

LOCALS

Buy Land—Mr. and Mrs. Martin Tighe purchased from A. A. Bellman a home site on Sargent avenue, for a consideration of $500. They plan to build in the near future. The deed was filed yesterday in the county clerk's office.

Probate Filings—In the matter of the estate of Mrs. Agnes N. Guest, deceased, which was entered for probate in the county clerk's office yesterday, Mrs. Helen Guest Abbott was named administrator of the estate, which included $4250 in personal property.

Kendall Qualifies—Sheriff Ed Kendall qualified for justice of the peace of Klamath Falls yesterday, before the county court, when his bond of $1000 was approved by that body. Kendall is taking the place of R. E. Hunsaker, during the latter's absence in California, where he is obtaining medical treatment.

Rocky Point—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Beal and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kennedy of Lincoln, Nebraska, were among the visitors Sunday at Rocky Point, where they spent the day fishing and picnicking.

Fishing—Mr. and Mrs. Marion Barnes and family, were among the Klamath Falls residents to spend Sunday at Rocky Point. Barnes combined business and pleasure in his capacity as game warden and managed to come home with a fine under his arm.

Filed Suit—The Imperial Garage of Klamath Falls has filed suit against Homer L. Yocom, also of Klamath Falls, seeking to recover $191.72 with six per cent interest from October 8, 1924.

Rocky Point—Judge and Mrs. A. L. Leavitt, with a party of friends, enjoyed Sunday at Rocky Point, where they visited for a time.

In Monday—Visitors in Klamath Falls Monday included W. H. Meider of Rocky Point, who was transacting business affairs around the court house.

Merrill—Dan Sullivan and John Sullivan were among the frequent business visitors in the city from their home in the Merrill district.

Modoc Point—Among the business visitors to spend the majority of their time in Klamath Falls Monday was G. E. Blackburn, who motored to the city from his home in Modoc Point.

Keno—Out of town business visitors in the city this week from Keno includes Olive K. Puckett, who was in Klamath Falls Monday to transact affairs.

Bonanza—J. R. Foggs of Bonanza is included in the Monday visitors in Klamath Falls.

From the Fort—Out of town visitors in the city this week include J. F. Martin of Fort Klamath, who spent Monday in Klamath Falls.

Visitors—Business visitors in Klamath Falls include A. G. Wime of Fort Klamath, who spent Monday in the city transacting affairs.

For South—Mr. and Mrs. Milton Smith of Klamath Falls, left Monday for Lakeview, where they will visit for a time before going south. They plan to spend some time there, continuing to California where they will remain permanently.

Ill—Mrs. J. A. Houston is confined to her home at 431 Washington street with a slight attack of illness.

Return—O. M. Hector, with his daughter, Miss Bernice Hector, has returned to Klamath Falls after a week's business visit in Portland. They returned Monday afternoon.

Sells Home—Mrs. Bertha Frakes has purchased the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Long on the Shippington road, the deal consummated Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Long plan to leave in the near future for California.

To Spring Creek—Visitors at Spring Creek yesterday included a number of interesting Klamath Falls parties, among them one composed of Mrs. Docia Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rinabarger, Walter Norris and Harold Friends, all of Medford, Miss Wyma Brotherton of Klamath Falls.

Spring Creek—The inviting spots that line Spring Creek appeared to be a veritable Mecca for Klamath Falls residents Sunday. Among those making visits along the creek was a party composed of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Veatch and family, Bert Thomas, Miss Gertrude Parker, Mrs. T. J. Telford and Miss Augusta Parker.

Visitors—Dr. L. L. Truax and family, Miss Mary Hunt and Miss Anna Reeves were among the Klamath residents to enjoy a visit to Spring Creek Sunday afternoon.

Leave for North—Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Smith, left Saturday for an interesting 19 day trip into the valley, where they will visit with friends and relatives. They plan also to spend a short time at Salem, motoring north into Glendale, Washington, returning to Klamath by way of Bend, where they will visit with their son for several days.

For Homes—Miss Mary Hunt and Miss Anna Reeves, who have been visiting for the major portion of the summer at the home of Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Truax will return to their homes Friday. Miss Hunt resides in Ohio, Miss Reeves makes her home in southern California.

Returns to City—Basil Stout of Klamath Falls has returned to the city after an enjoyable extended visit in Tennessee with relatives and friends. He was formerly interested in a store in Chiliquin with which he was a partner.

