Famed Broadcasters Visiting in Klamath

E. M. Bonnell known as Uncle Remus and a noted delineator of negro characters at K. H. J. radio broadcasting station and J. W. Boothe, manager of Barker Brothers, Southern California's largest Music House were visitors at the Earl Shepherd Music Store yesterday.

They claim that the fame of the Klamath rainbow trout is well known in Los Angeles and upon their return here from Elk Lake where they are spending a two weeks' vacation, will no doubt have something new in fish stories, both being unusually clever after dinner speakers.

TRAFFIC VIOLATORS CAUGHT BY KNOWLES

J. Mikkelsen, 2151 Radcliffe street, was arrested by Traffic Officer Knowles for not dimming and having no operator's license last night. Albert R. Jeff, of Salem, was also arrested for speeding on the Olney road.
