ARE WOMEN APPRECIATIVE?

'We are', says Society Leader

The most trying period of a woman's life is during the "dangerous age," as it is called, meaning the years between 45 and 55. Interest in life gradually fails, they have a worn-out appearance and their nerves are always close to a "ragged edge."

A well known society woman who had always been a leader, found herself living almost the life of a recluse, with no interest in life, and no thought of the future.

One of her closest friends told her of Kath, the Gland Tonic, and advised her to try it at once. She found she was soon imbued with a new interest in life, her mental and physical efficiency were restored, and there were no more tell-tale wrinkles.

She says, "Why should I not tell women of Kath? From a prematurely old woman without any interest in life, I have become active, strong and vigorous, and my friends compliment me on my youthful appearance. I but feebly express my feelings when I say that I think Kath is the most wonderful tonic ever made."

Kath, the Gland Tonic, is a combination of Extracts of Glands and Iron Phosphate, and builds up wasted and under-nourished glands. For Sale by:
