

LOCALS

Bryan's Home, His Wife, and Their Children

Visitor—Edwin G. Young Jr., and sister Miss Martha Young, passed through Klamath Falls yesterday for a short time, visiting with Frank Z. Howard, county market engineer. Young is a banker of Oakland, Oregon, affiliated with the E. G. Young bank.

Merrill—Out of town visitors in Klamath Falls included Harry Latta, well known rancher of the Merrill district.

From Rocky Point—H. E. Hansberry, rancher whose land is located in the Rocky Point district, spent Tuesday in Klamath Falls transacting business.

From O. A. C.—Mrs. Jane Gain, instructor of the science department of Oregon Agricultural college with a party of friends passed through Klamath Falls yesterday enroute to Crater lake. While in the city Mrs. Gain visited with Miss Mae Sharnhart, who is a student of the Corvallis school.

Dinner Guests—Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence K. Phelps and Mrs. C. V. Fisher were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Haines of Main street, Monday evening.

Returns—Roy Hickman has returned to Klamath Falls after a several days' visit with his family at Diamond lake, where they are spending an enjoyable fortnight.

In Monday—Early part of the week visitors in Klamath Falls included Bill Turpin, resident of the Point Comfort district.

Register—Only 27 cars registered at the chamber of commerce yesterday, one of the least days of the year. All but two of the cars to register were from California, others from Ohio and Arizona.

Merrill—Rev. C. C. Hulet made one of his frequent business visits in the city yesterday from his home in Merrill.

Of Dairy—Miss Erva Arant and Miss Ethel Arant, both residents of Dairy, have left for Ashland, driving over the Green Springs mountain this morning.

In Tuesday—Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Woodhouse and son Clarence, were among the visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday, bringing in a load of their splendid honey from the Woodhouse bee farms. Woodhouse has been named superintendent of the bee and dairy products of the Klamath county fair.

Returns South—Russell Bodley returned to his home in Palo Alto yesterday, after spending a fortnight visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Walton. Bodley is an instructor in the College of the Pacific.

From Merrill—Burr Westbrook, well known rancher and sheepman of the Merrill country was in the city yesterday to look into business affairs.

Banker Here—Enroute to their home in Marshfield, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Montgomery spent the early part of the week in Klamath Falls after an enjoyable visit at Crater lake, Diamond lake and other interesting resorts. Montgomery is one of the most prominent bankers on Coos Bay, interested in the First National bank.

From Porterville—Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Magee are enjoying a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Joel T. Ward of Porterville, California, former residents of Klamath Falls. When Ward resided in the city he was interested in real estate.

Week-End—Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Smith are among the Klamath Falls residents to visit in the valley over the week-end, spending Saturday and Sunday in Grants Pass with Mr. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Smith.

From Algoma—Mrs. Malt Egan, Mrs. Depuy and Mrs. George Hoffman, all residents of Algoma are among those who spent Tuesday in Klamath Falls, enjoying a shopping tour.

Fishing—C. S. Currin and Austin Hayden are spending Tuesday and Wednesday on Dairy creek enjoying the fishing in that stream.

Auditor Here—Walker F. Quisenberry, auditor for the California-Oregon Power company, arrived in the city yesterday from his home in Medford to transact business for the remainder of the week.

Merrill—J. E. Whitlatch, who makes frequent visits to Klamath Falls, was among the guests in the city yesterday from his home in the Merrill district.

Michael—A. L. Michael, well known rancher of the Bonanza district, was among the out-of-town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday.

Visiting—Mrs. Charles Riley is spending a major portion of the summer with her husband, Charles Riley, who is interested in attending to urgent business affairs relative to his property holdings on Main street. The Rileys are residents of southern California.

Bonanza—L. C. Horn, among the well known ranchers of the Bonanza district, spent Tuesday in the city transacting affairs.

From Ranch—Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Applegate were among the visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday afternoon from their country home on Shasta View Way.

To the Lake—Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Sloan, accompanied by their son, Junior, have left for Lake of the Woods, where they will spend the remainder of the week enjoying an outing.

Visiting—Miss Helen Anderson is visiting Miss Betty Ramsby at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Ramsby from her home in Merrill.

Returns—Bert Hall returned yesterday at noon from the Hall summer home at Lake of the Woods after having spent several days at the resort.

From Merrill—Miss Anna Detzer has as her house guest for the remainder of the week Miss Thirza Anderson of Merrill, who is in Klamath Falls visiting with her many friends.

Visitors—Mrs. Elizabeth Leever of Fort Klamath was among the out of town business visitors in the city yesterday, shopping in the stores also.

Visitors—Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Henriot are enjoying a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Henriot of Chehalis, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Henriot of Kelso, Wash. They will spend the remainder of the week.

Merrill—Out of town shoppers in Klamath Falls the early part of the week include Mrs. Sarah A. Harris of Merrill, who spent Tuesday in the city.

Dorris—Among the business visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday was W. L. Nichols, prominent business man of the Dorris district.

