Dollars and Sense

Suppose You Do Your Laundry At Home:

It is hard work and takes time that could be better occupied in other ways.

An investment for a machine, of say $180, will buy wet wash laundry service at 5c per pound, (20-lb. bundle) for 3½ years.

All any washing machine produces is wet wash.

Added to this is the cost of electricity, soap, soda, blue, water and other supplies, as well as time and labor.

Suppose You Send It To the New City Laundry:

If you select Rough Dry service, you get this for only 8c a pound.

A clean bundle with each garment washed, according to classification.

Wearing apparel all starched with soft dry finish—ready to iron.

Unstarched pieces, like underwear, soft and dry and ready to wear

—and—

Flatwork all washed clean and all ironed and ready to use.
