

LOCALS

From Korbelt—Sherman Norton and a companion, both residents of Korbelt, California, passed through Klamath Falls yesterday on their way south, after an interesting visit in the north. Korbelt is located in Humboldt county.

Expected—Mrs. Harry Richardson and children of Yreka, are expected to arrive in Klamath Falls where they will spend some time visiting with friends. They will arrive Sunday evening. Mrs. Richardson is a former resident of Klamath Falls, where she has a host of friends.

Former Residents—"Old-Timers" to visit in Klamath Falls this week include Mr. and Mrs. "Van" Van Bellen, former residents, now living in Los Angeles. They will return with Mrs. W. G. Houston and children, who have been in the south for some time. The party is expected in within a few days.

To Fish—C. K. McIntosh, a resident of Los Angeles, with his son Gordon McIntosh, have arrived in the city from the south to spend a week or ten days fishing in the Klamath streams and lakes, mainly in the Williamson river. According to McIntosh, he has made many trips to the Klamath country where the fishing is the "best in the world." This is the first trip for his son.

Registration—Thirty-three foreign cars registered at the chamber of commerce yesterday, the majority of the cars still driving south from California.

Return From Trip—Al Schick with his bride has returned to Klamath Falls, following an interesting wedding tour which included Seaside and other coast cities. Mr. and Mrs. Schick were married in Portland, July 25, and have returned to the city to make their home in the McCarthy apartments. Schick is a promising young draught of the city.

To Eugene—Miss Katherine Ulrich and Miss Elizabeth Manning are planning to leave today for Eugene, where they will spend the remainder of the week visiting with friends. Both Miss Ulrich and Miss Manning were students of the University of Oregon in Eugene during the past winter.

On Business—C. I. Clement, of the Cary Safe company, is among the well known business men of the south transacting affairs in the city. Clement is a resident of San Francisco.

Visiting—Among the interesting visitors in Klamath Falls this week is Miss Lucille Myers of Berkeley, who is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Myers on California avenue. Miss Myers is a sister of Mr. Myers.

Returns To Medford—E. J. Smith has returned to Medford after spending several days on business in the city from his home in the valley.

To Return—Edwin S. Weaver is planning to leave within the near future for his home in Eugene after spending the past eight months in Klamath Falls, where he has made a score of friends. Weaver is planning to return to school in the fall to complete his college work.

Crater Lake—Mrs. G. W. Huffman, of the Crater Lake store, is included in the business visitors and shoppers in Klamath Falls Thursday.

Modoc Point—Mrs. Jessie Plunkett spent Thursday in Klamath Falls enjoying a brief shopping tour from her home in Modoc Point.

Returns—W. C. Van Emon, Klamath Falls attorney, has returned to the city after a brief business trip which took him to San Francisco, Sacramento and Stockton.

Bonanza—Among the out of town visitors in the city during the middle of the week was Mrs. C. W. Pitchford, a well known resident of the Bonanza district.

Rancher In—Business visitors in the city this week include Frank O. Poole, rancher of the Bonanza section who spent Thursday transacting affairs.

BRIEFS
Kirk—Mrs. H. P. Thomas is among the out-of-town visitors to spend Thursday in Klamath Falls from her home in Kirk.

Improving—Mrs. Mary Pearson who was struck by a passing automobile Wednesday afternoon, was reported improving. Medical examination showed several broken ribs and a badly wrenched ankle but no internal injuries.

Powers—Out of town visitors include C. H. Crew, resident of Powers, well-known logging center of Coos county, who arrived last night from the coast to visit here.

Medford—Charles D. Hazelrigg is in the city from his home in Medford, interested in putting before the Kiwanis club the musical comedy "Pirates of Pensance" which the Kiwanians will present early in September.

Copco—Harold Bunce of Copco and J. W. Peart, also of Copco, are in the city in the interests of the company.

Medford—Fred L. Colvig, Medford resident and state income tax commissioner, is in the city for several days stopping at the Hall hotel.

Cattleman—W. L. Cornwell, well-known cattleman of the northern California district, is in Klamath Falls this week-end to transact business from his home in Hollister.

