive in Klamath Falls last night were: Dr. Charles L. Coleman and his party, including Mrs. Lucia Coleman and Beale McKenzie.

Portland—Guests in Klamath Falls from the Rose City include a number of tourists as well as those interested in the more serious side of the work. Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Kreutzer and children, Catherine and John, form a party of four.

From The Valley—Visitors in the city for the remainder of the week include Mrs. James Logan and child, residents from their home in Grants Pass.

San Francisco—Southern visitors in the city for the week-end include Mr. and Mrs. Otto F. Eckhardt of San Francisco, who are making a short tour of this section of the coast.

From San Francisco—Southern guests in the city who have arrived for a day, then to continue their tour, includes Mr. and Mrs. William A. Hewitt, residents of San Francisco.

Oakland—A. W. Bell, a resident of Oakland, Calif. and W. F. Talmage, a resident of the neighboring city of Dunsmuir, are among the out of town arrivals in the city today.

From The South—L. Lausten and family arrived in Klamath Falls last night from the south to spend several days in the Klamath country to visit and enjoy the scenery. They make their home in San Francisco.

MURINE
For YOUR EYES
Night and Morning to keep them Clean, Clear and Healthy
Write for Free "Eye Care" or "Eye Beauty" Book
Murine Co., Dept. H. S., 9 E. Ohio St., Chicago

Kodak Finishing that pleases all is our specialty.
STINSON'S STUDIO
737 Main St.

Mr. Foresigh
"EYESIGHT IS THE GUARDIAN SENSE"
Restricted vision is the greatest handicap one can encounter. Eye examination by a competent optometrist is necessary at first sign of strain or failing vision.
DR. H. J. WINTERS
Eye Sight Specialist.
We grind our own glasses.
Klamath Falls, Ore.

From Oakland—Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Holmes are in the city for a short time to enjoy a trip away from their home in Oakland, Calif.

Ashland—Mrs. C. L. Silva, accompanied by Miss Margaret McDonough of Ashland are in the city to visit for the remainder of the week.

Tourists—Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Klamm of San Francisco are among the many visitors in the city, classed as tourists who are enjoying the scenery of Klamath county. Mr. and Mrs. Klamm arrived last night from the south.

business brought A. W. Moon, a resident of Ashland to Klamath Falls last night for a several days' visit.

Form Seattle—The ton car to be was from Seattle, Han, his wife and joying a trip country.

PIANO Anyone wishing of piano tuning and leaving their orders with Falls Music Room, 81 Klamath Falls.

Try Others First

We have been compelled to send telegram after telegram to the eastern factories for more Pianos and the reason is because we are frank when we ask you "to visit every other firm selling Pianos first, get their best prices, their terms and their sales talk."

Then see us last and you will appreciate why we are doing the big end of the Piano business in Klamath and have sold to pianos here to one by any other firm.

In Phonographs also get others' prices and we will show you where we save you several dollars over the best they can possibly do.

Wise buyers visit us without fail.

Earl Shepherd Co.
Pianos, Victrolas, Radio, Records.
507 Main St. Phone 28

BUCKET SOAP SALE

14 Bars P & G
1 Package Chippo
1 Galvanized Bucket
$1.35 value for

Watermelons, lb.	03c	Satsuma Plums, basket
Turlock Cantaloupes	10c	Persian Melons, lb.
Blackberries, crate	$1.35	Honey Dew Melons
Ripe Pears, 2 lbs.	35c	Strawberries, crate
Grants Pass Tomatoes, large size, fancy and solid, lb.	20c	Gravenstein Apples, 3 lbs.
Casabas, lb.	06c	Apricots, crate
String Beans, 2 lbs.	25c	Bunch Beets, Carrots and Turnips 3 for
		New Potatoes, 7 lbs.

Crisco makes delicious cake and cookies

Small size 30c; Medium size, 85c; Large size, $2.45

PUBLIC MARKET
126 No. 6th St. Hourly Delivery Phone

Frank & King's Comedians
in
The Big White Tent
Seventh and Pine Streets
Friday and Saturday
A Play Every One Should See
"What Are Your Children Doing?"
Prices 25c and 50 c. Jazz Orchestra
Vaudeville Between Acts