To Lakeview—Allan B. Jones is a business visitor in Lakeview this week, leaving Sunday for a several days' visit.

To Wul-Kee—Among the numerous visitors at Wul-Kee Sunday, enjoying the beach, were Mr. and Mrs. J. Percy Wells, who recently returned from the south, where they attended summer school in Berkeley.

Sunday Visitors—Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Collier and party of friends were among the visitors at Wul-Kee Sunday afternoon, enjoying a swim, followed by a picnic luncheon.

Visitor—Miss Luella Simmonds, a resident of Lakeview, was among the guests in the city Sunday, visiting at the home of Miss Marje Johnston.

From Lakeview—Bruce Bailey was a visitor in Klamath Falls Sunday, from his home in Lakeview, to visit with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Merryman.

At Spring Creek—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Peltz, with their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Buckingham, of Medford, former Klamath Falls residents, Miss Bertha Peltz and Miss Fern Ahlstrom, spent the week-end at Spring creek, where they enjoyed a fishing and camping trip.

Leave for South—Miss Nemo Sutton and Miss Joy Reid left yesterday for their homes in San Francisco after an enjoyable visit in Klamath Falls with friends and relatives. The young girls are granddaughters of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Matt.

From Nebraska—Mrs. E. M. Harding, sister of W. R. Saitman and W. V. Shipman, both of Klamath Falls, is visiting in the city from her home in Kearney, Nebraska. The Shipman brothers are anticipating a visit later in the season from their mother, Mrs. Alice Shipman, of Woodburn, Oregon, who is planning to make Klamath her permanent home.

In Monday—Out of town visitors and shoppers in the city this week include Mrs. Hackensen of Point Comfort district, and Mrs. Hansberry from the Hansberry fox farm, also in that section. They spent Monday here.

Operation—Miss Allison Barnes, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Barnes, will submit to the removal of her tonsils this morning in a Klamath Falls hospital.

To the Lake—Jack Jewett was among the Klamath Falls residents to spend Sunday at Lake of the Woods.

Week-End—Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lew of Los Angeles, who are enjoying a tour of the coast, were week-end guests at the home of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. James Harlock of Klamath Falls.

Sunday—Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Weaver of Portland, are among the out of town visitors to spend Sunday in Portland with friends and relatives.

From Merrill—Out of town visitors in the city Monday included Will Adams, prominent Merrill rancher.

In Monday—Among the visitors in Klamath Falls Monday to transact business was John Schmor of Swan Lake, who spent the day in the city.

Yonka Valley—Mr. and Mrs. Brown Michaels were among the out of town business visitors in the city Monday to transact affairs, from their home in the Yonka valley district, where they conduct a ranch.

In Klamath—Mrs. O. D. Bowers, who has been visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Mangue of Oakland, has returned to Klamath, and is now visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Ernest Givan of the Bly country. Mrs. Bowers will return to her home in Salem during the coming week.

Perry Returns—J. A. Perry has returned to the city after enjoying an interesting week's vacation at Point Comfort and Rocky Point. According to "Jim" the fishing is mighty fine, and it was a temptation to go beyond the limit once you begin to pull them in.

On Business—Tom Gorman is in the city from his home in Portland, to spend the remainder of the week transacting business.

Spring Creek—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Biehn and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tatlow were among the visitors at Spring creek, where they spent the week-end fishing, camping out.

Registration—Foreign cars to register in Klamath Falls Monday reached 25, which is an exceptionally light day for Mondays, considering the non-registration of Sunday.

Keep Number—In order to provide interesting data on the number of inquiries received at the chamber of commerce during the week, Secretary Sabin is having his assistants keep track of the questioning tourists who come to the chamber for foreign permits, or seeking information. The number taken Monday, the first day of the count, was 83, with 37 tourists and 47 seeking information.

For Puget Sound—One of the most interesting summer trips will be made Wednesday morning, when Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Chilcote leave for the north where they plan to remain for the balance of the month. From Klamath Falls they will motor to the valley and on into the Puget Sound country and into British Columbia. They plan to return through Washington by way of Spokane.

From Marshfield—Ben Chandler, prominent Marshfield banker was in Klamath Falls yesterday visiting at the banks and transacting business as well as enjoying his visit in Klamath country.

To Alturas—A. M. Thomas of the Klamath Irrigation district, left yesterday for Alturas, where he will be gone for several days interested in the meeting of the Wool grower's association of which he is secretary.

