

LOCALS

Jinkers' Picnic—One of the most interesting features of the Jinkers' picnic, held Tuesday evening at Bedford's cabin on Agency lake, was the activities of a chosen few who remained on the bank, while the others frolicked in the water. When the bathers returned for their clothing they found them tied in knots in true childhood style. Frank Ottoman was accused about the bank yesterday of the deed.

Lorella Rancher—W. W. Fordney, well known Lorella rancher, was among the business visitors in the city yesterday, looking into property interests in the city.

Wuik-Kee—A party of five members of the younger set enjoyed a swimming party and picnic at Wuik-Kee Tuesday evening. Those in the party were Miss Ferno Hanks, Miss Mariam Wortley, Miss Kathleen Malloy, Pat Malloy and Henry Gerber.

To Return—C. A. Henderson, county agricultural agent, is expected to return to Klamath Falls today from Owens valley and Bishop, California, where he has spent the past two weeks, interested in work with the farmers of that section, who have entertained ideas of moving to the Klamath country. Upon his return Henderson will give reports to the county court and to the chamber of commerce, both bodies having assisted materially in the financing of the project.

To Wuik-Kee—Among the parties of Klamath Falls residents to enjoy a swim at Wuik-Kee Tuesday evening was one composed of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Veatch, Esther and Bob Veatch, Miss Vera Houston, Miss Augusta Parker, and Miss Gertrude Parker, of Grants Pass.

Swimming—Chaperoned by Mrs. Burt Hawkins, a party of young persons enjoyed a swim and picnic at Wuik-Kee, on Agency lake last night. Those in the party were Pauline Adamson, Ralph Adamson, Irvin Keller, Dehila Hawkins, Dorothea Hawkins, Geneva Kinkade, Eva Miller, Joy Miller, Forest Miller, Frank Moser, Kenton Hamaker, Mr. Wake-man, Ben Hollister, Eda Jones, Ruth Cofer, Elbert Stiles and Mrs. Burt Hawkins.

Chiloquin—Out of town visitors in the city yesterday included James T. Shore, resident of Chiloquin, who was in Klamath Falls transacting business.

Lakeview—Forrest Cunningham of the Lakeview route, was seen in the city yesterday transacting business in the court house.

Kirk—Clyde W. Flinn, resident of the Modoc camp at Kirk, was among the many out of town visitors in the city that spent the day in Klamath Falls Tuesday transacting business.

Bonanza—Business visitors in Klamath Falls this week include Birdie Burke of Bonanza, who was transacting business affairs in the city yesterday.

Merrill—Jerry Ryan of Merrill, was seen in Klamath Falls Tuesday transacting business and visiting with friends.

To Visit—Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Massey and children have planned to spend Sunday motoring around the lakes, stopping at Crystal creek to fish, and also to visit with the Sherman Brown family, "old-timers" of the Crystal district, whom they have known for years.

Fishing—Dr. Phillip Cole and Dr. R. D. Coe spent Wednesday at Point Comfort and Rocky Point, where they enjoyed a fishing trip, returning late last night with exceptionally good luck.

Return to Work—Mrs. Mary Wilson has returned to her office in the Hall building after a week's illness, from which she has been suffering.

Sentenced—Pearl McClindon, colored lass, was sentenced to sixty days at washing dishes at the county poor farm and fined $100 yesterday by Judge R. H. Bunnell, when she was arraigned on charges of reckless driving and driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated.

Returned Home—Guy Vestal and family have returned from Klamath Falls, where they have been visiting with relatives.—Ashland Daily Tidings.

At Topsy—Dr. G. S. Newsom, county health officer, spent Wednesday in the Topsy district, where he inspected conditions in that section. According to the county officer, the whooping cough menace, which has caused the closing of the school at Topsy, is highly improved, and reports are that the school will be opened Monday.

Bonanza—Mrs. J. O. Hamaker of Bonanza, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. L. D. Burke, also of Bonanza, was in the city yesterday enjoying a shopping trip and visit with friends.