L. L. Scott—Among the Southern Pacific men to spend the remainder of the week in Klamath Falls is L. L. Scott, resident of San Francisco, who is here for several days.

Salem—Wilford W. Williams of Salem is in the city for a brief business visit from his home in the valley.

Red Bluff—Business and out-of-town visitors in Klamath Falls this week include A. A. Yates, resident of Red Bluff, who arrived last night for a brief stay.

Silver Lake—Among the visitors in the city this week-end is G. W. Marvin of Silver Lake.

Arrests—D. E. Alexander, prominent rancher of the Rock Creek district fell under the toil of the law when a void foreign license plate was found on his Jordan touring car. Alexander promised to replace the old plate with a '25 Oregon license and was permitted to go his way.

Speeding—R. L. Yarnes was arrested yesterday afternoon by Traffic Officer R. E. Knowles on charges of speeding 45 miles an hour on the Merrill road. He is slated to appear before Judge R. H. Bunnell Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Fords Tagged—Two Fords, one bearing an Idaho license, were tagged last night by Traffic Officer R. E. Knowles. The Idaho car carried a slip for parking too close to a fire plug. The driver failed to appear before Police Judge Lem Gaghagen at 3 p. m. yesterday. The other Ford owner carries a tag for improper parking.

To Go On Trip—J. R. Larson, Roy Landrith, Charles Mahaffy and Anson Rogers left Saturday afternoon in Larson's car for a trip to Klamath Falls and Crater Lake.—Coos Bay Times.

Return—Mr. and Mrs. Percy Peet returned last night from Klamath Falls where they visited Mrs. Peet's sister, Mrs. Arvid Erickson and brought back their two daughters, Ginevra and Vivian, who have visited with the Ericksons for a month.

Tourists—Out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday include Mr. and Mrs. A. Andrews of Red Bluff and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McPherson of Grants Pass, who form a party of tourists enroute to Crater lake.

Malin—C. B. Anderson, Malin resident, spent Thursday in Klamath Falls transacting business.

Alameda Guests—Mr. and Mrs. E. Carrico and family of Alameda and J. Hearn and A. Kappier also of Alameda, are in the city passing away several days here while visiting this section.

Portland—Visitors in the city from Portland include T. C. Shankland and daughter, Miss G. Shankland, who are stopping at the White Pelican hotel while in Klamath Falls.

Citizen in the Making

Lillian Rich, screen heroine, is so grateful to the United States for the fame and fortune that it has showered upon her that she is taking steps to become a citizen. First naturalization papers were issued to her recently. Lillian came to Hollywood from England four years ago to try her luck as an extra girl, and quickly won recognition.

From the Islands—Enroute on an interesting trip during the summer months, Miss Elizabeth Key is in the city, arriving last night. Miss Key resides in Liliue Kanai, Hawaii, and plans a visit to Crater lake before returning to the islands.

Tourists—Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Christian of Keno and Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Cantwell, also of Keno, are in the city for a few days. They are included in the large number of tourists that will make August the banner month for foreign cars.

Walker In—Fred Walker is in the city on one of his frequent business and pleasure trips. Walker is interested in the completion of the Willow valley dam, under the construction work of Dunn and Baker. He is stopping at the Arcade hotel.

Ashland—Evelyn Caldwell and Nellie L. Loomis of Ashland, are in the city for the remainder of the week on a trip, combining both business and pleasure.

S. P.—J. G. Ferguson, Southern Pacific official of Dunsmuir, is in the city on a short business trip.

Bray—Ray Harlan, well known in Klamath Falls, spent Thursday in the city from his home in Bray, visiting with friends and relatives.

Tourists—Mrs. Glenn B. Merryfield with her daughter, Miss Gladys B. Merryfield, and son Chandler Merryfield, are in the city enjoying a tour of this section, from their home in Berkeley.

Chiloquin—Out of town business visitors in Klamath Falls to arrive last night, was H. R. Byrnes of Chiloquin, well known lumberman of that district, affiliated with the Ewauna box company.