Deed Filed—Garrett Van Riper Sr., transferred right of title to a home site on Academy street to his son Garrett Van Riper Jr., according to deeds filed in the county clerk's office yesterday. The Van Riper residence on Riverside street is within the territory now being acquired by the Oregon Trunk.

Sells Land—J. F. Maguire sold an interesting home site to Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Provost the first of the week, in Second addition. Consideration was for $500.

Sheep Buyer—Dan Estromad of Sacramento, arrived in the city last night to spend the remainder of the week interested in sheep buying.

Ranchers—F. O. Pool and C. S. Gilbroath are among the Bonanza ranchers to spend the early part of the week in Klamath Falls.

Southern Pacific—J. G. Wiley of the Southern Pacific branch at Dunsmuir is in Klamath Falls to transact business for several days.

To the Lake—Making his annual trip, which he has made for a good many years, F. W. Fuller, San Francisco business man arrived in Klamath Falls last night in order to make the trip to Crater Lake early this morning.

At the Hall—Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Schmidt and daughter, Miss Barbara Schmidt of Grants Pass, were guests in the Hall hotel the early part of the week, while enroute to their home. They made a recent visit to Crater Lake.

Over Week-end—Among the distinguished visitors in the city over the past week-end were Peter Gerig of Bieber, and Clinton J. Fulcher, Lookout, California. Fulcher is president of The Dalles-Reno- Los Angeles highway association, Gerig is also a member.

At the Lake—Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hall are enjoying a visit at Lake of the Woods, where their summer home, "Pittview" is located.

To Rocky Point—Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Henriot spent Sunday at Rocky Point as did a number of the Klamath Falls residents.

From Lorella—Among the out of town visitors in the city this week are A. D. Cramer, rancher of the Lorella district.

In Newport—Mr. and Mrs. John L. C. Ewer, G. A. Ewer, Mrs. Ewer, Mrs. Marbella Glover, are enjoying a two weeks' visit in Newport, Astoria and Portland.

Spencer Creek—Among the interesting trips to be taken Sunday was that of a group of Klamath residents who spent the day at Spencer Creek. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Clemens, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Funk, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hanks, Miss Fern Hanks, Miss Kathleen Malloy and Blair Malloy.

Wul-kee—Mr. and Mrs. Tom Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Cookingham and child and Miss Lillian Scofield were among the visitors in Wul-kee Sunday afternoon.

San Francisco—F. J. Hoagland, E. S. Millot and E. R. Alexander, all of San Francisco are in the city on a touring trip through southern Oregon and up the northern coast.

From the South—Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hohenshell of Merced, with Mrs. C. C. Chamberlain form a party of three tourists, who are in this section of Oregon interested in seeing Crater Lake.

Visitors—A. L. Brown of Astoria and R. E. Chadwick of Portland, are among the guests at the White Pelican hotel this week from their homes in the northern section of the state.

Berkeley—Mrs. Abbie E. Tyrell and A. D. Tyrell are among the southern visitors in Klamath Falls from their homes in Berkeley. They are planning a trip to Crater Lake before returning south.

At the Arcade—Among the tourists in the city this week to spend a short visit in southern Oregon are Fire Insurance?

—Of Course—
John H. Houston
Slough Bldg.

A furnace will keep your comfort. Try Lorick Phone

Bring Up HID and PEL
We are in the highest Lewis Co. 223 S. 6th St.

Young Men's SCHOOL SUITS

School Days Will Soon Be Here and we invite you young fellows to look over the Nifty Suits we are showing for fall at $25.00

Single and double breasted models, in all the new fall shades. You agree these are some suits for $25.00

Klamath Clothing Kompan

LEADING CLOTHIERS

24 Years in Klamath Falls

SHEPHERD'S RADIO SLASHED.

Crawford Fancy Peaches Per Crate $1.10

ORANGE CLING PEACHES Per Crate $1.10

PLUMS Per Crate $1.25

WATERMELONS Per Pound 3c

4 Cantaloupes for 25c

PUBLIC MARKET

Phone 169, 126 N. 6th St.

Frank & King's Comedians

in

The Big White Tent

Seventh and Pine Streets

Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday

The Funniest of All Swede Dramas

"OLE OLSEN'S SCHOOL DAYS"

Prices 25c and 50 c.

Jazz Orchestra