Merrill—Visitors in the city this week include a number of guests from neighboring districts. Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Moyer, who reside in the Merrill section, spent Wednesday in the city, visiting with friends.

Merrill—Visitors and shoppers in Klamath Falls yesterday included Mrs. C. E. Craig and Miss Anna Hill, both residents of Merrill.

Kiwanis—Members of the Klamath Falls group of Kiwanis will hold their regular weekly luncheon in the chamber of commerce rooms today at 12:15.

Pasadena—Among the interesting visitors in the city yesterday to arrive from the south was Mrs. Gertrude F. Stewart, a resident of Pasadena, who was sincere in her praises of the Klamath country. Mrs. Stewart is recently from New York, and her interest in the west has never diminished. Especially interested was Mrs. Stewart in the Green Springs highway. Her party is on their way to Washington, and possibly go on into Canada.

Registration—Although registration of foreign cars was not particularly heavy yesterday, the visitors were from various sections of the coast, and several from the far east.

New Mexico—Passing through Oregon has made Rex R. Anderson of Hurley, New Mexico, desire to see more of the country, and he is planning to remain for several days enjoying this section of Klamath county.

Nevada—The only Nevada car to register yesterday at the chamber of commerce was that belonging to H. O. Lohr, resident of Millers, who, with his family, is making an interesting vacation tour of the coast.

To South—Mrs. Horace Sims of Sacramento, returned to her home Wednesday after visiting for several days in Klamath Falls. Mrs. Sims is a former resident, and will be remembered as Miss Dorothy Jolliff before her marriage last year.

Visited Here—Elmer Dix and Louis Hoxey of Klamath Falls spent Sunday in Ashland visiting with friends.—Ashland Daily Tidings.

Little Rock—Visitors in Klamath Falls from the far south include Mr. and Mrs. Jean Reutlinger of Little Rock, Ark., who arrived in the city last night to enjoy a visit in this part of Oregon.

Merrill—N. H. Bogue, well known resident of Merrill, is making a business visit for several days in Klamath Falls.

Los Angeles—Among the southern visitors in the city this week are a number of Los Angeles tourists. A party from that city arriving last night includes Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Rank and Mrs. O. S. Van Keuren.

Portland—William T. Brady and M. F. Brady are visitors in Klamath Falls this week from their homes in Portland.

Returns—R. E. Wright, with Miss Clara Calkins and Miss Margaret Worden, returned yesterday afternoon from San Francisco, where Wright was called on business. Miss Calkins and Miss Worden spent the majority of their time in the south on a buying trip for their hat shop.

Bly—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wallis, residents of the Bly district, are in the city to visit and transact business.

Medford—M. D. Cole of Medford is in the city to spend the remainder of the week transacting business.

Grants Pass—Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Welter of Grants Pass, are in the city for several days' visit.

Valley Visitors—J. T. Logan of Grants Pass, with his son, has returned to Klamath Falls for a brief business visit. Logan is a well known construction contractor of the valley.

Copco—William K. Cunningham of the California Oregon Power company, arrived in the city last night interested in the affairs of the company. Cunningham is a resident of Medford.

San Francisco—A party of tourists in the city from San Francisco include J. S. Potter, S. E. Potter, John Medau and Howard Kennedy. The four arrived last night, planning to see some of the Klamath country.

Tourists—Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Sterne of San Jose, with their son, William W. Sterne, arrived in Klamath Falls last night in order to make an early trip to Crater lake today. Sterne is general agent for the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad, and is taking off a little time for his summer's vacation.

San Francisco—Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Kelly of the Southern Pacific are in the city to transact business and enjoy a short visit. They are accompanied by their daughter, from their home in San Francisco.

British Columbia—A. A. Cameron, N. I. Cameron and M. K. Cameron, all of a party of tourists from Vancouver, British Columbia, are in the city, arriving last night, to make an interesting visit of southern Oregon. Whether or not the Canadians think that Canada has a mortgage on all the interesting scenery is not known, but a number drive down from the north every summer.

Lumberton—W. W. Mitchell, resident of Lumberton, spent Wednesday in the city, where he spent the major portion of the day in the dentist's chair. Mitchell returned last night.