Coquille—J. E. Paulson, with his son, Walter F. Paulson, residents of Coquille, arrived in Klamath Falls last night to spend some time in the city transacting business and visiting. Paulson is a well known lumberman of the Coos county section.

Tourists—Harland McWilliams, Glenn Hill, Harry Hill and George Ross, all residents of Los Angeles spent yesterday visiting with friends in Klamath Falls. They are former residents of Ashland and are also visiting in the valley with former acquaintances.

From Medford—Miss Lucille Abbott and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abbott, residents of Medford, arrived in Klamath Falls yesterday to visit with their son, Sidney Abbott, of this city. They will continue to Algona where another son, Julian Abbott, resides, visiting with him for a short time before their return to the valley.

To San Francisco—R. E. Hunsaker, Justice of the peace of Klamath Falls left yesterday for San Francisco where he will enter the Stanford hospital for medical attention.

Returns—One of the oldest of the former residents to return to Klamath county is J. S. Stubblefield, who with Mrs. Stubblefield and Miss Gertrude Stubblefield arrived in Klamath Falls yesterday from their home in Merced, to visit with friends. Stubblefield was formerly connected with the Presbyterian church in the city when it was an old frame building. He has returned to the city several times but this is his daughter's first visit in ten years.

Old Instrument—First filing on old deed, 27 years old, was made in the county clerk's office yesterday when the paper was brought in. The deed is a grant to John L. Offield for state land in Klamath county on February 28, 1888. The grant was made by Governor Sylvester Penneyer, then governor of Oregon.

Fishing—Garrett Van Riper of the sheriff's office, head of the tax department and Francis H. Olds, head of the Klamath post of American Legion "swiped" a day off of the work calendar Thursday and spent the day in the Chiloquin country fishing.

From Salem—Earl F. Redding, resident of Portland and Salem spent yesterday in the city on business, preparing to leave today for his home in the valley.

Malin—Dick Lacey, prominent sheepman of the Malin country spent Thursday in Klamath Falls visiting with friends. Lacey was on his way to Lakeview when in the city.

Swimming—Mrs. F. H. Cofer and daughter, Miss Helen Cofer, Mrs. C. Walker and three children of Sacramento, Mrs. George R. Lindley and daughter, Miss Gertrude Lindley and Mrs. Walter West and sons spent Thursday afternoon and evening on Agency lake, a mile above Wul-Kae, where they enjoyed a swim and picnic.

Forbes Pure Drugs
Eighth at Main
Good Service—Good Drugs

HOTEL ASTOR
2nd & Hill
Los Angeles
EVERY ROOM has PRIVATE TOILET
50% Baths New, Modern
Close to Shopping District and Theatres
FREE GARAGE Tariff from $1.50

NOTICE
Central Community club will meet at Henley school Friday night, Aug. 7. All members and subscribers requested to be present. Important business.

Frank & King's Comedy
in
The Big White T
Seventh and Pine Street
Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday
The Bright Musical Comedy
"A SON OF BROADWAY"
Prices 25c and 50 c. Jazz
Vaudeville Between Acts

THE SQUARE DE
DRUG STORE
is now under
New Management
SATURDAY SPECIAL
As an opening special we are to our old customers and new glass measuring cup free with a
of Flavilla (Vanilla Extract.)
to a customer.

Flannel Trousers

Yes we have 'em, in some new snappy patterns, Busque Tans in plain and stripe patterns, Greys in fancy stripe patterns,

$5.00 to $12.00

Dutchess the Guaranteed Kind

Klamath Clothing Kompan

LEADING CLOTHIERS

24 Years In Klamath Falls

National Harding Memorial At Marion to Be Begun Soon

Construction of the national memorial to Warren G. Harding at Marion, O., will be begun shortly. This design, the work of Henry Hornbostel and Eric Wood of Pittsburgh, has been accepted by the memorial association. At right is one of the last photos of the late president. At left is the vault in Marion in which the body now rests.

Forbes Pure Drugs
Eighth at Main
Good Service—Good Drugs