On Business—Mr. and Mrs. William F. Jinnette, well known residents of the Merrill district spent Tuesday in Klamath Falls visiting with friends and transacting business affairs.

Shopping—Out of town shopping visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday included many residents of the Merrill district, among them, Mrs. Madison Brown, who spent the day visiting and transacting affairs.

Dorris Visitor—Seth T. Cox, Dorris resident, was listed among the out of town visitors in Klamath Falls in the city yesterday to transact business.

Enjoy Picnic—Those enjoying a picnic at Whul-Kse Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bruley, Mrs. J. H. Thompson and daughter, Miss Marie Thompson, Mr. Bruley and Miss Marie also enjoyed a swim in the lake.

Return From Trip—E. M. Bubb and Louis K. Porter returned yesterday afternoon from Portland where they have been for the past few days making a hurried business trip.

From Malin—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dalton were among the visitors in the city yesterday from their ranch in the Malin section. Mrs. Dalton to visit with friends and shop while Dalton attended a meeting of the board of directors of chamber of commerce.

From Olene—Among the numerous Olene visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday was George Anderson, well known rancher of that section.

Improving—Miss Dorothea Wortley who was taken to a Klamath Falls hospital Sunday morning is said by members of her family to be improving and will be taken to the family home this afternoon.

Pasadena—Mr. and Mrs. Kirk White of Pasadena are in Klamath Falls visiting with Mr. White's sisters, Mrs. Oscar Shive and Mrs. Charles I. Roberts. While in the Klamath country they are planning a trip to Crater lake, Rocky Point and a several days fishing trip to Diamond lake.

To Arrive—Mrs. Will Houston and one of her children are expected to arrive in Klamath Falls today, after an extensive visit during the summer with relatives in San Diego.

From Dorris—Out of town visitors in Klamath Falls, combining their business and pleasure trips were Mr. and Mrs. Jess W. Churchill of Dorris and Mr. and Mrs. Archie McDonald, also of the southern California city. They visited in the city Tuesday.

Morrow In—Out of town business visitors in the city yesterday included J. A. Morrow, who is president of the Morrow Poultry company's ranch on the Merrill road.

To Arrive—Mrs. Oscar Shive and Mrs. Charles I. Roberts are anticipating the arrival of their mother, Mrs. G. W. White, of Astoria, and Mrs. Charles Coseboom of Stockton. Mrs. Coseboom has been visiting in Astoria and is now enroute to her home in the south, planning to visit for some time in the city. They will also be accompanied by Dr. Nellie Vernon, also of Astoria. Mrs. Vernon and Mrs. White attended the same medical college when they were young girls in the east.

Midland—Among the visitors in the city the early part of the week was R. L. Sutton, well known rancher of the Midland district.

Returns South—Miss Betty Bell, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Don Zumwalt returned to her home on the bay, after an enjoyable visit in Klamath with relatives. Miss Bell was accompanied to Ashland by Mrs. Zumwalt.

From Yreka—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Richardson are enjoying a visit in Klamath Falls from their home in Yreka, visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Auchonich. Richardson returned south yesterday but Mrs. Richardson will remain for some time to visit friends.

Returns—Mrs. Norma Jefferies has returned to Klamath Falls, after spending the past few weeks in San Francisco, where she was called by the serious illness of her father who suffered a stroke of paralysis. According to Mrs. Jefferies his condition is little improved.

Arrested—A man who gave his name as C. Siretson was arrested yesterday and charged with reckless driving.

Former Residents—Glen Wimberly of Roseburg, with Mrs. Wimberly and son, Lester, stopped last night in Klamath Falls after spending an enjoyable week at Diamond lake. Wimberly is a former resident of Klamath Falls, when he served as cashier in the American National bank. He is now affiliated with a bank at Roseburg.

Visiting—Mrs. Pauline... home in San Francisco... remain for the summer.

A furnace in your home will keep you comfortable. Prices...
TRY
LORSON
Phone...

Bring Us
HID
and PEL
We are in the...
the highest market...
Lewis Gro
223 S. 6th St.

Hardware That Endures

Whether your job is one for a building or for some repair work, the hardware that will fit your needs. There's as much difference in the quality of hardware as there is between a day.

Roberts & Harve
"Hardware for Hardware"
422 Main St. Phone...

SHEPHERD'S
RADIO SLASHED.

Forbes Pure Drugs
Eighth at Main
Good Service—Good Drugs

DANCE AT BONANZA

Saturday, August 15.
Les Sailing's Orchestra.
"Better Than Ever."

Frank & King's Comedians

The Big White Tent
Seventh and Pine Streets

Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday

The Funniest of All Swede Dramas

"OLE OLSEN'S SCHOOL DAYS"

Prices 25c and 50 c. Jazz Orchestra

Forbes Pure Drugs
Eighth at Main
Good Service—Good Drugs

It Pays To Look Our Windows Over

Reduced Prices on all odd pieces of 1847 Rogers Bros. Silver, Holmes and Edwards and Community.

Glover, The Jeweler

511 Main