Storm Centre

Capt. JOHN ROBERTS

Captain John Roberts, skipper of the liner Himmeric, found himself a storm centre upon the liner's arrival in New York after a full 10 days to save the crew of the Japanese liner Haffuku Maru, which was wrecked at sea Tuesday. His attention that he could do nothing for the victims is supported by some passengers and bitterly criticized by others.

Young La Follette Picked to Win in Special Senatorial Election

Victory for Robert M. La Follette, Jr., in the election called in Wisconsin to elect a successor to his father, the late senator, is seen by political observers. Five other candidates are in the field for the Republican nomination, Francis McGovern, Roy P. Wilcox, a former state senator, Arthur Barry, Otto Falk, J. H. McGillen. The Socialists have an aspirant, John M. Work. Governor J. J. Blaine will, it is understood, support young La Follette, and run against Irvine Lenroot for senator next year.