Los Angeles—Tourists in the city from Los Angeles include Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Stone of the southern city, who arrived in Klamath Falls last night.

Chiloquin—Eric Morton arrived in the city last night to spend several days in the city on business. Morton is a resident of Chiloquin.

At the Arcade—Mrs. M. Loop of Los Angeles, with Miss M. Loop and Miss E. Loop and C. D. Tufford are in Klamath Falls this week, stopping while in the city at the Arcade hotel.

Hornbrook—Out of town residents in the city this week include several visitors from Hornbrook. Frank Howe and C. J. Eley are among those from the northern California city.

Red Bluff—Business visitors in Klamath Falls include H. E. White of Red Bluff, who is making a short trip to the city this week.

North Bend—Miss Pauline Bond of North Bend spent the past night in the city from her home on Coos Bay, leaving today for San Francisco. Miss Bond was for three years a teacher in the Klamath Falls schools and has been spending her time renewing acquaintances. She is now interested in the Coos Bay Business college in North Bend.

Long Island—At the Hall hotel this week the register reports the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Murdoch, from Glen Cove, Long Island, one of the most interesting spots on the Atlantic coast.

Modoc Point—Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Drayer are spending several days in the city, transacting business affairs, from their home in Modoc Point.

Lakeview—Out of town visitors in the city this week include Tim T. Sullivan, well known sheepman of the Lakeview district.

On Business—Stanley V. Russ, well known resident of Dorris, was transacting business affairs in the city the early part of the week.

Talent—A business visitor in the city to spend some time with friends, is R. A. Alford, of Talent, who arrived in the city last night for a short visit.

Beatty—F. J. Schmitz, a frequent business visitor in the city from his home in Beatty, is spending the day in Klamath Falls, arriving last night. Schmitz is a merchant.

Alturas—Out of town business visitors in the city this week include J. E. Niles, a resident of Alturas.

To the Lake—Mrs. C. H. Daggett, accompanied by a group of friends, will leave today for Lake of the Woods, where she will occupy her summer home for the season.

Chiloquin—Wednesday in Chiloquin business affairs in the newly erected erration town.

Merrill—Business in Klamath include John W. resident of the

Kodak Finishing is our

Frank & King's Comedy
in
The Big White T
Seventh and Pine Street
Tuesday, Wednesday and Th
The Bright Musical Comedy Dr
"A SON OF BROADWAY"
Prices 25c and 50 c. Jan
Vaudeville Between Acts

AUGUST CLEARANCE

SUMMER TIME as far as your shoes are concerned continues 90 days longer, at least. But for us, the fall opens shortly.

SO NOW for just a few days we have further slashed stocks, cut them down to the bone. Stunning lasts, including sport shoes.

MEN The well known Marions-Freemans Just White and Edmonds' Foot Finishing Oxfords and shoes, for this clearance, only

$5.00

SEE our window display.

WOMEN'S two toe slippers that formerly sold $11.00, are cut down, during this clearance to

$7.50

Houston and Jester
515 MAIN

Our Pianos Selling Themselves

It is requiring no high pressure salesmen or the ringing of door bells from house to house to sell Pianos and Victrolas during our sale.

You simply visit our store at 507 Main Street and sell yourself—it is surely the satisfactory way to buy, for we have sold ten pianos in Klamath to one by any other firm.

Eleven instruments Saturday and Monday without stepping out of the store, without outside salesmen or hot air.

Remember when Better Prices and Terms are made on Pianos and Victrolas Earl Shepherd Co. will make them. Wise buyers are certainly proving it.

EARL SHEPHERD CO.

507 Main St. Pianos, Radio, Victrolas. Phone 282

NOTICE
Central Community club will meet at Henley school Friday night, Aug. 7. All members and subscribers requested to be present. Important business.

HOTEL ASTOR
2nd & Hill Los Angeles
EVERY ROOM has PRIVATE TOILET
50% Baths New, Modern
Close to Shopping District and Theatres
FREE GARAGE Tariff from $1.50